

VASS AND COMMUNITY

The Pilot received the following, announcing the marriage of Mr. Clarence Byrd, of Vass, to Miss Nell Hunter, of Cameron:

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunter announce the marriage of their daughter, Nell Bertie to

Mr. Charlie Clarence Byrd February 15, 1924 Bennettsville, South Carolina

Mr. Ed C. Fry, of Carthage, and his friend, Mr. Hunt, of Utica, New York, spent a few hours in Vass, Wednesday. Mr. Hunt, with his wife, is spending the winter season with

Mr. and Mrs. Fry. Miss Margaret McIver, Miss Wilson, Miss Russell, Mrs. Womble and Miss Blue, of Carthage, were visitors in town, Thursday.

Prof. W. D. Matthews spent part of last week in Raleigh, attending the Teachers' Assembly.

Mrs. E. A. McLaughlin has returned from a visit to relatives in Raeford.

Miss Ethel Coats, of Cary, spent the week-end in town, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keith.

Cards have been received in town announcing the arrival on March 12th, of a son, Reuben Smith, weight 10 pounds, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson, who live at the lower power plant.

Miss Freda Gschwind and Mr. John Laubscher, with friends from near Cameron, motored to Rockfish Sunday to visit Miss Nettie Gschwind.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox and family and Miss Albright visited in Pinehurst Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Graham were Raleigh visitors, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Porter and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Wallace, of Carthage, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and children and Miss Harris came up from Hamlet to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Thompson.

Mrs. A. Auman and Miss Mary Lydia Auman spent the week-end with relatives in Troy.

Mrs. C. J. Temple spent Saturday in Raleigh.

Mrs. W. C. Leslie, Mr. Robert Leslie and Miss Marjorie motored to Sanford, Monday.

Miss Annie McGill returned to Statesville, Monday, after a short visit to home folks.

Rev. M. D. McNeill, of Cameron, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. W. D. Smith made a business trip to Greensboro this week.

Mrs. G. H. Simpson and Mrs. D. G. Ridenhour were Sanford visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. York and Mrs. P. W. Joyner went to Cameron Wednesday. Mrs. G. W. Brooks and daughter, Miss Eloise, Mrs. Bertie Matthews and Master Franklin and Mr. H. A. Matthews went to Sanford Friday.

Messrs. D. A. McLaughlin, Stacy Brewer and A. M. Cameron attended the Kiwanis luncheon at Aberdeen, Wednesday, and heard a splendid talk by Chancellor McCormick, of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Turney Matthews, of Cumnock, spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Bion H. Butler and Miss Helen Butler, of Southern Pines, were visitors in town Wednesday afternoon.

We are glad to report that Mr. P. W. Joyner is able to be back at his place of business again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Matthews went to Cameron Tuesday night to see Mrs. Mildred Matthews who has been quite sick for several days.

Misses Bertha and Agnes Cameron, who teach at Mount Pleasant, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cameron.

The home of Miss Rose Raleigh will be sold at auction by Major Moses McNutt, auctioneer, at an early date. Yennie Yensen, from Sweden, Rawdon Crawley and Amos Coleman will be at the sale, to say nothing of Deacon Darius Dubbs, a true blue star-spangled American citizen from Sorghum Center, State of West Virginy. Be sure to meet them there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Parker and Miss Annie Borst, of Cameron, were in town Saturday.

Misses Lora and Nonnie Norman and Mr. Raymond Thomas, of Cameron, were in town Monday.

Miss Bernice Shields spent Saturday and Sunday in Cary.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith went to Southern Pines, Monday.

Rev. Clark, of Carthage, was in town Wednesday.

Miss Eloise Brooks spent Saturday

CAROLINA THEATRES Pinehurst - - and - - Southern Pines PRESENT WORLD'S PREMIERE PRESENTATION (FIRST TIME ANYWHERE) America's Most Distinguished Actor, John Barrymore HISTORY'S GREATEST ROMANTIC DRAMA "BEAU BRUMMELL" With an All-Star Cast, including Mary Astor, Carmel Myers, Irene Rich, Willard Louis and Richard Tucker. A production of singular power and haunting beauty that will live after all others are forgotten. By special arrangement with the producers, the Sandhills is to have the honor of the first public showing of this masterpiece. PINEHURST, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 26th CAROLINA ORCHESTRA Matinee Thursday at 3:00 SOUTHERN PINES, Thursday March 27th. SPRING FASHION SHOW! Direction Mrs. Charles Picquet; Gowns by Mrs. Hayes' Shop. RESERVED SEATS on sale Friday, March 21st, at Southern Pines, Carthage, Aberdeen and Pinehurst. Prices from 75c to $1.65.

and Sunday in Raleigh with her sister, Miss Jessie Brooks, who is a student at Meredith College. Rev. E. McWhorter, pastor of the Methodist church here, is conducting a revival at Raeford Methodist church. Rev. Frizelle, of Raeford, accompanied by Mrs. Frizelle, came up Sunday morning to fill Mr. McWhorter's appointment, and preached a splendid sermon. Circle No. 1 of the Methodist Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. G. H. Simpson. The attendance was unusually good, and the afternoon was spent in making plans for future work. Delicious strawberry short cake with whipped cream was served. Mrs. C. L. Tyson was hostess to Circle No. 2 on Tuesday afternoon. She was assisted in welcoming the guests by baby Marie, who had smiles enough to go around and seemed delighted to use them in playing the part of assistant hostess. After the business meeting, a costest, "A Floral Love Story," was enjoyed. Mrs. C. J. Temple and Miss Gladys Monroe won the prize. Fruit salad with whipped cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. J. Mallie Kelly announce the birth of a son.

in Manley, Tuesday. Mr. A. J. Keith, of Cameron, route 1, visited his daughter, Mrs. R. E. Patterson, Tuesday. Services will be held here Sunday, the 23rd, by Rev. M. D. McNeill, at 11 o'clock. Christian Endeavor at 7:30, led by Mrs. C. S. Vernon. A revival will begin here at the Presbyterian church Monday the 24th, held by Rev. Brown, of Raeford. Two services will be held each day. Members of the Cleveland County Poultry Association are staging an egg-laying contest. With 113 hens on test, Lawrence Hawkins led for January with 2,173 eggs produced. He used electric lights, turning them on at four o'clock in the morning, and found that it paid. Plant the garden according to your plan. FARM FOR SALE—Consisting of 35 acres on graded road about 6 miles from West End. New 4-room dwelling house; plenty of out buildings, and good orchard. W. F. Smith, route 3, Carthage, N. C. (16*4t) HEMSTITCHING and PICOTING, ten cents per yard. Orders by mail given prompt attention. Mrs. J. R. Thomas Vass, N. C., Bx 76 (18*ew) FOR SALE—3 H. P. Deisel Engine. Has been run very little and is in excellent repair, at a bargain figure. See Frank Kaylor at Davis' Garage, Southern Pines, N. C. (18*2t) FOR SALE—Seven-room house and 3.2 acres of land on Main street in Vass. J. R. Thomas, Vass, N. C., Box 76. (18*2t)

MANLEY Miss Essie Parker, who has been teaching in Putnam, is now at home for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson and family are visiting relatives in Siler City. Mrs. C. S. Vernon, Misses Annabel Wilson and Edna Cheatham were shopping in Vass Wednesday. Mr. Ernest Horne, of Carthage, was SEABOARD AIR LINE RAILWAY Trains leave Southern Pines, N. C., as follows, corrected to December 3rd, 1923: SOUTHBOUND No. 1—6:50 a. m., for Columbia, Savannah and Jacksonville. No. 3—7:28 p. m., for Columbia, Savannah and Jacksonville. No. 5—5:52 a. m., for Monroe, Atlanta and Birmingham. No. 11—6:33 p. m., for Hamlet, Monroe and Atlanta. No. 41—11:22 a. m., for Hamlet, Charlotte and Wilmington. NORTHBOUND No. 2—9:53 p. m., for Richmond, Washington and New York. No. 4—9:35 a. m., for Richmond, Washington and New York. No. 302—7:07 p. m., for Washington, Philadelphia and New York. No. 12—8:50 a. m., for Raleigh, Henderson and Norfolk. No. 44—2:02 p. m., for Raleigh-Weldon. Train No. 6—11:23 p. m. stops on flag for passengers for North of Norlina. JOHN T. WEST, Div. P. A., Raleigh, N. C. H. A. BORST, Agent, Vass, N. C.

NEW HATS coming in keeps the cream of the season always on hand. Vass Millinery Ladies' Spring Skirts in plaids and plain colors, and the latest designs in DRESS TRIMMINGS HIGH QUALITY AND LOW PRICES MISS FLORENCE LESLIE.

The "WALK-OVER" BY CABLE FROM PARIS The French originator of the "WALK-OVER" Poppy :: Pump flashed details of the design across the Atlantic Ocean, and from coast to coast women who recognize Paris style welcome the POPPY, now in lustrous black satin, trimmed in soft pat. It awaits your approval at our store. STROUD & HUBBARD SANFORD, N. C. The Shoe and Hosiery Store The Pilot, $2.00 per year