BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

Mrs. F. W. Taylor and Frederick,
Jr., spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

Mrs. J. W. Allen had new sweet potatoes for dinner last Sunday.

Mrs. R. Weber has returned from a trip to New York City.

Mr. W. D. Smith went to Carthage
Monday.

Mrs. D. A. McLaughlin was in Raleigh Tuesday.

Master Leon Keith spent a few days in Raeford the first of the week.

Mr. Gordon Thomas came home from Raleigh for the week-end.

Miss Caro McNeill is spending a while in Rocky Mount.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith motored to Pinehurst Tuesday.

Mr. J. Bruce Cameron, of Pinehurst, was visiting home folks here for the week-end.

The average citizen who wants to rule the roost usually objects to anybody else doing a little crowing.

Mr. Ervin Ray and Dr. A. L.
O'Briant, of Cameron, were callers at the Pilot office Wednesday.

There's mighty little danger of the fellow who does an honest day's work stealing at night.

Mr. Jess Thompson and Miss Maud
Gunter, of Aberdeen, called on friends here Sunday afternoon.

If the average man's prayers were all answered it would only add to his troubles.

Miss Ossie Edwards is home after attending summer school at State College, Raleigh.

A caterpillar eats 6,000 times the weight of its own body. But it wouldn't if it had to buy the food.

Mrs. S. W. Lassiter, of near Smithfield, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomas and family were the guests of friends and relatives near Cameron, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smith, and Miss Agnes visited friends in Sanford Friday of last week.

Mr. J. N. Cameron and son, Glenn, of Mars Bluff, S. C., were here the first of the week.

Mrs. John Allen, of Sanford, Route
1, has been on a visit to her aunt,
Mrs. J. M. Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Brewer and children, Mac and Fay, were in Carthage Monday.

Mrs. T. K. Gunter and children, and Miss Rosa Churchill, are visiting friends and relatives in Durham.

Miss Myrtle Leslie returned Friday from an extended visit to Rockingham and Lilesville.

Prof. W. D. Matthews, Messrs.
Franklin Byrd, Turney Matthews and Neill Smith made a trip to Raleigh Tuesday.

The burning question with a good many families on Sunday morning is:
"Who's going to use the car this afternoon?"

Mrs. Julia McDugald and little granddaughter, Margaret McDugald, of Wachula, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. H. D.
Tally and Mr. Ira Thomas, of Cameron, visited friends and relatives in the vicinity of Vass.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Walters and children, Willie and Margaret, of Raeford, were visitors at the home of Mr. D. A. McLaughlin this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards and Mr. Hubert Stutts, of Greensboro, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. J. W. Allen.

White owls are being raised on the White House lawn. We suppose to rid the place of office-seekers and other pests.

Miss Edith Cameron had as her guests the past week, Mrs. R. P.
Hawn and attractive little daughter,
Virginia Mae, of Fayetteville.

How sweet and peaceful is the sleep of the woman whose husband is willing to get up and get his own breakfast.

Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Farrar and two children, of Princeton, were here this week on a visit to Mrs. Farrar's aunt, Mrs. A. Cameron.

Swatting the fly would have been much easier for this generation if they'd started doing it in Adam's time.

We've also noticed that by this time in the year the average citizen tosses his straw hat at a nail instead of hanging it up carefully.

Another thing that causes a lot of trouble in this world is that too many people are trying to get more out of life than they put into it.

We have frequently noticed in passing along the street that the less advice a man hands out the more listeners he has.

It is pretty hard for the fellow who has been out with the "chickens" most of the night to get up with the lark in the morning.

Several concerns are advertising new cures for rheumatism, but we suppose there are lots of men who would like to have the doctor prescribe the old one.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnson, of Lemon Springs, Mr. and Mrs. H. A.
Gunter, of Aberdeen, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. T. K.
Gunter.

We are more or less suspicious of the chap who accepts a job with the statement that he is doing so because it offers him greater opportunities to serve others.

Rev. D. N. McLaughlin and family arrived Wednesday to spend their vacation with relatives in and near Vass.
They motored from their home in Norfolk.

Messrs. Dock Norman, Yank Smitherman, Charlie Matthews and Eugene Matthews, of Yadkin county, were callers at the home of Mr. H. A.
Matthews this week.
