be held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Talley at 8 o'clock.

Homecoming Sunday
An invitation is extended to all to attend homecoming at the Holly Springs church Sunday. A picnic lunch will be served.

Meeting Changed
Because of the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night, Training Union will meet at 6:30 at the Holly Springs church. No worship services are planned that night so everyone may attend the graduation event at Franklin High.

4-H Program
"4-H Club Sunday" was observed at the Holly Springs church Sunday with Miss Joan Corbin in charge of the program. About 20 boys and girls of the community participated.

Officers Elected
General church officers were elected Sunday. They are C. A. Williams, Sunday school superintendent; Jim Williamson, Training Union director; Mrs. Charlie Williams, W. M. U. president; and Don Seagle, Brotherhood president.

These officers will serve with the nominating committee in selecting the other officers and teachers at a later date.

Club Meets
Holly Springs Home Demonstration Club met May 19 at the home of Mrs. Nobel Garrett. Mrs. Ruth Landrum conducted the devotional.
