MISS LYLE AND TED S. KALLAM

Miss Laura Bowers Lyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harley Lyle, Jr., and Ted Shelton Kallam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Lee Kallam, of Winston-Salem, were united in marriage on Saturday, October 3, at 4:30 p.m. in St. Agnes Episcopal Church.

Dr. A. Rufus Morgan and the Rev. Jack W. Tucker officiated, using the double-ring ceremony. The wedding music was presented by Mrs. Margaret Cooper, organist, and Miss Geraldine McIlroy, of Winston-Salem, soloist. Miss McIlroy sang "Bless This Hour" and "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of ivory dupont, fashioned with a scalloped heart neckline and a pearl and diamond necklace. The full skirt extended into a court train and her shoulder-length veil fell from a pearl-embroidered bandeau. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with staphenotis.

Miss Raye Horton, of Winston-Salem, was maid of honor, and Miss Carolyn Bryson was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of violente rose satin with a scooped neckline and flared skirt caught with a cumberbund in a deeper tone extending into a back panel. They wore bandeaux and carried nosegays of pink gladioli and white roses.

William Lee Kallam, of Greenville, S. C., served as his brother's best man and ushers were John Duke Baldrige, Jr., Hinton G. Hudson, Jr., Sam L. Booker, Jr., and David S. Avera, all of Winston-Salem.

The bride's mother wore a dress of avacoda green brocade with brown accessories and brown orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom chose a dress of French blue silk with which she wore blue accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Kallam is a graduate of Franklin High School and Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. She is now employed by the trust department of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Kallam is a graduate of Reynolds High School, Winston-Salem, and Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone. He spent four years in the U.S. Air Force and is now employed by the auditing department of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Winston-Salem.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home on Harrison Avenue. Assisting at the bride's table were Mrs. Gordon W. Reap, of Tampa, Fla., Mrs. Clm S. Sutton, of Washington, Ga., and Mrs. Hugh M. Hendrix, of Trenton, Fla., aunts of the bride, and Misses Nancy Mullinax and Grace Johnson, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Grady Corbin kept the bride's book.

Know what a pinhole camera is? These near-forgotten cameras are worth a little study.

In a technical sense, a pinhole camera is one utilizing a tiny hole rather than the lens to form an image. Although the image is formed on the film plane of the camera by rays of light entering the pinhole from all points, the theory of the pinhole opening is to admit but one ray of light from any one point. This sounds like a simple and inexpensive approach to picture taking, but we might point out that there is no substitute for a good lens which provides sharper images and by admitting more light, shortens exposures.

As there is no substitute for a good lens there is, in fact, no substitute for quality in any type of photo supply or accessory. Good products add up to good results. You can be sure that cameras and supplies carried by GENE'S STUDIO & CAMERA HOUSE, 10 Phillips St., will perform to standard. Phone LA 4-3322. (Paid Adv.)
