

CAMERON

Stormy March! With wind and cloud, and changing skies.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally are pleased to have them home again, after an absence of two months at the home of their son, Mr. J. B. Tally, and Mrs. Tally, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Tally is at home recuperating for the present, but hopes to soon be himself again, and on the job, jolly as ever.

I am pleased to send in, this week, a year's subscription to The Pilot from Mr. Junius B. Tally, a popular and prominent insurance man of Providence, R. I. We hope June will enjoy the news from his old home town.

Mrs. Alfred Graham and little daughter, Nellie on route 2, spent a part of last week with Miss Nonnie Norman.

Miss Kate Harrington is home from Charlotte for a visit.

Little Jeanette Wooten returned Saturday from a visit to Vass, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Paul Joyner, of Vass.

Mrs. J. D. Pierce, of Borderlee, spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. McPherson.

Mrs. Julia McDugald and little grand-daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. Archie McDugald, of Hamlet, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally. Mrs. Julia McDugald will remain in Cameron since the return of her daughter, Mrs. Tally, with whom she makes her home.

Mrs. D. W. McNeill and Mrs. A. F. Goldston spent Monday in Sanford.

Miss Ada McNeill enjoyed a visit at the home of Mrs. Flora Kelly on route 2, last week.

Mrs. Georgie Matthews and sister, Miss Dixie Miller attended the funeral of Mr. Wade Caldwell, of Lemon Springs. Mr. Caldwell was recently in an automobile wreck at his home town. The interment took place at St. Andrews.

Mr. Guthrie, of Virginia, was the week-end guest of Miss Lula McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec McPherson and children, Hugh and Mary Doris spent Sunday with Mrs. McPherson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pierce, of Borderlee.

Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mrs. Jewel Hemphill, Miss Margaret Thomas, Mr. Ira Thomas, and Mr. Carl Phillips, of Goldston, attended the Ham-Ramsey meeting in Raleigh, Sunday.

Mrs. Lula Muse has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. A. Brown, of Chadborn.

Dr. A. L. O'Briant spent Monday in Durham.

We are indebted to Miss Vera McLean for the following program of the meeting of the Young Ladies Auxiliary: Met with Miss Borst, Friday p. m. Members present, 11; absent, 8; collection, $4.10; meeting called to order by the president, Mrs. Jewel Hemphill; song, 130; minutes of last meeting and roll call by secretary; Lord's Prayer repeated in concert; monthly topic (China) was discussed by the secretary; song, 78; dismissed by prayer by Miss Lula McPherson. Refreshments of fruits, gelatin, whipped cream and cake was served by the hostess.

Mr. Johnie Keith spent Thursday night with home folks in Addor.

Mr. W. K. Gardner, of Charlotte, was the week-end guest of Miss Thurla Cole.

Mrs. J. A. Carter, of Hoffman, spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Dawkins. Charles Donald, Jr., is fine and dandy.

Mr. J. F. Saunders and Miss Lady Loving spent the week-end at Greensboro, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Omohundro.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thomas, of Broadway, were callers Sunday at the home of Mrs. Thomas' mother, Mrs. Laura Rogers.

Mrs. A. L. O'Briant was hostess Friday evening at a Washington birthday party given in honor of the Camp Fire Girls of which she is leader. The girls were charming and stately in their colonial costumes and powdered hair. After an evening of fun and merriment the hostess served chicken salad sandwiches, hot chocolate and assorted fruits.

At the box party at Springfield school house, the box going to the highest bidder was prepared by Dorothy Swett, a dear little Miss of thirteen summers.

Protracted meeting will begin at Cameron Methodist church on Monday night, March 4th, conducted by Rev. Mr. Traywick.

Mr. Ab Thomas on route 1 received a message Sunday from the Rev. F. B. Noblett, conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Noblett. Rev. Noblett is a former pastor of Cameron Methodist church.

Dr. M. L. Matthews and son, John Martin, of Sanford, spent Sunday in town with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Irvin.

Miss Callie Hunter came over from Charlotte for the week-end.

Mr. L. F. Hartsell is still confined to his room with a fractured knee, and while he still passes the time in painting some lovely scenes, he is also doing some thinking along other lines. Monday a. m. I called for news. He gave me an eye opener. Here it is. I quote from Mr. Hartsell: "Can everybody in Moore county ride? We think so if they can pay their taxes. We have in Moore county 2730 automobiles and trucks. 1865 of this number are Ford pleasure cars. The state license alone for these cars and trucks totals $40,950. We spend more than a half million dollars annually for gas alone. This does not include any tax of a hundred different kinds which we pay. When we begin to figure up the amount of tax of all kinds which we pay, our head gets dizzy, and we have only a whirling vision of a string of figures which would reach around the county, to say nothing of our town tax which we must pay with a cheerful face, and then bump along over holy streets (when we say holy we don't mean anything in a sacreligious way, either) and can't see how this is. When we spend our money in any place of business we expect to see what we get for it. Then why not in our county or town?"

Little Mary Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Snipes, has returned from the C. C. Hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill, Mr. Neill A. McNeill, Mrs. J. A. Blue, of Raeford, and the Cameron correspondent to the Vass Pilot, each are the grateful recipients of a bottle of Mississippi ribbon cane syrup, the gift of Mr. E. J. Ward, of Ellisville, Miss., a prosperous and highly influential citizen and proprietor of Wards Pharmacy at Ellisville. Mr. Ward was a student at Union Home School in Moore county when that school was in its palmy days; and although he has never been back to Moore county since then, with the exception of passing through, he still has a warm spot in his heart for old Union Home, and the friendships formed while a student at that famous school. Mr. Ward is a subscriber to The Pilot, and I hope he will pardon me for a short extract of his highly appreciated letter to Rev. M. D. McNeill in whose care the gifts were sent: "Rev. M. D. McNeill, Cameron, N. C. My Dear Sir, and long remembered friend: I am sending per prepaid express, five bottles of Mississippi Syrup, one bottle for Mrs. Janie McK. Harrington, one bottle for one of your sisters, I don't recall her name just now, but I was sick at your father's house once, and she was so nice and kind to me. I think she married a Mr. Blue. Think she was your oldest sister. One bottle is for Mr. Neill A. McNeill, of Cameron, N. C. I think I know him, for I think I was a guest at his home during the time I went to school at Union. If he is the Mr. McNeill I think he is, he has a son named Will McNeill who was a student at Union at the same time I attended. Two bottles are for your good self and wife. Will write you a letter one of these days. May come to Cameron some time this year. May God keep us from sin and error, and save us at last, is my prayer. Mrs. Ward joins me in love and best wishes to you and family. Your real friend and well wisher, E. J. Ward."

Mr. Conley McLaurin spent Friday in Siler City on business.

Mrs. J. C. Latham came up from Hoffman Friday for a visit to Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Dawkins. Mrs. Latham is a sister of Dr. Dawkins.

On account of the illness of Rev. Frank Hare, there were no services at the Baptist church Sunday night.

Rev. M. D. McNeill filled his appointment at Vass Presbyterian church, Sunday night. He was accompanied by Mr. M. D. McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Eason on route 2, are both on the sick list.
