CAMERON NEWS

McDonald, on his return, stopped over in Charlotte for a few days.

Mrs. M. D. McNeill was a dinner guest Sunday of Misses Chrissie and Vera McLean at the Greenwood Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean and little neice, Margaret, spent a pleasant afternoon Sunday at the home of Mrs. Mag Cameron on route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Neill McLean, of Vass, were callers Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean.

Mr. Paul Joyner, of Vass, was a caller Sunday afternoon at the home of Miss Vera Wooten.

After spending the week with her mother, Mrs. D. S. Ray, who had been ill, Miss Rebecca Ray returned to Carthage, Monday, where she is high school student.

Some two or three years ago or more—anyway about the time of the birth of the Cameron Community Club, a very enthusiastic meeting was held. L. B. McKeithan made a strong speech in which he set forth the great value of a telephone system. Mrs. Hemphill made another fine speech on sanitation. We've kinder kept up the sanitary arrangements, the law requires it. The telephone system is a dead issue, or something like it—gone where the woodbine twineth, or some other sentimental place of dead things.

Personally speaking, or writing, if we had a telephone system in Cameron, I would not have to tramp all over this town in ground hog weather to get up news items. A tramp in fair weather is a tonic, or something I enjoy. To be out in ground hog weather gets my—reumatiz.

As the gardening season approaches it would be well for all who keep chickens or any other kind of scratching birds, to build for them enclosures. It will keep down ill feelings, and broken friendships between neighbors. It will also prevent cuss words, and perhaps gun play. Where is the pleasure or what is the use to plant flowers, sow seed or try to cultivate anything with hordes of chickens running at large destroying everything? The law doesn't require fences around farms, gardens and yards, but it does require stock to be enclosed, chickens included. Build chicken lots, and let's have peace and plenty.

Mrs. Georgie Matthews went to Sanford last week and invested in real estate, purchasing the Archie Bolton farm in Lee county.

Mr. Kirskey Gardner, of Charlotte, was a week-end guest in our town recently.

Miss Lady Loving has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Rasia Wicker, of Pinehurst.

Mr. John Keith, third trick operator, spent the week-end at his home in Addor.

Mr. Charlie Cullers visited his home folks at Lemon Springs for the week-end.

Quite an attractive valentine window was on exhibit this week at the drug store of Crabtree and Company. Appropriate and beautifully artistic, characteristic of the refined nature of our popular druggist, Mr. E. L. Ray, and his charming assistant Miss Elizabeth Ray.

Mr. Gordon Farmer, of Darlington, S. C., came up for a visit for over Sunday, with his sister, Miss Eula May Farmer, at the home of Mrs. D. S. Ray. Miss Farmer is one of the faculty of the Cameron high school.

Spring is coming! Paint up with the best paint on the market—for sale by Vass Mercantile Company.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY

JESUS AND ZACCHAEUS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 19:1-10.
GOLDEN TEXT—For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost—Luke 19:10.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Pro 13; Matt. 9:9-13; Luke 16:1-13.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Having Jesus as Visitor.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus in the Home of Zacchaeus.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Jesus Saved an Extortioner.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Standards in Business.

I. Jesus Passing Through Jericho (v. 1).

Jericho is noted as the stronghold of the Canaanites, which was valiantly delivered into the hands of Israel in response to their faithfulness (6), and also for the faith of a woman which saved her from destruction with the city (Heb. 11:30, 31).

II. Zacchaeus Seeking Jesus (v. 2-4).

1. His Object (v. 3). He sought to see who Jesus was. Though prompted by curiosity he sought Jesus. He doubtless had heard of Jesus' kind treatment of publicans so was prompted to see what a man He was.

2. His Difficulties (vv. 2, 3). His infamous business (v. 2). As a tax collector of the Roman Empire. The very fact that a Jew would make him extremely unpopular. Then since he was rich it was expected that he had practiced extortion in collecting the taxes. (2) His short stature (v. 3). He was too short to crowd his way through to Jesus being hated by the people they hid him aside, no doubt with taunting jeers. (3) His persistence (v. 4). He ran before the multitude and climbed up into a tree. What he lacked in stature he was determined to make up by the height of the tangles placed before him he hid himself aside and those he could not see he climbed over, because he set his heart upon the goal. Zacchaeus' legs were too short to see Jesus they were not able him to see Jesus they were not able him to climb the tree. somewhat undignified for this man to climb the tree, but he was so desirous to see Jesus that he cast his pride to the winds.

III. Jesus Finding Zacchaeus (v. 5, 6).

While Zacchaeus was trying to see Jesus, Jesus was looking for him. It is always the case. When Jesus saw him he commanded him to come down from the tree and declared his intention to go home with him. Zacchaeus got more than he expected. Jesus did not utter a word which would offend Zacchaeus. Jesus knew his desire and dealt accordingly with him. All souls who earnestly seek for Him shall be found of Him. How full of His grace, that regardless of the past life, that Jesus will receive as a friend and enter into fellowship with him. Zacchaeus quickly received. He came down and with Jesus.

IV. Zacchaeus' Conversion (v. 7-10).

His conversion was sudden and thorough. He was converted.
