

Here And There In
Ridgecrest
And Watauga

MRS. ED CRAWFORD
Staff Correspondent

The Ridgecrest Home Demonstration Club met October 20 at the home of Mrs. Gaylord Reed, with 11 members present. The club selected a committee of three to elect officers. They were Mrs. John Snyder, Mrs. Gaylord Reed, and Mrs. Harvey Cabe.

As family life leader, Mrs. Frank Sellers made a report.

The home gardens leader, Mrs. Jeter Higdon, also reported.

Mrs. Higdon read the letter sent by The Inter-Church and Civic Betterment Interest Group to the county and town governing bodies and other organizations citing seven suggestions to make a better community. The club approved the letter.

Mrs. Mabel Swan, assistant home agent, gave a demonstration on "Eat a Good Breakfast".

Mrs. Lawson Snyder gave the devotional.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lawson Snyder.

Gastonia, Sunday afternoon the Hopkins took the girls to Cullowhee, where they are enrolled in college. They also visited Carl Hopkins at Speedwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moses spent the week end in Gastonia visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moses.

Last week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Fred York were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guest and daughter, Connie, of Raleigh, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Guest, of Danville, Va.

Jud Shope, of Michigan, spent several days this week visiting the Joe Hopkinses.

Death Takes
Mrs. Fouts
In Michigan

Mrs. Nettie Pearl Fouts, formerly of this county, died last Thursday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Pontiac, Mich., following a brief illness.

Mrs. Fouts, who operated a kindergarten in Franklin a number of years ago, had taught in the North Carolina public schools and for seven years had been a teacher in the Pontiac schools. She was 51.

Graduated from Meredith College, Raleigh, she later took post-graduate work at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

She was a member of the teachers' honor society, Delta Kappa Gamma, the American Childhood Education Association, the American Legion Auxiliary, and the Pontiac First Baptist Church.

She was a native of Fuquay Springs, in Wake County, and funeral services were held at the Fuquay Springs Baptist Church, Sunday, with burial there. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Survivors, in addition to her husband, Joseph Fouts, include six brothers and three sisters, all of Fuquay Springs.

Auxiliary To Meet

The Girls' Auxiliary of the Ridgecrest Baptist Church will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jeter Higdon at 2 o'clock. The members are all urged to attend.
