THREE TWINS, TOO —

Franklin Beauty Shop Has New Partner, New Name

Mrs. Nellie Penland is moving her beauty shop to the new Palmer Street Shopping Center, and acquiring a partner in the business and a new name for the shop.

Mrs. Sadie McIntyre is the partner and the new name is the Franklin Beauty Shop. Mrs. Jean Potts also will be with them as an operator in the modern new shop.

Mrs. Penland has operated the Darling Beauty Shop here in the Asher Building for the past nine and a half years and has 22 years of experience in the business.

Mrs. McIntyre, a Franklin native, is a graduate of the Pack Square Beauty School in Asheville and has had two and a half years of experience as a beauty operator. She formerly worked with the Queen Beauty Shop in Mrs. Potts has worked with Mrs. Penland in the Darling Shop for the past two years.

The new shop is equipped with the most modern equipment, including five dryers, two shampoo booths, and new fixtures in the building.

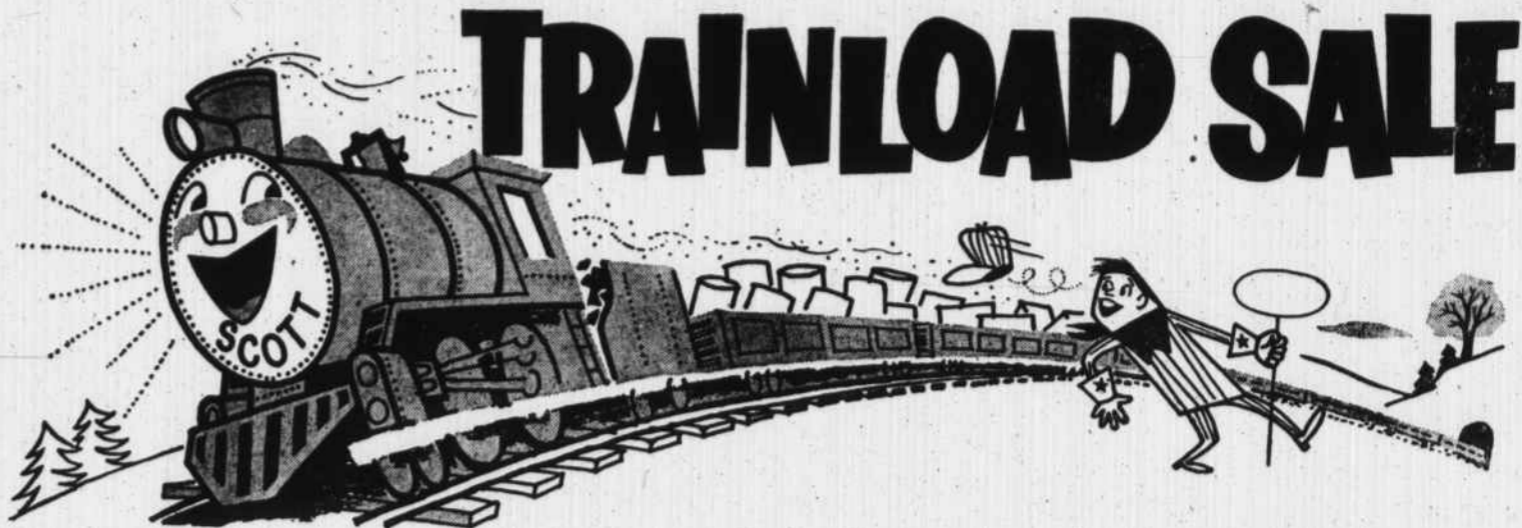

"It is Franklin's most modern shop," says Mrs. Penland proudly. The shop is air-conditioned for customers' summer pleasure and the owners plan to open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. and remain open on Wednesday afternoons.

An interesting note about the three ladies is that they all have twin sisters. "We should have called it the Twins Beauty Shop," Mrs. Penland says.

Gus Baldwin was busy arranging the shelves in his Variety Shop a few days before the opening.
