

Course Change For Korea Vets Liberalized

Due to a liberalization by recent congressional action, a veteran taking training under the Korea GI bill can now advance from high school to college, or from college to a graduate degree in the same field, without being charged with a change of course.

This was announced by the Veterans Administration.

The veteran must continue to study in the same field and the course taken previously must be a prerequisite, or one generally required for entrance to the more advanced course. If the advancement is not to be counted as a change of course.

In the past, a veteran who made application for a training program to include a bachelor's degree was charged with a change of course if he later decided to go on for a master's degree. The basic Korea GI bill permits a veteran only one change of course.

VA said there is no retroactive provision in the new law. However, veterans who have been out of training for more than 12 consecutive months because they had been denied a more advanced program of study may re-enter training in the advanced course now, if they request it.

Veterans who failed to request continuation of their training and have been out of training more than 12 months, may request re-entrance into the advanced course.

If they can show evidence that their interruption of training was due to conditions beyond their control.

TRUCKS THAT DO THE NEXT BEST THING TO PAVING EVERY ROAD IN AMERICA!

Imagine a truck ride so smooth and cushioned that fragile loads can travel the worst "wash-board" roads with ease. Imagine a truck ride that virtually eliminates shimmy and wheel fight, cuts side sway on curves, makes steering far steadier and easier, keeps drivers far fresher. Imagine a truck ride that permits higher safe cruising speeds, more trips per day with all kinds of cargo over every type of road surface. Imagine a ride that keeps up to 78% of all objectionable road shock and vibration from ever reaching the driver and cargo, a design that sharply reduces twisting and fatigue forces on chassis, cabs and bodies, that keeps trucks young for three thousands of miles. / Soon you won't have to just imagine such a ride. You can try it for yourself in the trucks that do the next best thing to paving every road in America—new Chevrolet trucks for 1960. You'll see what happens when Chevy's truck engineers design a whole new line of trucks around a whole new kind of torsion-spring suspension. These trucks are new from the ride on up—with wonderfully roomier cabs, brawnier frames, style that's fresh as sixty and more! Don't decide on any new truck till you see the newest of all.

See them soon at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's.
