

Devoted to the Upbuilding of Vass and Its Surrounding Country

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00

VASS, N. C., FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1921

PRICE FIVE CENTS

CAMERON

Rev. L. H. Joyner left Monday to be present at the commencement at Trinity and will be away from home for ten days.

Mr. A. Cameron of Vass was in town Saturday.

Mr. T. C. Gaddy sends in a subscription to The Pilot this week as a present to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Glyde Gaddy of Sanford.

Mr. G. S. Cole is having his store remodeled under contractor Dew, and carpenters from Raeford.

Flora May, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Ferguson, Route two, died Monday and was buried at White Hill Thursday. Funeral services by Rev. M. D. McNeill.

Mr. Leighton McKeithen attended the commencement at Davidson where he graduated with high honors three years ago.

Miss Vera Wooten who taught in the third grade at Sanford the past term is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. Cone McPherson, a recent graduate of McCollins School, Chattanooga is home for the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Phillips returned last week from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Spiers of Norfolk.

Mrs. T. C. Gaddy and children, visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glyde Gaddy of Sanford.

Miss Rochelle Pippen of Wakefield was the guest, last week of Miss Burdette Joyner. Miss Pippen was teacher in mathematics at Maxton.

Miss Ila Norman left Monday to attend the commencement at Trinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin of Greensboro were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alec McPherson.

Mesdames C. C. Yates of Carthage, J. F. F. West of Greensboro, Atticus Bryant of Aberdeen were visitors last week at the home of their sister, Mrs. M. D. McNeill.

Mr. H. A. Borst and H. A., Jr. of Vass were Sunday visitors at the homes of Mrs. E. M. Borst and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Parker.

Mr. J. F. Saunders carried a number of the little girls of town on an outing to Lakeview last week. A kind and courteous deed.

Mr. Daniel Sinclair, Mrs. U. L. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sinclair of Carthage came down last week for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Petty.

Dr. J. D. Muse, State dentist, is home for a two weeks vacation and will be at the services of any who may wish to have dental work.

John C. Muse is home from the University of the South at Columbia where he has been studying accountancy. He has only one more year having made one year of the three through examination.

The carload of dewberries from Carthage that were overturned here last week sold for 35c per quart.

(Continued on page 7)

VASS, R. F. D. No. 1

Mrs. Bertha Freeman is in Johns Hopkins Hospital for treatment for injuries received from a fall.

Miss Margaret Blue, who completed her freshman year at Flora McDonald Colege this year is now at home.

Miss Pearl Ray spent several days of last week with relatives in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Roger, of Norfolk, Va. are at Mrs. Rogers' mother, Mrs. C. R. McDonald.

Miss Regina Blue who supplied during the season at Pinehurst in the office of the general store, is now in Raleigh assisting in the office of Secretary of State.

Messrs. N. P. and Clyde McKenzie of West End spent Sunday with relatives on this route.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. McLeon of Eagle Springs, were week-end visitors at Mr. W. M. C. Blues.

Rev. C. K. Taffee held the communion services at Eureka Church Sunday. He preached an excellent sermon to an attentive audience.

Misses Mary and Sallie Kennedy, of Hemp, are visiting Mrs. W. McC. Blue.

It is hourly expected that at a near neighbor's house "wedding bells will ring so merrily." Keep listening.

COUNTY SUMMER SCHOOL
AT FARM LIFE SCHOOL

The County Summer School opens June 20, and runs through Six weeks. Those who have no certificates, or a certificate of less value than State Elementary, should attend this school. Each student should bring text books covering the public school course from the first grade thru the seventh grade.

$25.00 covers the cost of room and table board. Each student must bring bed linen and towels.

Prof. W. D. Matthews, of the Vass Graded School, will be director in charge. Miss Ethel Monroe, teacher in the Wilson City Schools, Will have charge of the Primary Department. County Superintendent Cameron will give a splendid course in School Law and School Management.

The purpose is to have six full weeks of real work with a view to bringing certificates up to Elementary grade, and at the same time get a good, practical, working knowledge of the subjects to be taught in the public schools. Arrange to be there the first day and every day, so that you will get credit for your work.

Notify Superintendent Cameron that you will be there. Write to Prof. J. Clyde Kelly, Supt. Farm Life School, Vass, Rt. 1, about matters pertaining to board and room.

Whenever W. H. Anderson brags about "empty jails" we can't help thinking of the thousands of bootleggers who ought to be filling them, or for the matter of that, their hundreds of thousands of customers.

WEST END

Rev. Mr. Culbert preached a very interesting sermon at the M. E. Church.

Miss Sarah Browne has returned to her home in Charlotte.

Mrs. H. G. Barnette is able to be out again after a few days illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cochran spent the week-end here with W. P. Cochran.

Mr. Carl Ritter and Misses Kelly and Ritter attended the commencement exercises at Carthage last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pulliam were here a while Saturday afternoon.

The local ball team went to Carthage last Monday to play baseball and came home victorious. Highfalls came over Saturday afternoon and were defeated by a score of 9 to 3. A good many of the Jackson Springs people came over to help "yell" for West End.

A play, "Home Ties" will be given by some of the young people of the Presbyterian Sunday School on Friday night, June 17th, at 8:30 o'clock. The proceeds are for the benefit of the new church.

Cast of Characters

Martain Winn—With memories of the past, Woodford Moss.

Leonard Everett—A son of the soil, Frank Cox.

Harold Vincent—From New York, Carl Ritter.

Josiath Tizzard—An umbrella Mender, Robert Donaldson

Ruth Winn—Martain's daughter, Lillie Gordon.

Alma Wayne—Ruth's friend, Pauline Jackson.

Aunt Melissa—Martain's sister, Kathryn Jackson.

Mrs. Poplin—A widow, with a pension and "symptoms," Thelma Auman.

Linda Jane—Who "helps a round," Cora Belle Donaldson.

Synopsis

Act I. An afternoon in June between five and six o'clock. The home coming.

Act II. One month later, visitors from the city.

Act III. An evening the next week. The party.

Act IV. The following January, six months having elapsed. The wedding announcement, and, "Home Sweet Home."

GOOD WORK

The Commissioners and Board of Review recinded their action of the first Tuesday in April, 1921, leaving values as they stood in 1920 on real estate inside and outside of towns.

And the time for filing specific complaints of over or under valuation was extended to June the 30th, 1921, so persons having such complaints will have to file them by that time or they will after be bared.

CAMERON ROUTE ONE

Mrs. J. H. Atkins, of Southern Pines, is spending some time with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thompson and children of Hamlet, were the guests of relatives here last Sunday.

Miss Bessie Cameron spent a day of last week in Raleigh shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Graham and little daughters, Dorothy Mae and Geraldine, of Ruffin, S. C., have been on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Mollie Graham.

Mrs. Mag Cameron and daughter, Miss Saliie, attended the funeral of Private Gilbert Cameron, who died in France, November 13, 1918, two days after the signing of the Armistice.

Miss Ruth McNeill of Vass Route one is spending the week with friends here.

Mr. Mallie Kelley, with Misses Francis, Vick and Flora Kelley, was the guests, one evening of last week, of Miss Eva Graham.

Misses Mary, Fannie and Johnnie Douglas spent last Sunday with Misses Lenora and Mary Cox of Raeford.

Mrs. Mollie Graham and daughter, Miss Kate, spent Sunday with relatives on Jonesboro Route one.

Mr. J. Frank Byrd spent Sunday with friends in Raeford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson and children of Southern Pines were the guests of relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. S. E. Baker and son, John, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Guins of Rockfish.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Autrey of Varina were the guests, Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. Autrey.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson returned, last week, from a visit to her sons, Messrs. J. W. and H. S. Thompson of Hamlet.

THE COMMUNITY CLUB MEETS

A very interesting meeting was held by the Community Club at the Hotel Vass, last Friday evening, June 3rd. The social committee composed of Mrs. S. R. Smith, Mrs. G. W. Brooks, Mrs. L. J. Bliss and Miss Myrtle Leslie had charge of the meeting.

The attendance was large and encouraging. The subject of "More Recreation for the People of Vass" was discussed, and it was decided that the first step would be to organize a tennis club and fix a court. It was also suggested that a sewing circle for the young girls be organized, and plans are under way for a series of plays to be given by the members of the Community Club.

After the business had been attended to a pleasant social hour was spent. Much amusement was furnished by the "Artist's Contest."

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the Social Committee.