Church News

Higdonville Baptist Church had a baptismal service Sunday morning, October 2, following Sunday school. The Rev. Judson Hall, pastor, officiated, and Harry Moses, deacon, assisted him.

"Promotional Day" was observed with six being promoted in the Sunday school. Four children were promoted from the Primary Class to the Junior Class and they were each presented a Bible by a friend of the church. Two were promoted from the Junior Class to the Intermediate Class.

Last Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Ernest King, pastor of the Cullasaja Assembly of God Church, baptized five candidates at services held near the church.

Sugarfork Baptist Church held a short conference Sunday morning following Sunday school, with a report by the treasurer, minutes of the last meeting, and the acceptance of two membership letters from another church.

Visitors were Joe Moses and his aunt, Mrs. Jeanette Daley, of San Diego, Calif. Mrs. Daley is a former native and is well known in this community.

Monday afternoon, funeral services and interment were held at Sugarfork for Sam Moore, formerly of this section, who has been living in Knoxville, Tenn. He is a brother of Mrs. Carrie Bryson and Mrs. Betty Ann Stewman of Cullasaja.

P. T. A. To Meet

The Cullasaja P.T.A. will meet Tuesday night, October 11, at the school at 7:30. R. V. Hooper, state License Examiners will show Billy Graham film on "Safety". Another guest will be Patrolman H. T. Ferguson.

H. D. Meeting

Higdonville Home Demonstration Club was called by its fair committee chairman, Mrs. Alfred Holley, to a special all-day meeting Tuesday, October 4, at her home.

The club worked on its booth for the county fair and made out the yearly report.

To Be Hostess

Mrs. Malcolm Hunter will be hostess to the Cullasaja Home Demonstration Club at her home Friday afternoon, October 7, at 1:30. All members are invited.

Election Set

Thursday night (tonight) at 7:30, members of the Higdonville Community Development Organization will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Teague to elect officers for the coming year and conduct their regular business meeting. Everyone is urged to attend.

School Doings

Round and round goes the merry-go-round at Cullasaja! Much to the delight of the small fry.

The eighth grade has changed its plans to attend the Cherokee Indian Fair in favor of a trip to our own Macon County Fair.

Feted At Party

Little Keith Teague celebrated his first birthday Friday, September 30, with the help of about 10 little friends at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Vic Teague, at their home.

Keith's grandmother, Mrs. Woodrow Teague, brought his birthday cake with all the decorations and he and his guests enjoyed eating it. He received many birthday presents.

Given Housewarming

Mrs. Athen Moses was honored by her family and friends with a housewarming last Friday night. Mrs. Moses and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Athen Moses, Jr., and their small baby just recently moved into the Homer Stewman house, which Mrs. Moses purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Willis Teem. Mrs. Willis Teem and Mrs. Grover Wyatt were hostesses and served refreshments to the guests.

Approximately 40 attended and Mrs. Moses was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baker, of Tampa, Fla., spent from Monday to Wednesday of last week with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Holley, at Higdonville.

Among those from this section attending all-day services at Yellow Mountain Baptist Church Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Louin Young, Major Higdon, Dorothy Higdon, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moses and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Moses, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seay had as guests this week end their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Banks, of Asheville. The young couple was married Friday in Asheville. Mrs. Banks is the former Miss Peggy Seay.

A2/C Bobby Joe Houston has completed his enlistment with the U. S. Air Force and he and Mrs. Houston and their two children have moved into one of the Gibson cottages. They have been living at Robins Air Force Base in Georgia.

Preston Clark and his bride, the former Miss Sharon Dills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dills, Sr., have moved into one of the Womack cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Pendergrass, of Clarksville, Ga., spent the week end with Mrs. Pendergrass' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moore visited relatives in Glensville Sunday and Mr. Moore's mother, Mrs. J. W. Moore, returned home with them for a visit.

The Rev. Ernest King and the Rev. Fred N. Sorrells are attending a ministers' institute at Greensboro this week.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bennett were Mr. Bennett's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Saffles, of Cleveland, Tenn.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ruppenthal several days last week were Mrs. Ruppenthal's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Gaines and three children, of Bradenton, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wooten and two sons were here from Gastonia for the week end to visit Mrs. Wooten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Crisp.

Mrs. Oscar Arnold is a patient at Angel Hospital, where she recently underwent surgery.

Lyle Estes had an appendectomy operation last Friday at Angel Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Henderson spent a few days last week at Enterprise, Ala., visiting their son and his family, 1st Lt. and Mrs. John C. Henderson and two daughters. While away, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson also made a trip to Panama City, and Ft. Walton, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wood, of Athens, Tenn., recently visited Mrs. Wood's aunt, Mrs. Nora H. Moses, and Mrs. Wood's cousins, Mrs. Fred Wood, of Pine Grove, and Ed Crisp, of Walnut Creek. Mrs. Wood is the daughter of the late J. T. and Addie Crisp Holland, and this was her first trip to North Carolina in 42 years.

Miss Marie Jennings and Pat Cable went to Max Patch Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Painter left for their home in Pontiac, Mich., last Friday after visiting relatives in Cullasaja and Cowee communities for a week.
