The Clues In
BURRELL'S BIG Treasure Hunt

1. Sometimes I'm hot, sometimes I'm cold I can see the young along with the old.
2. Where I sit I can see a lot of people, but they don't see me.
3. I know Saturdays are busy days, but I may be found another day.
4. If I'm not found before Winter, I may get lonesome.
5. Today a new week begins, I wonder if some new ones will be coming in.
6. The number of people coming my way is controlled by a traffic light.
7. The hunt has been going a week for me, why don't they look near a tree?
8. I am on West side of river . . . the hill is steep and I am afraid to peep.
9. I was still as a mouse and one certain boy put his hand on my house.
10. I feel safer hid here than out in the lot.
11. From here I have a wonderful view . . . If you were at the post office you could see it too.
12. From where I am hid I can see a large smoke stack.
13. If I could eat, my hiding place is near a hamburger.
