

FRANKLIN HIGH HIGHLIGHTS

By
Robert Vinson

At an assembly on Wednesday, November 23, the "new" members of the Beta Club were presented in a colorful program. To be a member of this academic club, a senior must have a "94" average (second semester juniors, a "95"). Old members are Linda Morrow, president; Patricia Shope, vice-president; Elmyra Ledford; Patsy Corbin, treasurer; Linda Shope, secretary; Emma Jean Hogan; Dorothy Bell; and Allene Williamson. New members are Janice Bowman, Wade Cabe, Gary Crawford, Juanita Johnson; Ida Mae Ramey; Lois Vanhook; and Genevieve Whitmire.

Also at the assembly, Miss Frances Winstead, the guidance counselor, was awarded a certificate by Sgt. Holt, local

Air Force recruiter, in appreciation for the outstanding work she has done in rousing student interest in the Air Force.

Winners in the junior class magazine sale, Martha Angel and Sarah Bryson, each received a transistor radio, and Loretta Cabe received a portable radio.

W.S.C.S. Meets Are Scheduled

IN PHOENIX, ARIZ. —

Mrs. Daley, Native, Dies On November 5

Mrs. Jeanette Moses Daley, a Macon County native who gained prominence in politics in southern California, died of a heart attack at her home in Phoenix, Ariz., on November 5, it has been learned here.

Daughter of the late Pierce and Mrs. Charlotte Owen Moses, of the Higdonville community, Mrs. Daley left here at an early age for California. She served three terms as a state assembly woman representing the City of San Diego. Mrs. Daley was married to George R. Daley, of San Diego, and took an active part in the operation of Daley Contracting Company.

In recent years, Mrs. Daley made her home in Phoenix and she visited relatives here several times in the past year.

This summer, she donated a home for Girls Ranch in Mesa, Ariz., an organization of which she served as first president. Girls Ranch, organized in 1955, offers a home and guidance and counseling to teen-age girls.

Funeral services for Mrs. Daley were held November 10 at the Lee Moore Funeral Home in Phoenix. Dr. Ivan B. Bell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and members of the Eastern Star, Chapter 5, officiated. Burial was in the Masonic Cemetery in the Greenwood Memorial Park there.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Julia Peterson and Mrs. Camley Ryan, both of Campo,
