

Closing Study Course —

LOWDER, BILTMORE PASTOR, TO SPEAK WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The Rev. John A. Lowder, pastor of the Biltmore Methodist Church, Asheville, will be guest speaker at the final meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 of the study course on the United Nations next week at the Franklin Methodist church. Mr. Lowder is a representative of the American Freedom Association, which sponsors the high school peace study program and trips to U.N. for high school students. The study course, sponsored by the women of the Methodist, Episcopal, and Presbyterian churches, also will include a panel discussion Tuesday night, with Mrs. Frank Martin as moderator, and Mrs. H. Beuck, Miss Frances Winstead, and Mrs. Charles Ledbetter as panelists. These women have all made trips to the U.N. and will discuss "What Impressed Me Most at the United Nations."
