

William Earl Adams

Earl Adams is personnel supervisor of Franklin Hosiery Company. A native of Durham, he attended Durham public schools and is a graduate of Catawba College, Salisbury. Prior to this he served four years in the U. S. Navy. He joined Burlington Hosiery Company in June 1955, at Wadesboro Hosiery Company, where he was personnel supervisor until June, 1958, when he came to Franklin. Mr. Adams is a deacon and president of the Men of the Church of the Presbyterian church, a member of the Jaycees, and is president of the Franklin United Fund. He is married to the former Miss Ann Jester, of Thomasville, and they have one child, Bill, 2½.

Paul L. Grier

Paul L. Grier is the industrial engineer at Franklin Hosiery Company. A native of Clover, S. C., Mr. Grier attended Clover High School and the University of South Carolina. Following his graduation from college, Mr. Grier served as a U. S. Navy officer from 1955 to 1957, with service in Europe. Before reporting to Franklin in January, he had served as industrial engineer at Harriman Hosiery Company, Harriman, Tenn., another unit of Burlington Hosiery Company. He is a member of the Presbyterian church here and is treasurer of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is married to the former Miss Jane Reid, of Clover.

Dan F. Stewart

Dan F. Stewart is a knitting supervisor at Franklin Hosiery Company. He is a native of Harriman, Tenn., and a veteran of 23 years in the hosiery industry. Mr. Stewart attended Harriman public schools and the Alexander Hamilton Administrative Course. He joined Burlington Hosiery Company in 1946 at the Harriman Hosiery Company, which was acquired by Burlington in 1944, while Mr. Stewart was serving in the Air Force during World War II. He is a deacon in the Baptist church. He and his wife, Imogene, have three children, Donna, Dolores, and Dan, Jr.

Clyde Ellis Poole

Clyde E. Poole is a knitting supervisor at Franklin Hosiery Company. He was born in Harriman, Tenn., where he entered the hosiery manufacturing business in 1934. He joined Burlington Hosiery Company when the Harriman Hosiery Company was acquired by Burlington in 1944. Before coming to Franklin in 1956, Mr. Poole was a member of the manufacturing staff of Scottsboro Hosiery Company, Scottsboro, Ala., another Burlington hosiery plant. He served with the U. S. Army for four years during World War II. He is a member of the Baptist church and member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mr. Poole is married to the former Miss Willie Melton and they have two children, Donna, 12, and Pat, 14.

William H. Jones

William Harvey Jones is a knitting supervisor at Franklin Hosiery Company and a veteran of 22 years of manufacturing experience with various Burlington Hosiery Company plants. He is a native of Christiansburg, Va. He was educated in Christiansburg public schools and Lincoln Extension Institute. Mr. Jones is a member of the Baptist church and has been active in Boy Scout work for the past 15 years. He is married to the former Miss Charlotte Andrews, of Roanoke, Va.

Thomas B. Collier

Thomas Barden Collier is a knitting supervisor at Franklin Hosiery Company. Born in Chadbourne, Mr. Collier was educated in Chadbourne schools and at North Carolina State College. He joined Burlington Hosiery Company in September 1955, at Harriman Hosiery Company, Harriman, Tenn., and came to Franklin in April 1956. He is a military veteran, having served as an Army officer for two years. A deacon in the First Baptist Church, Mr. Collier also is vice-president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Katherine, have one child, Beth, 5.

Marvin A. White

Marvin A. White, looping supervisor at Franklin Hosiery Company, is a veteran of 34 years in the hosiery industry. A native of Swepsonville, he got his start in the hosiery knitting industry in Burlington in 1926 and was a supervisor in the May-McEwen-Kaiser Company when that hosiery company was acquired by Burlington Hosiery Company in 1948. Prior to coming to Franklin in June of 1959, he was greige goods supervisor at McEwen Hosiery Company in Burlington. Mr. White is married to the former Miss Maude Cromer, of Moore County. He and Mrs. White have four children. He is a member of the Baptist church.

Robert O. Willard

Robert O. Willard is inspecting-mending supervisor at Franklin Hosiery Company. He was born in Laurens, S. C., and attended Abbeville, S. C., public schools and is a graduate of Clemson College. He joined Burlington Hosiery Company in June, 1956, at Harriman, Tenn. Before coming to Franklin, he was a knitting supervisor at the Scottsboro Hosiery Company, Scottsboro, Ala. He is a member of the Church of Christ. Married to the former Miss Joan Howard, they have one child, Deborah, 2.

Congratulations to
FRANKLIN HOSIERY COMPANY
You have contributed greatly to our growth
and development.
Reeves Hardware Company

TWIN WISHES from THE TWINS' SHOP

1. Best Wishes for Happy Birthday.

Because of what you have meant to the economic growth of our community and because it's been so nice doing business with your many employees we are certainly proud to take this opportunity to join the many who wish you.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

2. Best Wishes for Future.

We will be selfish and admit that partly because our future is tied up with your future that we wish you best of luck for the future. And then too we'll say "best wishes" because we like having you folks here with us.

The Twins' Shop

CONGRATULATIONS FRANKLIN HOSIERY PLANT

We wish to join your many other friends in wishing for you many more years of continuing success.

NANTHALA POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY

Happy Birthday Franklin Hosiery Company

Five years ago, when the machinery was set in motion at Franklin hosiery plant it marked a new day in the growth and development of Franklin and Macon County.

We, along with other business, have shared in the prosperity brought here by your continued growth and development. We are happy with you for your success.

With your best interests, as well as our community's at heart, we hope that your growth and development in the future will be even brighter than in the past.

Best Wishes and Happy Anniversary

The Bank Of Franklin

Member F. D. I. C.
Each Deposit Guaranteed up to $10,000