

CAMERON

Rev. L. H. Joyner left on Tuesday for District Conference which convenes at Newbern. He will return by Mebane, where he will join Mrs. Joyner, who is visiting in that town during her husband's absence.

Next week I hope to give the notes of the wedding bells that will have rung in "two hearts that beat as one" on Wednesday evening.

Rev. M. D. McNeill, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Gabe Holmes and the correspondent motored to Sanford last Wednesday, via White Hill and the great State Highway.

Mrs. Laney Campbell and daughter, Miss Tannie, Mr. Hasty Campbell and Mrs. Brooks of Jonesboro, were callers on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Janie Muse.

At the present writing the correspondent has received two invitations to social functions that are to take place this week: one a wedding reception, the other a corn shucking.

Among the many good letters in The News and Observer written by "Savayard," H. G. Wells and Frank H. Simonds, don't miss reading "Incidentally" on the society page, written by Nell Battle Lewis, who is a brilliant writer, and thoroughly original.

Cameron society goes to see the moving pictures at night in some of the neighboring towns, and that's about all that society in this town does, unless an occasional entertaining. But—glory be! This week we are to have a brilliant church wedding.

Mrs. Loula Muse, who is Presbyterian visitor for Moore county, accompanied Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill to Vass last Sunday, where she addressed the Local Auxiliary. From Vass they went to Manly, where Mrs. Muse again addressed the Senior and Junior Auxiliaries and held the undivided attention of the ladies.

Mr. V. C. Jones, the landscape artist from Georgia, is yet in town, busy tearing down old fences, and beautifying the yards and grounds of a number of our citizens by planting evergreen shrubbery and trees; if they live and grow they will add much to the beauty of our town in the winter season. Mr. Jones displays good taste as a landscape artist.

Mr. J. E. Collins, on Breezy Summit, has bought for himself and family a new Ford.

Mesrs. A. Cameron and Neill McLean, of Vass, were callers on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean.

Mrs. Fulton Thomas and Mrs. Sarah Flake, of Wadesboro, are guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hartsell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Eason, with Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Graham and children, spent Saturday night at the home of Mr. Graham's mother, Mrs. Laura Currie, of Jackson Springs. On Sunday they added to the number of thirty guests who dined with Mrs. Graham.

Mr. Harris, of Greenville, N. C., was a week-end visitor of Miss Ritchie, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKeithen.

The lights are bad, they get no better—

I can scarcely see how to write this letter.

Armistice Day was observed at the Cameron graded school with appropriate readings, songs, recitations and drills. At night prayer service was held with Mr. J. R. Loving presiding. The service began with a scripture reading and prayer by Rev. M. D. McNeill; song, Jesus Shall Reign; prayer by Rev. J. W. Hartsell; song, Onward Christian Soldiers; prayer by Mr. C. Jones; song, America. Miss Lady Loving presided at the piano. It being the date for the regular meeting of the Community Club and the election of new officers, Mrs. J. R. Loving was re-elected president and Miss Austin, secretary, Mr. L. B. McKeithen resigning.

York-Wooten Wedding

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean was a scene of artistic loveliness on the evening of Tuesday the 15th, in honor of the wedding party of Miss Willie May Wooten of Cameron, and Mr. Earl York of Sanford, whose marriage was solemnized at the Presbyterian church on the evening of the 16th.

The reception room was beautifully and artistically decorated, the color scheme being pink and white with a background of pine, amid which candles shed a rose glow.

Mrs. Loula Muse received at the door of the reception room; the guests were conducted to the cloak room by Mrs. M. D. McNeill, and afterwards conducted to the bride's book, presided over by Mrs. Jewel Hemphill, where they registered; thence to the receiving line, where they were introduced by Miss Ina Chishom of Greensboro. In the receiving line were the hostesses: Mrs. J. D. McLean, Miss Vera Wooten, and the bride-elect, Miss Willie May Wooten. The guests were then conducted to the punch bowl, presided over by Misses Thelma Spier of Winterville, and Miss Marion Burbage of Como, Va. In the dining room the color scheme was effectively carried out in pink and white, background of green pine. The table, on which the bride's cake formed the center piece, was decorated in streamers of pink and white tulle from ceiling to chandelier, from chandelier to table; suspended from the chandelier were the favors, tiny silver wedding bells; on the buffet stood a miniature bride amid a cluster of pines. Refreshments were served of ribbon cake, block ice cream and mints, in pink and white.

The cutting of the bride's cake was an occasion for much merriment, after which the party bade good night to the hostess with fond words of appreciation, best wishes to the bride-elect and expectant bridegroom for a happy future. The curtain closed over a lovely reception.

WEST END

Miss Anna Wilson, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilson.

Mr. Walter Morris, of Hamlet, passed Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. Lewis Morris and Messrs. Galloway and Jackson were in Sanford shopping last Saturday.

Messrs. Hobson and Vivian Hucker are back in town for a few weeks.

Mr. Alister McDonald Donaldson, aged 73, died at his home near here on Wednesday, Nov. 2. Rev. Matheson conducted the funeral services, which were held at the Donaldson home last Friday morning at 11 o'clock, the interment being made in the West End cemetery. Mr. Donaldson came to this country from Scotland when a young man of 22, and moved to this place several years ago from Mecklinburg. He is survived by his wife and eight children: J. L. and A. G. Donaldson, of Charlotte; Robert, William, J. A. and Cora Belle, of West End; Grace, of Washington, and Margaret, of Georgia.

FOR YOUR WINTER SUPPLIES Remember That VASS MERCANTILE COMPANY

VASS, NORTH CAROLINA

Carries a General Line of Merchandise, and is always ready to take care of your wants, and is anxious to serve you.

Before the winter rains and snows come, let us fit you up with a pair of which are among the best on the market.

Ralston OR Five Star Shoes

A BIG AND VARIED STOCK
AND A SQUARE DEAL

Dress Goods, Dry Goods, Notions and Hardware

Vass Mercantile Co.

VASS, NORTH CAROLINA