

Higdonville And Cullasaja

Easter Service

The public is invited to attend the Easter sunrise service at Cullasaja School Easter morning at 6:30. The Rev. R. L. Poindexter, of the Franklin Methodist Circuit; the Rev. R. E. Stevenson, of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church; the Rev. Jarvis Underwood, of Sugarfork Baptist Church; and the Rev. Fred N. Sorrells, of the Franklin Assembly of God Church, will participate in the program. A choir, composed of people served by the Cullasaja school district, will present a program of special Easter music, with Pritchard Russell in charge.

Having Revival

Revival services are being held this week at Higdonville Baptist Church, with the Rev. Roy Smith as visiting minister. The pastor, the Rev. Paul Sorrells is here for the services and preached Sunday. Services begin at 7:30 each night and will continue through Sunday night.

Study Lighting

Mrs. Florence S. Sherrill gave a demonstration on "See Your Home in a New Light", using a film strip and samples of light fixtures for illustration, at last Thursday's meeting of the Higdonville Home Demonstration Club. Ten members were present. Mrs. Fred Corbin, president, presided. Mrs. Ann Berry was hostess to the club at her home.

Tentative plans were made for the county dress review, which will be held at Cullasaja School April 29. Higdonville club will be one of the hostess clubs.

Mrs. Bryson Honored

Cullasaja community is very proud of Mrs. Vernon Bryson, 4-H leader, who was honored at 4-H Achievement Day Saturday for her outstanding work with the 4-H's of this community. She has given unselfishly of her time and energy for the past few years to help the boys and girls of this community have one of the best 4-H clubs in the county. She was presented a bouquet of red roses by the 4-H county council Saturday night.

Mrs. Bryson, Mrs. Dewitt Thompson, and Miss Helen Woods helped the Cullasaja 4-H's prepare their float for Saturday's parade.

Plan Working

Friday (tomorrow) has been set for another working on the grounds at Higdonville Baptist Church. They are seeding the grounds and landscaping. A group will also meet to wash the church windows.

Given Pounding

The Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Stevenson were given a grocery pounding Friday night by members of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church, of which Mr. Stevenson is pastor. The Stevensons just moved into the community. Approximately 30 called during the evening. The women of the Young People's Sunday School Class served refreshments.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Russell, of Pontiac, Mich., on the arrival of a baby daughter, Deborah Kay, March 19 at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Pontiac. Mr. Russell, formerly of Cullasaja community, is the son of Mrs. Gordon Gibson and the late Tom Russell.

Feted With Shower

Mrs. Hayes Holland was honored with a shower last Friday night at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Estes. About 17 attended. The honoree received many gifts.

The hostesses, Mrs. Lloyd Estes and Mrs. John Holland, served refreshments.

Meeting Set

The Higdonville Community Development Organization meeting will be held next Thursday night (April 2) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moses, beginning at 7:30, according to Sidney Clay, president.

School Doings

The dentist is still at Cullasaja School this week.

Approximately $50 has been collected for Easter Seals. The room collecting the most will get to go on a field trip in the school's activity bus. At this time, Mrs. Glee Nolen's third grade is leading with a total of $12.

The eighth grade has displayed its pride in Cullasaja School by cleaning up the grounds this week and working on the grass.

Personals

Sidney Clay and two children, Diane and Donny, spent the week end in Washington, D. C. They visited Mr. Clay's sister, Miss Betty Clay.
