Groups To Meet
The Women's Missionary Society and Girls' Auxiliary of the Ridgecrest Baptist Church will meet Saturday night at the church at 7:30 p.m. o'clock.

Furniture Featured
The Watauga Home Demonstration Club met February 19 at the home of Mrs. Louie Cochran. Mrs. Cochran, as housing and house furnishings leader, gave the demonstration on the care of furniture. She gave methods on what, how, and when to use different cleaning materials on wood, wicker, hardware, and upholstered furniture. She told the proper care was the secret to the life and beauty of good furniture.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Oscar Thompson.

Baby Honored

Rhonda Sue Scott, baby daughter of R. L. Scott, was honored with a shower by the community Tuesday night of last week at the home of Mrs. Gene Cassada. Twenty-five attended.

Kinslands Feted

The Young Married Sunday School Class of the Watauga Baptist Church honored Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kinsland with a housewarming Saturday night at their home. Forty guests attended. Refreshments of cupcakes, sandwiches, coffee, and punch were served.

Meeting At Morgans

Prayer meeting of the Watauga Baptist Church will be held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morgan. Last Saturday night it was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kinsland in connection with their housewarming.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hedden and son, Jimmy, of Oakridge, Tenn., spent the week end at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Odus Whitfield and children and Milton Carter, of Anderson, S. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carter Sunday.

J. R. Brendle left Monday to return to his job in Durham.

A/2c Dennis Mehaffey, of the U. S. Air Force stationed at Charleston, S. C., spent the week end with his aunt, Miss Emma Reid, and brother, Zeb Mehaffey, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dills, of Marietta, Ga., spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey and Mrs. Will Dills, of Franklin, Route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. George Raby and children helped entertain Mrs. Raby's father, Tom Hooper, of Sylva, with a surprise birthday supper Tuesday night. It was Mr. Hooper's 60th birthday.

Vote in the April 2 egg referendum.

Airman McCall Sent To Korea

OSAN AB, OSAN, KOREA — Airman First Class James A. McCall, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McCall, Sr., recently arrived at Osan Air Base, Korea.

He is assigned to the 6314th Support Squadron as an administrative clerk.

A native of Franklin, Airman McCall was stationed at Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., prior to coming here.

The Airman along with thousands of other 5th Air Force personnel under the Pacific Air Force, will help to maintain the peace and be on constant alert against aggression.

The 6314th Support Squadron to which he is assigned, is part of the 31st Air Division. The 31st, with its headquarters at Osan Air Base, "Freedom's Frontier", is charged with the responsibility of keeping the peace through air defense operations throughout Korea.

The 314th is also helping the Republic of Korean Air Force to develop self sufficient training programs and to build an effective air defense force.

Airman McCall, who attended Franklin High School, is married to the former Miss Sue Ledford, of Franklin. They have two children, both girls.

ANNOUNCEMENT TO BREEDER FLOCK OWNERS

Jamison and Pangle are now taking orders for placement of pullets for hatching eggs which we know will be profitable to producers.

Interested flock owners may contact Harry Pangle by calling LA 4-2963.

Words We All Like To Hear About Ourselves, Don't You Agree?

PERFECT!
JUST PERFECT!

And to make The Franklin Press as near perfect as possible is what we are striving to do.

However, the measure of our success is not what we think of this weekly paper, but what you, our readers, have to say.

To give you readers a chance to have your say about The Franklin Press, in any of its phases, we are running this series of invitations for you to write us and express your opinions, whether they be praise or criticism.

We would like for you to sign your letters but we will read with equal interest any anonymous ones. If you do not want your letter published, just say so and we will withhold it. However, we won't print any unsigned letters.

By continuing our policy of objectively reporting the news, we want to give you a fuller coverage of Macon County happenings each week.

If you have some idea how you believe we could improve this coverage, let us hear from you. We want to aim our coverage toward those things which most interest our readers.

We are interested in hearing from any and all of our readers on any range of subjects as broad as the scope of weekly newspapering.

Don't hesitate to tell us what you think of The Franklin Press. As we said, that's how we judge our striving toward perfection.

Sit down and write us a letter today. We are anxiously awaiting some of your comments.

Just mail your letters to The Franklin Press, Franklin, North Carolina.
