

Ramblin' Around Cullasaja and Higdonville

MISS MARIE JENNINGS
Staff Correspondent

Commencement Set
Tuesday night, May 31, has been set by Cullasaja School for its commencement exercises. Thirty-three eighth graders will receive certificates of promotion. The program starts at 8 o'clock and will consist of recitations by members of the class; music by Mrs. L. J. Neal; and a talk by a local minister. At that time, perfect attendance certificates will be given to 27 students.
The public is invited.

School News
With the close of school for the summer next Tuesday, students are busy at Cullasaja mowing lawns, trimming shrubbery, and making the school grounds look as neat as possible in their spare time.
Mrs. Pauline Cable has been out of school because of the illness of her mother. Mrs. C. T. Bryson has been substituting for her.
Lunches will not be served next week.

Monday, the cancer fund drive was started at Cullasaja School and will continue through this week.

Observe '4-H Sunday'
Sugarfork Baptist Church observed "4-H Sunday" on May 22 with a group of 4-H'ers giving their program at Sunday school assembly. They led the song service, read scripture, led in prayer and recited poems, besides giving several short talks.

Bethel Methodist Church also observed "4-H Sunday" this past Sunday. The program, held just before Sunday school classes, was under the direction of Maxine Norris. The 4-H'ers led the songs, led in prayer, had scripture reading, and talks.

Council Meets
The Women's Missionary Council of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church met at the home of Mrs. Robert R. Estes last Friday night, with 10 present. Mrs. Roy Stiwinter, president, presided. The program entitled, "Looking Unto Jesus", was under the direction of Mrs. Pritchard Russell.

All-Day Meeting
Higdonville Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday with Mrs. Alfred Holley. In the morning, the group studied the "Care of Furniture and Rugs", with Mrs. Florence Sherrill giving the demonstration. Mrs. Mabel Swan, assistant home economics agent, led the afternoon demonstration on "Eating to Stay Young" and "Hanging Pictures".

Eight were present. Mrs. Holley, the hostess, gave the devotional. The June meeting will be at the picnic grounds.

Plan Homecoming
Plans are being made at Bethel Methodist Church for homecoming day services Sunday, June 5, with Dr. L. B. Hayes, assistant pastor, speaking. A basket lunch will be served at the noon hour.

Plan '4-H Sunday'
Sunday, May 29, will be "4-H Sunday" at the Higdonville Baptist Church. The program, originally scheduled for May 22, was postponed until the 29th because the 4-H'ers were busy with their food demonstrations and did not have an opportunity to prepare their program.
