At School

Last week students and teachers at Cullasaja got to put in a full week at school at last. Climaxing the week's activities with Saturday classes and the concert given by the N. C. Little Symphony for the county's school children. Weaver Shope, principal at Cullasaja School, reported that the majority of his students attended the concert and thoroughly enjoyed the music. The first grade has a new one-egg incubator. They are hatching a gosling in it as a science project. The executive committee of the Cullasaja P.T.A. will meet Monday, March 28, at the school to pick a slate of officers for the coming year to be voted on by the group at a future P.T.A. meeting. Mrs. Joyce Cagle attended the N.C.E.A. meeting in Asheville last Thursday. Mrs. C. T. Bryson substituted for her.

Give Program

Sunday night, the Cullasaja 4-H Club gave a program entitled "Faith is a Family Affair" at the Training Union meeting at Sugarfork Baptist Church.

The program was directed by Mrs. Vernon Bryson, 4-H leader. The 4-H members participating were Melba Bryson, Linda Moore, Jessie Marie Mashburn, Carol Janice and Annette Thompson. Wanda Bailey and Janice Thompson were in charge of the music. Mrs. Vernon Bryson led the opening prayer.

Meeting Planned

Plans are being made by the Higdonville Community Development Organization for a program on "Safety" at its April 7 meeting, which will be held at the school at 7:30. They have invited R. V. Hooper, state license examiner, as guest speaker. Interested persons are invited to attend.

Here For Funeral

Among those from out-of-town here for the funeral of Charles B. Bryson at Salem Methodist Church last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Lease Bryson and children, of Toccoa, Ga.; Jackie Bryson, of Cullowhee; Miss Kathryn Bryson, of Anderson, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryson, of Valrico, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Bryson and infant son, of Pontiac, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Van Deaver, of Clyde; and Mrs. Evie Crisp, of Toccoa, Ga.

Gets Fellowship

William Howard Wilkie, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Wilkie, of Skyland, has received an Atomic Energy Commission fellowship for graduate study at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., beginning this fall.

He is now enrolled in the Graduate School of North Carolina State College, Raleigh, where he was graduated with high honors February 1. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering mathematics.

Mr. Wilkie is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jim Higdon, of Higdonville, and is a nephew of Mrs. C. T. Bryson, of Cullasaja. His parents are both native Maconians.

H. D. Meeting

The meeting of the Higdonville Home Demonstration Club, set for last week, was postponed because of the funeral of Charles B. Bryson.

The meeting will be held today (Thursday), starting at 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Ann Berry. This will be a make-up meeting for February.

Personals

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gibson visited Mrs. Gibson's father, C. M. Dills, and Mrs. Dills at Shooting Creek.

Friends of Mrs. Cora McDowell will be happy to know she is able to get out some now. She attended church at Sugarfork Sunday morning for the first time since she broke her hip in a fall several months ago.

Home on leave after basic training are Pvt. Eston Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook, and Pvt. Jimmy Angel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Groves Angel. They have just completed their basic training with the U.S. Army at Ft. Benning, Ga., and arrived here Saturday

ENDS BASIC

LACKLAND AFB, Tex.—Airman Levon W. Deitz, son of Mrs. Annah C. Deitz, of Franklin, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic military training here and has been selected to attend the technical course for radio operators at Keesler AFB, Miss. He attended Franklin High. Basic airmen at Lackland are selected for specialized training at technical schools on the basis of their interests and aptitudes.
