MRS. DON SEAGLE
 Staff Correspondent

Pastor Founded
 Following Wednesday night prayer services at the Holly Springs Baptist Church, on November 23, those at the services presented the Rev. and Mrs. Howard their annual Thanksgiving "pounding."

Community Supper
 Approximately 75 persons were present at the community building Thursday night, November 24, for the community Thanksgiving supper. A special program in hymn singing was presented by the McMahan family, of Sylva.

Each fourth Sunday is observed by the Holly Springs church as a special day for contributions to the new building fund. Lefferts Higdon, treasurer, reported that approximately $9,700 has been given since the ground-breaking three months ago. Brick and block to complete the job has been delivered and 12 memorial windows arrived Monday. All materials and labor are paid for to date. Weather permitting, the roof should be on in approximately three weeks.

Personals
 Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Walker, of Asheville, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. Ruth Landrum.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bob Traywick and son, Paul, of Belmont, and Miss Jackie Ann Cabe, of Brevard College, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cabe.

College students home for the holidays were Miss Jean Franklin, Mrs. Fred Deal, and Douglas Young, of Western Carolina; Misses Judy Wurst, and Ann Sutton, of Woman's College, Greensboro; and Misses Elizabeth Ann Ammons and Mary Frances Ammons, of Mars Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Bradley, of Whitaker, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kinsland last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeter and daughter, Tamra Lynn, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Corbin.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson last week were Mrs. Ferguson's sister, Mrs. Hoyt Bryant, and family of Culberson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Crisp and children, of Asheville, visited Mrs. Crisp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corbin, Thursday.
