Meeting Held

Cullasaja Rural Community Development Organization held its regular meeting at Cullasaja School Tuesday night, April 7, with Pritchard Russell, president, presiding. The meeting was opened with group singing. The Rev. R. E. Stephenson led in prayer.

The Rev. R. E. Stephenson, pastor of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church, was elected religious activities leader, succeeding their parents in Bakersville last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Keener and son, Kim, of Hendersonville, were guests of Mrs. Keener's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Clark, and Mr. Clark last week end.

Miss Anna Setser and Aubrey House, of Atlanta, Ga., visited Mr. and Mrs. Gilmer Setser last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Kusterer and daughter, Cindy, of El Paso, Tex., are spending a 30-day leave with Mr. and Mrs. John Kusterer. This week, accompanied by Mrs. John Kusterer, they are visiting relatives in Raleigh and Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Bill Penland and son, Bill,

the Rev. Conrad Barrett.

A free will offering for the American Cancer Society was taken. This offering amounted to $5, and the organization added $5 more, making the total contribution $10.

Plans were made for a supper to raise funds for community projects. This supper will be held Saturday night, April 25, in the Cullasaja School lunchroom. Serving will be from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. The charge will be 75c for adults spent last week end with Mr. Penland in Macon, Ga., where he is employed.

Harris L. Sanders, vice-president of Cooper D. Cass, Inc., of Winston-Salem, and Charles E. Sanders, who is with the customer service department of the western area, visited their father, J. L. Sanders, recently. They were accompanied by James R. Warmack of the Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing Company, St. Paul, Minn. While here they went trout fishing.

Mrs. C. N. Dowdle is spending some time visiting her sister, Miss Lela Moore Hall, in Lillington, and her daughter, Miss Carolyn Dowdle, in Greensboro.

and 35c for children. Mrs. John Bryson, Mrs. Marion Bryson, and Mrs. Charlie Holland were appointed to the food committee for the supper. Persons in the community wishing to donate food for the supper should see one of these women. The public is invited to the supper.

A working was set for Saturday, April 18, at the picnic ground, beginning early in the morning. The men plan to dig a garbage pit and there is plenty of repair work to be done, as someone has destroyed and damaged many of the facilities around the grounds. The picnic tables also will be painted.

At the May meeting a "white elephant" sale will be held to raise funds for the community. Members are asked to make their "white elephant" package something that can be used, even if it is of an amusing nature.

The door prize was won by Richard Holland. Pat Cable dismissed the meeting with prayer. The 34 present enjoyed games and refreshments after the business meeting.

Meetings Set

Next Wednesday, April 22, has been set for a meeting of the W.S.C.S. of Salem Methodist Church at the home of Mrs. Bob Elders.

The Women's Missionary Council of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church will meet Thursday afternoon, April 23, at the home of Mrs. Frank Blanton.

Plan Bible School

Sunday, tentative plans were made at the Higdonville Baptist Church for Bible school to begin June 1 with the pastor, the Rev. Paul Sorrells, acting as principal. Saturday, May 30, will be preparation day.

Mrs. Sidney Clay and Mrs. W. W. Berry attended the Vacation Bible School Clinic last Thursday at the First Baptist Church.

Misses Katherine Berry and Nancy Berry, of the Higdonville church, participated in the "Youth Night" program at Franklin Baptist Church Saturday night. David Corbin and Tommy Berry, also of the Higdonville church, acted as ushers.

To Meet

Higdonville Home Demonstration Club will meet today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. Ethel Horne at 1:30.

Attend Court

The eighth grade class at Cullasaja School enjoyed a trip to court Tuesday. The class has spent considerable time learning about the functions of the various court officials. They are planning a trial in their room.

Cullasaja School is undergoing spring housecleaning this week. The floors are getting a waxing. Juniors and seniors from Franklin High have been decorating the auditorium at Cullasaja School this week for the annual junior-senior banquet, which will be held Saturday night.

Plan Service

The Sugarfork Baptist Church plans to hold a song service and devotional at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. Alex Ammons Sunday afternoon, April 19, as announced by the pastor, the Rev. Jarvis Underwood. Mr. Ammons has been confined to his home because of illness for many months and Mrs. Ammons does not get to attend church since she has to care for him. Singers are urged to attend.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Henderson went to Charleston, S. C., last week to visit the Cypress and Magnolia Gardens.

Little Karen Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore, who has been very sick for the past week, has been discharged from the hospital. She is reported somewhat improved.

Mrs. Gordon Gibson left Friday for Pontiac, Mich., where she will visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Russell, and their new baby daughter, Deborah Kay, and her other son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Russell.
