MISS BURNETTE BRIDE OF J. E. COOK

Miss Esther Ravena Burnette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Burnette, of Bryson City, became the bride of James Edward Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cook, of Franklin, Route 5, in a ceremony at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burnette, in Carson community on Saturday, February 20, at 7 o'clock.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John R. Willis, pastor of the Mt. Hope Baptist Church, in the presence of members of the two families and friends.

The bride wore a white lace over satin, princess style dress, with shoulder length veil attached to a cap of white orange blossoms. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook, after a short trip through the area, will be at home at the Franklin Terrace Apartment.

Mr. Cook is employed at Franklin Hosiery Company and Mrs. Cook is employed at Belk's Department Store.

FRANKLIN HIGH HIGHLIGHTS

By Miss Margaret Davis

Back (Ho-hum)

Students came back to school Tuesday after five days of "no school," thanks to several sporadic snow falls, with varying views on the unscheduled holidays. Comments ranged from "I was bored stiff" to "I'm still praying for snow." However, the majority of at least one class, the seniors, were concerned over having to make the days up this spring. One senior girl summed it up with "I enjoyed the snow, but I want to graduate in May." A few students will be leaving for college in June, and several seniors plan to start their summer jobs the first part of June. More snow, and consequently more school, days this spring, could foul up many students' summer plans.

New Feature

A new feature has been added to Mr. Maddox's first period reading class. One day each week Weimar Jones, of THE PRESS, meets with the students to discuss newspaper reading. This experiment of a citizen donating his time to the local school to share his knowledge of a certain field and of life in general should prove to be a definite asset to the school and the pupils and worthy of imitation.

Sponsors Cheerleaders

Mrs. John Grogan, FHS's new sophomore English teacher and a former cheerleader, has taken over the sponsorship of the FHS cheerleaders.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bueck, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Horsley, and Mr. and Mrs. Weimar Jones attended the annual dinner meeting of the Wayneville Chamber of Commerce Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bueck and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Horsley attended the Asheville Chamber of Commerce dinner Wednesday night.

Mrs. Louise Ellis, of Murfreesboro, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. M. Sutton.

Jack Gribble has returned home after spending several days visiting relatives in Lake Helen, Fla., and attending the auto races at Daytona Beach. Mrs. Gribble accompanied him as far as Warner Robbins, Ga., where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Harold Norton, and Mr. Norton and daughter, Michelle. Mrs. Norton has entered the Houston County Georgia school system as a grammar grade teacher.

Mrs. Grace O'Mohundro left last Sunday for a trip by jet airplane to San Francisco, Calif., to visit her sister, Mrs. C. N. Sevier, for a week, after which Mrs. O'Mohundro and Mrs. Sevier will make the return trip to Franklin by car.

Jimmy Blevins, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blevins, of Bryson City, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rowland, is recovering from surgery at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville.

ABOUT YOUR Social Security

By GEORGE LEINWALL Field Representative

Last year, 12 million people received 8 billion dollars from the Social Security program. The program is supported by 75 million wage earners, their employers (self-employed business people), farmers, and professionals.

To a great majority of the people receiving Social Security

7, has found that 4-H project work pays off if good records are kept. Recently at the 4-H achievement program, she was announced as county winner in frozen foods, home management, food preparation, home improvement, dairy food demonstration, and safety. Carrie received $65 as project winner in these fields.

Mrs. Era K. Robinson, home economics agent, reports that Carrie is now serving as president of the southeastern district 4-H organization.

Litter Bags

Miss Catherine Aman, assistant home economics agent in Cowan County, says that 4-H Club members are busy selling litter bags as a county council project. The litter bags are green plastic with the 4-H emblem and the slogan "Keep North Carolina Clean" on the front of the bag.

One hundred bags have been sold so many of the 4-H families now have a litter bag in their car. More bags have been ordered.

Housecleaning Chores

Junior 4-H girls in Orange County have proven that they liked the demonstration on "Help Mother With Housecleaning." They recently exhibited dust cloths they made following the demonstration. The girls reported 97 dust cloths were treated and 58 dust gloves were exhibited.

According to Mrs. Kathryn P. Miller, assistant home economics agent, ribbons were awarded to the girls exhibiting dust gloves.

Craft Experts

Thirty 4-H'ers in Macon County recently attended a craft workshop. The majority of the group chose to work with wrought iron and reed. Hot dish mats and letter holders were the favorite articles made.

Mrs. Jessie D. Cabe, assistant home economics agent, reports the Cartoogechaye Junior 4-H Club members have chosen crafts and tree identification as group projects. Miss Sally Kesler, 4-H leader, will supervise the group.

Health Program

"Would you like to solve a mystery?" That was the question asked 4-H members in Iredell County at recent club meetings. The mystery was "The Case of the Missing Clover, Good Health."

Miss Doris Teeter, assistant home economics agent, reports that Sue Stradley, Iredell County's queen of health for 1959, conducted a special program at her senior club meeting. Several health committees are being organized to stress good health habits throughout the year.

benefits, this is their only source of income, and the fear of destitution and want has all but disappeared among the widowed, orphaned, and disabled.

Social Security payments are supported by the tax payments made by the American people. The Social Security tax deductions on their salaries have given them an equity in the program and the earned right to participate in the benefits and services granted to them by the Social Security Act.

As your representative in Macon County, I am responsible to you in all matters relating to this program. I am available to file your claim for benefits, assist you in obtaining documents to establish proof of your age (marriage records, birth records, and any other documents to establish your right to social security benefits), and to answer your questions on your status under Social Security.

When you are ready to file for Social Security benefits, bring with you to the Social Security office your Social Security card, your W-2 (1959) or tax return (1959) if self-employed, and proof that the tax has been paid (money order or check), proof of age for yourself (and for your wife and children if your dependents are also entitled to payments under the law). You may file a claim several months before age 65 (62 for women), or before your actual retirement.

Compliance with these instructions will hasten the development of your claim, and will result in a surer and speedier receipt of your Social Security checks.
