TYSON-CAMERON

In the presence of a few relatives and friends, a very quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, when Miss Edith Cameron became the bride of Mr. C. Landon Tyson, Rev. L. H. Joyner, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The parlor was charmingly decorated with ferns and spring flowers. The little flower girls, Misses Louise Leslie and Katharine Graham, nieces of the bride, preceded the couple, who entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. L. C. Wallace, of Carthage, sister of the groom. The bride was tastefully attired in a beautiful blue traveling suit with accessories to match. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Cameron. Mr. Tyson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson, and holds a position with the Carolina Cadillac Co., at Raleigh, where they will make their home after May 28th.

DEATH OF MRS. CLYDE GADDY

Following a very brief illness, Mrs. Clyde Gaddy, aged 23 years, died Tuesday evening at her home in Sanford. Mrs. Gaddy was familiarly known in this community, before her marriage, as Patsy Richardson, and was a native of Moore county, but has resided in Sanford for the past while.

Besides her husband and three small children she is survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson, of Vass route 1, and two brothers, Messrs. Johnny Lee and Will Richardson, and two sisters, Mrs. W. F. Alexander, and Mrs. George Morgan, also of Vass.

The funeral services were at Old Johnson's Grove church, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Services by Rev. M. D. McNeill, assisted by Rev. O. B. Mitchell. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.
