BLARNEY

By A Brady Called J. P.

ISN'T IT SILLY . . .

To talk of evacuating huge cities when a motorist in a small country town gets snarled in normal going-home traffic in the afternoon?

To demand to be entertained by TV and then become indignant when you find out that's exactly what's been happening?

To splash society with a birthday party and then coyly decline to reveal how old you are?

To want something for nothing — and when you get it loudly complain about its inadequacies?

To drive like a maniac and then, with true adult pomposity, tut-tut a teenager for crumpling a fender?

To ask of someone a favor that you personally wouldn't grant if the "shoe was on the other foot"?

Mrs. F. E. Mashburn wants to second the motion about doing something with the Indian Mound as an attraction.

She suggests putting a Macon County map on the wall (of a proposed Indian museum) with the Indian names of the section. She writes that Ellijay means "green earth"; Skeenah, "hall"; Nantahala, "Land of the Noon Day Sun", and the like.

We like the suggestion, Mrs. Mashburn, and we'll welcome any from any of you.

But, the main thing we'd like to have is a suggestion on how to get the Indian Mound job done by next Spring.

I'd think this would make a dandy project for some civic club.

I LIKE THIS:

Little cards with the following were on the tables at the Boy Scout dinner last week at Franklin High:

This I Believe: A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in, or the kind of car I drove.

But the world may be better, because I was important in the life of a boy.

MORE INDIAN MOUND:

Pamela Cunningham, Otto eighth grader, dropped us a postal with some Indian Mound history.

Says Pamela, "On June 27, 1760 at Echoe, near the present town of Franklin, in Macon County, the Cherokee Indians defeated 1,600 British soldiers and several hundred militiamen led by Archibald Montgomery."

Thank you, Pam, we'll remember it.

GOING STRONG:

For the second straight year, Franklin's Dan Angel has been chosen to represent the Smoky Mountain officials in the Murphy AA playoffs tomorrow (Friday) night on a neutral field in Eastern North Carolina.

Dan has been officiating for the past three years in the conference. With five years' officiating under his whistle, in both football and basketball, he started officiating while in the U. S. Marines at Parris Island, S. C. Last Friday night, Dan kept statistics for the Andrews-Edneyville game played in Canton.

A rising junior at Western Carolina College, he is majoring in elementary education and as a sideline serves as school photographer.

HUNTING NOTE:

Two hunters had been out in the woods for several hours and one of them was growing uneasy. Finally, panic got the best of him. "We're lost!" he cried to his companion. "What are we going to do?"

Just relax," said his composed friend. "Shoot an extra deer and the game warden will be here in a minute and a half."

TIP OF THE WEEK: Don't worry about what others think of you, they seldom do!

Many Are Here For George Tallent Rites

Among those who were here from out-of-town for the funeral of George Tallent last week were Mr. and Mrs. James Tallent and daughter, of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Poindexter and children, of Charlotte; Noah Tallent and son-in-law, Olin Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grant and son, Grady, Mrs. Nina Cooper, Mrs. Eva Green and daughter, Kathy, Pink Tallent and daughter, Grace, Mrs. Maggie Choat, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Choat, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayes, of Eto-wah, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Ham Tallent, of Cleveland, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tallent and son, of Sweetwater, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Verlon Tallent, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Miss Louise Raby, of Greenville, S. C.; and Mr. and Mrs. Furman Raby, of Sylva.

In 1843 the Navy's first prefabricated vessel, the USS Michigan, was launched at Erie, Pa. The ship was constructed at Pittsburgh and transported to Erie for assembly.
