girls. These boys and girls are vieing with each other to make the biggest and best pig and the results will be shown at the Fair.

The same thing applies to the Cattle. No matter what your favorite breed is, you will be mightily interested in the splendid Ayrshires that have also traveled over many states to attend the Sandhill Fair.

The poultry exhibit has grown by leaps and bounds until we are com-F. Lawhon and Miss Effie Lawhon on pelled to greatly enlarge our poultry department and a wonderful exhibit is assured for this fall.

There will be many other new and interesting exhibits too numerous to mention but just as worthy.

The Entertainment Features The annual entertainment features will be continued this year. The annual Parade which takes place on Thursday will far outclass anything to be quite generous. Mr. Stacy Brewer, Vass, N. C.

Dear Sir:-

Having read the statement at the head of the "Cameron News" in the August 4th issue of The Pilot, I am forced to confess that it savors too strongly of the truth to be denied, but there is one phase of the matter which I am both proud and happy to be able (from an intimate knowledge of the facts) to state emphatically, that those included in the aforesaid statement are not residents of Lakeview, but come from adjoining towns, deluded perhaps by the idea that they are establishing in regard to habiliments a modern "Garden of
