

SEAY BAGS 240-POUND BUCK

Library Project Saturday

Have you any books or magazines you'd like to donate to the Franklin Library?
If you have, Saturday is the day to act because the Franklin Jaycees will be holding "Operation Library", a project to increase the volume and variety of books and magazines at the local library.
Headquarters for "Operation Library" will be the library and a special table has been provided or books and magazines donated through the project.
Also, Boy Scouts and Jaycees will collect books and magazines in the Franklin area during the day. Residents wanting this service are asked to telephone LA 4-3600. Western Carolina Telephone has installed this special telephone for the day.
Jaycee Wilbur Cabe is chairman in charge of "Operation Library."

Congressman's Secretary Coming

Tom L. Mallonee, district secretary to Congressman Roy A. Taylor, will visit here Wednesday, December 7, to discuss any matters relating to the district.
He will be at the courthouse from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

Shope Shoo-In For Soil Post

An election to pick a soil conservation supervisor for Macon Soil Conservation District is slated for the week of December 5-10.
Jess Shope, of Cartoogechaye, appears to be a shoo-in for the job. He's the only one nominated.

Arts Teacher To Give Club Program Monday

Miss Jean Hemphill, teacher of arts and crafts at Franklin High, will give a program on Christmas decorations for the monthly meeting of the Franklin Garden Club in the high school cafeteria Monday afternoon at 2:30.
Hostesses will be Mrs. J. E. Perry, Jr., Mrs. Herman Dean, Mrs. Prelo Dryman, and Mrs. W. E. Furr.

Stock Sale Under Way

Sale of stock in the non-profit Macon County Business Development Corporation is now under way.
At $1 per share, the bonds are being sold in multiples of 100 and will pay five per cent annually.
Shares may be purchased at the Bank of Franklin or from Woodrow Reeves or Verlon Swafford.
The new development corporation is financing construction of a large plant for Peak-Line Furniture Company, a local industry needing to expand. The new plant in the Bonny Crest section is nearing completion.

METHODIST MEETING

The Methodist Youth Fellowship sub-district meeting will be held Monday night, December 5, at the Snow Hill Methodist Church.

Death Takes Edwards At Son's Home

Mack Daniel Edwards, 93, farmer and sawmill operator, died November 27 at 8 a. m. at the home of a son, Daniel G. Edwards, in Highlands. He had been in declining health for a month.
A native of Jackson County (Whiteside Cove section), he was a son of the late Garner and Mrs. Jane Zachary Edwards and was married in 1899 to Miss Perdita Mae Bolk of Macon County.
Funeral services for Mr. Edwards were conducted November 29 at 2 o'clock at the Highlands Methodist Church, of which he was a member. Officiating were the Rev. John C. Vernon, pastor, and the Rev. J. H. Propst, pastor of the Highlands Baptist Church. Burial was in the Horse Cove Cemetery.

Mr. Edwards served on the board of stewards of his church for many years and had been Sunday school superintendent of the Horse Cove Methodist Church.
Surviving are his wife; seven sons, Dan Edwards, of Highlands, Floyd Edwards, of Salisbury, Eric Edwards, of Pampa, Tex., Troy Edwards, of Cumberland Gap, Tenn., Cecil Edwards, of West Asheville, Bruce Edwards, of Bellevue, Neb., and John Edwards, of Tuckasegee; three daughters, Miss Virginia Edwards, of the home, Mrs. Bertha Gerard, of Brevard, and Mrs. Felicia Walden, of Cocoa, Fla.; a brother, William Edwards, of Lakeland, Fla.; 33 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren.
Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Iota Chapter Sets Area Meet

A luncheon meeting of the Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma is slated in Franklin Saturday with the state president, Miss Margaret Flint, of Charlotte, as guest speaker. Members from Macon, Clay, Swain, Jackson, and Haywood are expected at the meeting, which will be held at the Normandie Restaurant at 12:15.

Justice Succumbs Sunday

Bryant Edmond Justice, 19, a Macon County native and employe of Clayborne Manufacturing Company in Clayton, Ga., died Sunday morning at 8 o'clock in Clayton.
Funeral services were held yesterday (Wednesday) at 11 o'clock at Dryman's Chapel Methodist Church by the Rev. Johnny Hunnicutt and the Rev. Marion Anderson, pastor of the Hemphill Memorial Presbyterian Church in Clayton. Pallbearers were Edward Brown, Thomas Ramey, Henry Ramey, Dalton Shirley, Leroy Garland, and Wayne Garland.
Mr. Justice was born July 23, 1941, a son of Ray Edwin and Mrs. Ruby Richolson Justice. He was married Dec. 24, 1959 to Miss Geneva Ramey, of Wiley, Ga., who survives.
Also surviving are a daughter, Debra Ray, of the home; a brother, Homer Lee Justice, of the home; and two sisters, Virginia and Phyllis, of the home.
Arrangements were handled by Bryant Funeral Home.
