Feted at Shower
The Higdonville home demonstration club women entertained with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Berry at the home of Mr. Berry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. (Dude)

Berry, Tuesday night, November 3.
The honorees received many useful household gifts. Refreshments were served by the Higdonville Home Demonstration Club. The Berry home was decorated with arrangements of fall flowers. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. Berry is the former Miss Wanda Brendle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brendle, of Route 4. The young couple is presently living on Route 4.

Club To Meet

The monthly meeting of the Higdonville Home Demonstration Club will be held today (Thursday) at the home of Mrs. Fred Ruppenthal, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

The program will be centered around family life, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Corbin. The theme will be "Faith is a Family Affair".

Makes Improvements

The Cullasaja Assembly of God Church has bought new chairs for the Sunday school rooms. The parsonage also has been underpinned.

Tuesday night a business meeting was held at the church to discuss building more Sunday school rooms and other improvements on the church property.

Here For Funeral

Those from out-of-town here to attend the funeral of "Uncle John" Cunningham at Bethel Methodist Church Monday afternoon were his nephew, Carl Higdon, of Lynch, Ky., and his nephew, Boyd Holland, and Mrs. Holland, of Waynesville.

P.T.A. Meets

About 100 persons attended the P.T.A. meeting at Cullasaja School last Tuesday night (November 10). Mrs. Sammy Beck, president, presided.

Mrs. Pauline Cable's sixth grade gave the program, covering some of the things they have been studying. They have been studying the life of the caveman and portrayed the life of the caveman with drawings and exhibits usual to the home and living habits of the caveman. They sang a song they had learned from their sixth grade song book. They have also been studying the life of James Whitcomb Riley and a student recited one of his poems.

During the business session, the group decided to buy door mats, towel racks, and shades for the classrooms with the money made at the Halloween carnival.

Open house was held with the parents visiting in the classrooms with their children's teachers.

Mrs. George Mallonee was elected treasurer to succeed Mrs. Ann Berry, who resigned because she is unable to attend the meetings since she broke her leg. Mrs. Ted Higdon was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Evelyn Bryson, who resigned because of other duties.

A committee on free lunches was selected to determine whether a child is entitled to free lunches.

Bethel Methodist Church was in charge of the devotional. The group enjoyed the talk made by Bethel's pastor, the Rev. Aubrey Brown.

Refreshments were served.

Plays Basketball

Cullasaja School played basketball with Union boys and girls last Friday afternoon at Union School. Cullasaja boys were victorious, 29-19. Cullasaja lassies lost to Union girls, 13-14.

Plan Trip

The eighth grade at Cullasaja School is busy gathering walnuts.

Senior Visiting

Several seniors have been week end visiting colleges they are interested in attending next year. The week end of November 7 found Ann Pennington, Anne Dean, Alice Bradley, and Barbara Duncan visiting the campuses of Wake Forest College, Winston-Salem, and Woman's College, Greensboro. The girls visited FHS graduates on both campuses, attended church services at Wake Forest, and a performance by the college theater group at Woman's College.

Last week end, Barbara Duncan went to Agnes Scott, where she attended a school dance and visited classrooms. Vianne Keener and Judy Blaine spent last week end at Woman's College.

In its spare time, The boys and girls have plans for making a trip to Atlanta next spring and they hope to finance it with this project.

Honored With Party

The Young People of the Cullasaja Assembly of God, Church honored Bruce Holland and Keith Holland, Monday night of last week with a party at the parsonage.

Thirty-five people met to wish these boys luck as they are leaving to join the Armed Forces. Milas Gregory, group leader, led in several games.

Mrs. Milas Gregory, Mrs. R. E. Stephenson, Mrs. Vernon Bryson, and Mrs. Pearl H. Gentry served sandwiches, small cakes, and fruit punch.

Bruce is the son of Mrs. Pearl Holland Gentry and the late Donald Holland, and Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Holland, both of Route 5.

Honored At Church

Prior to leaving to join the Armed Forces, Bruce Holland and Keith Holland were honored Sunday before last at the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church by their Sunday School Superintendent, Bill Bennett, with a Bible each.

Personals

Here from Elizabethton, Tenn., this week end to visit Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bryson and Mrs. A. C. Moore and family were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ritchie and son, Sam Q.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lequire went to Topton Sunday to visit Mrs. Lequire's sister and her family.

Mrs. Fronia Dunn visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings over the week end.

Hiram Williams, of Seneca, S. C., is here this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bowers and other relatives and friends in Cullasaja community.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beale and two sons, Richie and Ronnie, Mrs. Margaret Ann Ammons, and Mrs. Britt Bowman, of Cullasaja, attended the funeral of Mr. Beale's father, J. H. Beale, at Highlands Baptist Church last Friday afternoon.

New Everything

The FHS Girls Letter Club, which used to be the Monogram Club when meetings were held with the boys, has planned a year's program of activities to go with the new name. Committees will be appointed. Officers are president, Edith Sheffield; vice-president, Shirley Lenoir, and secretary-treasurer, Elmyra Ledford. Members are, by year, as follows: 4th year, Joyce Cole, basketball, and Nora Stuart, cheerleading; 3rd year, Mary Sue Reynolds, Edith Sheffield, Dorothy Storkton, and Mary Lou Cabe, basketball, and Gloria Jean Hedden and Virginia Boyd, cheerleading; 2nd year, Shirley Lenoir, Jessie Carpenter, and Jewel Fox, basketball, and Polly Hedden and Elmyra Ledford, cheerleading; and 1st year, Sara Lee Bryson, cheerleading.

Selling Again

The Spanish Club, under the leadership of president Max Gladwell, vice-president, Alene Williamson, secretary-treasurer, Gloria Jean Hedden, and sponsor, Mrs. Shirley Choer, plans to continue its traditional candy selling this year, among other projects. What will they do with the money? A New Year's Eve party is planned, for one thing.

New Members

The Future Teachers Club inducted new members for the year in a special program held last week. They are Kathryn Jones, Mary Jo Henderson, Jo Ann Curtis, Janice Pruitt, Ida Mae Ramey, Emma Siler, Sylvia Ledford, Barbara Medlin, Hilda Sanders, John Crawford, Paul Cabe, Linda Cochran, and Joan Pruitt.

They're Trying

Three seniors, Ronnie Henson, Arthur Hays, and Doug Pearson are trying for Morehead scholarships at the University of North Carolina. Seniors Jane Long, Pauline Hedden, Judy Blaine, Gary Caloway, and Fred Bulgin are trying for Alcoa Scholarships, which are available to children of Nantahala Power and Light Company employes.

Washington-Bound

A senior trip to Washington, D. C., is definitely being planned approximately a day after graduation. The trip, which will probably last about five days, will be made by chartered bus. More than the minimum number, 35, have indicated that they will make the trip. Indeed, a maximum of 45 has been set. The cost of the trip is $45.46, plus $15 spending money, which must be turned in with the trip amount. Once enroute, the $15 will be returned to the students. The deadline for turning in the $60.46 is January 8. Payments are made to Janice Pruitt.

Students Tapped

The following students have been tapped for membership in the Beta Club, the national scholastic honor society: Doug Single, Ronnie Henson, Arthur Hays, Jane Long, Juanita Welch, Jo Ann Curtis, Jean Sprinkle, Lois Norton, Alice Bradley, Barbara Duncan, Anne Dean, Janice Pruitt, Lucy Meadows, and Vicky Ray. Mrs. Frank Martin is sponsor for the F.H.S. chapter.

The Secretary of the Navy, in 1783, directed a Navy agent in Boston to procure watch coats for Marines on the basis of "one coat for every two Marines".
