

IN HIGH POINT —

Miss Nancy Josephine Smith Becomes Bride Of Charles Thomas Saturday

Miss Nancy Josephine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Milton Smith, of High Point, became the bride of John Charles Thomas, son of J. Harry Thomas, and the late Mrs. Thomas, of Franklin, in a ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in High Point last Saturday evening.

Dr. Roy Watts, pastor of the church, officiated, and wedding music was presented by Henry Whipple, church organist.

The altar was decorated with floor baskets of mixed white flowers, and white candles in branched candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza and Alencon lace, fashioned with boat, neck-line and yoke of Alencon lace applique. The bouffant skirt extended from a Basque bodice and had matching appliques of lace, and a butterfly back bustle. Her tiered veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of Frenched carnations and gypsophila centered with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers.

Miss Mary Ellen Loftis, of Kingsport, Tenn., was maid of honor, and wore a gown of Nile green lace. She carried a Colonial bouquet in rainbow colors.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marjorie Elizabeth Comer, of Miami, Fla., Miss Joan Thomas, of Franklin, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Joan Prince, of Greensboro, Mrs. E. Gravelly Reid, of Charlotte, and Mrs. Roy Helms, of Greensboro.

Mrs. John Charles Thomas

They wore gowns of lilac, pink, and yellow, and carried Colonial bouquets of rainbow colors.

Mr. Thomas served as his son's best man. Ushers were Van Carroll, of Charleston, W. Va., Charles Gordon Gaston, of Bloomington, Ind., and Robert Dillard, of Fayetteville.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the social hall of the church. Approximately 100 guests were introduced to the receiving line, which was composed of the host and hostess, Mrs. Roger M. Chandler, of California, Md., sister of the bridegroom, the bride and bridegroom, and the bridesmaids. Mrs. James Morgan, of Chapel Hill sister of the bridegroom, kept the guest register, and Mrs. W. W. Hodgkin, of High Point, and Mrs. Roy Graves, Jr., of Kernersville, were in charge of the refreshment table.

Mrs. Thomas is a 1958 graduate of Wake Forest College, where she was graduated Phi Beta Kappa. She taught at Reynolds High School last year, and will teach this coming year at South Charleston High School.

Mr. Thomas is a 1956 graduate of North Carolina State College, Raleigh, where he was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity. He did graduate work at Columbia University, and spent two years at the Army Chemical Center in Maryland. He is presently employed as a chemical engineer at Union Carbide Chemical Company in Charleston, W. Va.

Escapee Has Short 'Vacation'

Andy Glend, the prisoner who escaped last week in the Cowee section, had only a short "vacation" before being brought back to the local prison.

He was caught last Wednesday about 500 yards from where he escaped. He is believed to have spent the night in a barn nearby. The camp's bloodhound sniffed him out, and found him in an open field hiding behind a tree.

Macon Roads Receive Additional Stone

For the past month, road work in the county has centered on strengthening roads with additional stone, according to a report from P. L. Hutchison, division engineer.

The roads, and lengths, were: Watauga Road, 0.4 mile; Neillen Road, 0.7; Clear Creek Road, 0.5; Horse Cove Road, 0.5; and Miller Richey Road, 0.7.

Work was completed on 40 roads in the 14th division, the engineer said.
