

Comin's And Goin's In Cowee Community

MISS CECILE GIBSON
Staff Correspondent

Raby Resigns

The P.-T. A. of Cowee School met Monday night, September 19, at the school. Bill Raby resigned as president because of his work with the retarded children. Mrs. Paul Holbrook was elected to succeed him.

Mrs. L. R. Mason, Jr., resigned as secretary and Mrs. Ray Womack was named to the post.

A Halloween carnival was discussed and a committee appointed to make plans. Mrs. Ed Brogden is chairman and members are Mrs. Paul Holbrook, Mrs. Rozzelle McCoy, Mrs. Ed Sheffield, Jimmie Scruggs, and Charles Cabe.

The date of the P.-T. A. meeting was changed from the third Monday night to the third Tuesday night of each month.

Mrs. Moody's second grade won the $3 prize for having the most parents present.

Fair Discussed

Cowee Home Demonstration Club held its monthly meeting in the school library Thursday afternoon, September 22.

A discussion was held in regard to the county fair and the harvest sale to be held in connection with the fair.

Mrs. Mabel Swan gave a demonstration on the importance of making a will.

Church Items

Everyone is invited to attend homecoming at Cowee Baptist Church Sunday, October 2. The Rev. George Cloer, former pastor, will be the speaker at 11 o'clock. A picnic lunch will be served at the lunch hour and there will be singing in the afternoon.

At the close of the study course at Cowee Baptist Church last Friday night, the workers were presented gifts by the Rev. Clyde Collins, pastor. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Frank Gibson and Mrs. T. M. Rickman in charge.

The monthly meeting of the officers and teachers of Cowee Baptist Church was held Tuesday night, September 27.

"Family night" was observed at Cowee Baptist Church Wednesday night, September 28. Choir practice also was held to prepare for the special singing at homecoming Sunday.
