Remember May 7
R. J. Bryson, president of Carson Rural Community Development Organization, would like for all residents of the community to remember to come, and bring a covered dish to the community building Saturday night, May 7, at 7 o'clock.
Earl Cabe, vice-president, assisted by Mrs. Cabe, secretary-treasurer, will be in charge of a short program after the supper.
It is hoped that plans can be made to improve the community building floor and also the mail box name plates. These projects concern every family in the community.

ored with a stork shower at her home Saturday night, April 30. Hostesses were Mrs. Ed Phillips, Mrs. Don Ledford, and Miss Mary Lou Holbrooks. Some 15 guests were served refreshments.

Youth Fellowship
The Louisa-Carson M.Y.F. met at Carson Chapel Methodist Church last Sunday night. Linda Wallace was in charge of the program, which was entitled "Finding Your Life Work". There were 10 members present, with J. R. Bryson as the adult leader. Steve Cabe, vice president, presided over the business meeting.

Next Sunday, the meeting will be at Louisa Chapel. Alda Waldroop will be in charge of the program.

The members who went to M.Y.F. sub-district meeting at Highlands Monday night were Mary Jo Waldroop, Ronnie Wal-droop, Steve Cabe, Lee Garner, and Donnie Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bryson accompanied them.

They called me DEAF
UNTIL ACOUSTICON TOOK CARE OF MY HEARING STRAIN
I just didn't hear clearly, couldn't seem to understand some words. They sounded blurred, fuzzy. I had to strain to hear.
People thought I was deaf. But then Acousticon took care of my hearing strain. I was amazed at how clearly I could hear again—without strain or doubt! I haven't heard this well in years.
