

A Picture Story Of A New Applicant, From Interview To Job

A TYPICAL WOMAN applicant (posed by Mrs. Evelyn Huggins, a plant looper) is shown being interviewed by Earl Adams, personnel director. This is the beginning of her pre-hiring activities at the plant.

MISS ESTA CHILDERS, receptionist, is shown giving the applicant a vision test, one of several she must take. Other tests given to insure applicant is qualified are dexterity, coordination, and perception.

THE APPLICANTS next step to go for an interview with the local tag supervisor, Marvin White.

MRS. MILDRED KINSLAND, looping instructor, is observing the new employee's progress in the looper training room.

AT THE COMPLETION of the training program, the employee is placed in the looping department of the main plant, where she starts earning her money for the plant that trained her. Shown are experienced loopers at work.
