ponents they were often dismayed. Leighton Fry, the running guard, was a bulwark of defense in the central and home end of the court and did constant playing throughout the series. Captain Melvin McCaskill, center, used his good head to every advantage, thereby outgeneraling his opponents, and ringed the greater number of points for Pinehurst. Frank McCaskill, the elusive left-handed ringer starred with his long and difficult shots. Horace Kelly, though closely guarded in the games bore a heavy part of the fight around the home end of the court, and acquitted himself excellently in every game, scoring his share of points.

The above team and Mr. Littlejohn and Mr. Cason with his hearty cooperation deserve much credit for putting Pinehurst on the map so far as school athletics is concerned. Neither should we forget our girls who, although they did not win the other cup, have done their part. Miss Starnes is rapidly bringing them to an organization that will give any team in the county a run for their money.

Other events won by Pinehurst for which the contestants deserved much credit especially because of the fact that they had so little time for training are:—

- Pole vault—A. Medlin, 1st place.
- Girls' 50 yard dash—Mary Medlin, 1st place; Idelle McKenzie, 2nd place.
- Girls' 100-yard dash—Idelle McKenzie, 1st place.
- Girls' relay—Idelle McKenzie, Lula Ganger, and Mary Medlin, 1st place.
- Boys' half mile relay—Charlie Fry, Robert Ganger, John Horner and Jim Horner, 2nd place.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER

JESUS THE FRIEND OF

LESSON TEXT—Luke 7:37-40
GOLDEN TEXT—This is a faithful and worthy of all acceptance. Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—I Tim. 1:15.
REFERENCE MATERIAL
32.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Life and Body.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Ministry.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Sympathy of Jesus.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Helps the Sinner and the Sinful.

I. A Penitent Woman's Faith

(vv. 37, 48).
1. Place of (v. 37). It was the home of Simon the Pharisee. Jesus was sitting at meat. He must have been public, could not have so readily confessed.

2. The Act of (v. 38). Jesus' feet with her tears. She means she had heard of Jesus' grace, and God had heard her heart to receive Him as her Redeemer. Out of a heart of gratitude His feet and anointed them with His ointment.

3. Who She Was (v. 37). Not mentioned. She was a notoriously bad character known to the public as a sinner. Something had happened to reform her. She was no longer a sinner, because she believed in Christ.

II. The Pharisee's Disbelief

Simon felt scandalized by what was happening at his table. He was a respectable man. For Jesus' familiarity on the table perplexed him. He reared Jesus were a prophet He knew the character of a prophet and would have either His feet from her or through them, or if He knew His tolerance of such a woman proved that He was not a Pharisee. Simon's righteousness was a sort which gathers up its filth. It gives the sinner a backward glance.

III. Jesus Teaches the Sinner

He taught him by means of a creditor and debtor. Observe that Jesus made the sinner that He not only knew but knew Simon also.

1. The Common Debt. The woman was a sinner, so though he was not the sinner that she was. The debtors, though the one times as much as the other representative of all sinners. Bible declares all to be guilty. It recognizes degrees of guilt. It ought to be given to the sinner. It is honest, virtuous, good. Yet such a life will lead to entrance into heaven. The words are a severe rebuke to the respectable Pharisees who in judgment against the coarser type.

2. The Common Insolvent. "And when they had not Jesus freely granted the degree of the woman those of the Pharisee, but
