

Reportin' Things from Holly Springs
MRS. DON SEAGLE
Staff Correspondent

A baptismal service will be held at the First Baptist Church in Franklin by the Holly Springs Baptist Church Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The Holly Springs pastor, the Rev. Lewis Howard, will be in charge. There are 12 candidates to be baptized.

Community Meeting
The Holly Springs Community Development Organization will hold its monthly meeting at the Community Building Monday night at 7 o'clock. A picnic supper will be followed by the business meeting.

The community was represented at the awards dinner Saturday night by Mrs. Earl Justice, Mrs. Don Seagle, Mrs. Paul Ammons, Mrs. Jim Williamson and Mrs. Fred Deal. The report was made by Mrs. Jack Cabe. The youth of the community was represented by Carolyn Kinsland and Brenda Seagle. Holly Springs was awarded the Home Beautification award. Fred Deal accepted the award.

Will Collect For U. F.
The 4-H club boys and girls will make a visit to each home in the community Friday or Saturday night to collect contributions to the United Fund. People are requested to answer when these young callers come to your home, and to give generously.

Personals
Last week Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Justice and John Justice had as visitors Mr. and Mrs. John Slagle and daughter, Marilyn, of Bryson City, formerly of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corbin and daughter, Linda, spent last week end in Knoxville, Tenn., visiting their daughter, Mrs. Earl Holden, and Mr. Holden.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wymer Young were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Young and daughters, of Asheville.

Mrs. Dewey Corbin returned home Saturday, following a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeter in Boone.

C. A. Williams left Sunday for a visit with his son, Charles Williams, and family in Pontiac, Mich.

Mrs. Bessie Hege left Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ammons in Waynesville, then on to her home in Winston-Salem for a few days.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Howard returned home Friday, following a two weeks' vacation.

Week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kinsland were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Russell and daughter, Freda, of Swannanoa.

Miss Diana Clay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clay, of the Higdonville Community.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mincey were the lucky winners of table set (a coffee table and two end-tables) raffled off at the Cullasaja Halloween Carnival. These tables will look nice in the new Mincey home, now under construction.

Mrs. Lawson Shook is visiting her sisters in Charlotte, and receiving medical treatment while treatment while there.

Matlock, Macon Native, Dies In Idaho

Word has been received here of the death in Boise, Idaho, last Thursday of Frank Matlock, 75-year old native of Macon County. Mr. Matlock, who left this county about 50 years ago for California, later moved to Idaho, where he was foreman for a road construction company. He was a 33rd degree Mason.

Born on Matlock Creek, in the Cowee community, he was the son of John B. and Mrs. Jane West Matlock. He married Miss Ida Nix, of Colorado, who survives. Funeral services were held in Boise Sunday.

Other survivors include four sisters, Mrs. Cora Potts, of Franklin, Route 3, Mrs. Lizzie Potts, of Wilson, Mrs. Kansas Bryson, of Saginaw, Mich., and Mrs. Jennie Jenkins, of Boise; and one brother, Ben S. Matlock, of Boise.

From 1950 to 1954 North Carolina farmers purchased 52,000 tractors.

"Hard-Working Dollars"

Your Jefferson Standard premium dollars are hard working dollars. Larger too, because of Jefferson Standard's outstanding investment record. For 21 consecutive years, Jefferson Standard has led the industry in net investment earnings.

As a result, Jefferson Standard, now guaranteeing 2 1/2%, has never paid less than 4% interest on dividend accumulations and policy proceeds left on deposit to provide income. This is the highest rate of interest paid by any major life insurance company in the United States. Let us give you the full story, soon.
