This unphotogenic mother 'possum gave Franklin's Bill Crawford "a hard time" one day recently. Mr. Crawford (not "Principal Bill") spotted her with a dozen babies in a garbage can. As soon as he approached, the little 'possums hid in the pouch in the mother and all the coaxing in the world wouldn't bring them out again. He tried food. That didn't work. He tried hiding and waiting for them to come out. He got tired waiting. "Everyone will probably laugh at me," he confessed. "But I just couldn't get those bables to come out and have their picture taken . . . I spent all day . . ."
