Attention Democrats . . .

Now that the primaries are passed and one general election over and the mists have cleared away and the opportunity presents itself, let me express my heartfelt thanks to 1004 loyal Democrats for their confidence and support in the May 28th Primary even though we lost to my opponent by 32 votes. Again I thank you. Now let me say that I am your representative and servant until Bill Cox or Mrs. Cook is elected and sworn in the first Tuesday in February 1961. At that time I will turn over the office to the lucky one with all its blessings, cussings, and very fat salary that all goes with it. But let me say if I can be of service to anyone during the next seven months don't fail to command me. I am still a Democrat, continue to figure on reaching one hundred, and will be back in '62 the Lord willing.

Your servant and friend
JAMES M. RABY
