

PINEBLUFF

At the M. E. Church, March 23rd: Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Community Praise Service at 7 p. m. Prayer Meeting at 7 o'clock Thursday evening.

At the Baptist Church, March, 23rd: Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m., by Rev. L. E. Wheeler.

The Methodist people are planning to dedicate their new pavilion in honor of Thomas A. Laine and family who lived here ten years ago. Rev. Laine preached in the church several years, and died here. His daughter, Miss Grace, lived here for several years after her father's death, and she, also, died here two years ago.

Miss Annie Clegg and Miss Harriett L. Ames were in Raleigh Thursday and Friday of last week. Miss Clegg was in attendance at the Teachers Assembly held in that city. They witnessed the unveiling of the memorial of Charles B. Aycock, one of the great educational leaders of the State, and a former governor. They were entertained one evening by Rev. George S. Parker who preaches here in the M. E. Church.

Mr. Arthur H. Guild has been appointed Notary Public.

Mr. Martin Lanher is planning on starting for his home in Pennsylvania this week.

Miss Lena Lanher has returned from Lillington, N. C., where she spent two weeks at the Killingray hotel as guest of Miss Gracie Morgan.

Mrs. Fred Morgan and daughters, Misses Grace and Eva, have gone to Florida for a few weeks.

Mr. A. B. See, a lieutenant of the police force of Danbury, Conn., stopped off a few days to visit his old friends, the Fiddner family. He will resume his journey, in a few days to Florida and Cuba, and stop in Pinebluff again on his return trip, as he is very favorably impressed with our mild climate here.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hoon, of Auburn, N. Y., is helping Mrs. Edwin Ames care for her husband.

Mrs. Bettie Glass is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Barrett, for a few days.

Miss Nannie Lee Colwell, of Jackson Springs, visited Miss Bettie Barrett last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Newell and daughter, Attie, visited Mrs. Newell's brother, Mr. Talmadge Shaw, in Pinehurst, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Barrett visited in Pinehurst on Monday.

Mrs. William Clarke who has been visiting her brother, Mr. William Fiddner and family, through the winter, returned home to Danbury, Conn., last week. She reports cold weather and snow there.

Our postmistress, Mrs. Annie McMinn, has enlarged her postoffice room by building an addition on the west side of her home.

A wee little baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Berg, March 16th.

Suttenfield and Pullin are breaking the west end of Baltimore avenue, this week, by opening the roadway through the center of the street, and opening the new road to Pinehurst and closing the old one. Next Saturday they will hold a land sale, and give away two automobiles to the purchasers of lots. One is to be a Red Bird and the other a Ford, besides some gold pieces, to the lucky winners.

Mr. Ernest Haywood and Billie Mann are taking an extended trip in the South as far as their desires extend.

Mrs. Haywood is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Crocker at her home on Philadelphia avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Achorn are visiting his brother, Dr. John W. Achorn, at his home corner Boston avenue and Pear street.

Mrs. Cadwallader and friend, Mrs. Roberts, entertained in honor of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Achorn, at her home, Cedar Cote, corner of New England avenue and Peach street, Monday evening.

Mr. Purchase, who bought the Alexander Wallace farm on Vinyart street last fall, has charge of the Pinebluff water system at present.

Mrs. Reid Page and little daughter are visiting her mother at Charlotte.

Mr. D. W. Shannon, president of our village improvement society, issued a special call meeting at Assembly Hall for last Saturday evening, but few attended, as the object of the meeting was not understood. Another meeting will be held there next Saturday evening. All tax payers and business men are requested to attend, as the enlargement and improvement of our Pinebluff Lake and Silver Lake, and some more street work and general improvement plans are under discussion. And as the tax payers are always the bankers that have to foot the bills, it is very necessary that all the tax payers should be there and vote for or against the matter, or forever hold their peace.

AYCOCK'S LIFE AND SPEECHES

The unveiling of the monument to Charles Brantley Aycock in Capitol Square, Raleigh, has revived interest in the career of this distinguished North Carolinian. In this connection attention is directed to "The Life and Speeches of Charles B. Aycock," by R. D. W. Connor and Clarence Poe (369 pages, illustrated). Dr. C. Alphonso Smith says of this book, "It is not a biography, but a LIFE. There's more North Carolina in it than any book ever published." Dr. John E. White says: "The book was a thrill of joy to me from beginning to end. I read it through at a sitting, as I would a novel." Rev. Geo. W. Lay writes: "The book ought to be the political Bible in North Carolina for the next ten or fifteen years. I intend to read the speeches two or three times every year and every other North Carolinian ought to read them at least once a year."

This book may be had through our office at $1.50 or with a year's subscription for $2.50.

CAMERON

Lumberton, expressing her appreciation of the article on "Hymns," published recently in The Pilot. Mrs. Bullock is the grand-daughter of the John A. McLeod mentioned in the letter. She writes "The picture of my mother's home is the treasure that I prize most in your article. I felt that some one had lifted a curtain on a spirit world of which I had heard, but never seen. I do not remember grandfather, but my heart beats with the same spirit that prompted him to sing 'Why should the children of a King go mourning all their days?' What brave soldiers they must have been!—those people of the old South! How sturdy they were! I wonder if there are many living now of the younger generation who could still keep the faith under similar circumstances. I doubt it." Mrs. Bullock, who before her marriage was Miss Mattie Arnett, was born and reared in Cameron community.

Mr. Turner Smith on route 2 sends in, this week, a paid-up subscription to The Pilot.

Cameron High School Notes

There seems to be some signs of a barber shop on the school grounds this week. There remains four girls in high school who have not bobbed their hair.

Misses Dora and Billie Boaz are absent from school today (Tuesday).

Misses Lora Norman and Annie Pierce, who graduated from Cameron high school last year, visited the school Monday.

The Maggie and the Jiggs contest ended last week, the Maggies winning by a large majority.

The school closed last Wednesday, the teachers going to Raleigh to the State Teachers Convention.

Johnsie and Alice Thomas, Ray Thomas, Pearl Douglas and Miss Freda Gschwind, of Vass, motored to Rockfish Sunday to visit Miss Jeanett Gschwind who is teaching there.

A lot of pictures are now to be seen at the school since the photographs arrived. Some are not pleased with their appearance.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Mineral Springs township Sunday School Convention will be held at West End Methodist Church on the fifth Sunday. Full program will appear next week. GEO. R. ROSS, Township President.

THE SEVENTH ANNUAL PINEHURST HORSE SHOW

The seventh annual horse show of the Pinehurst Jockey Club is announced for Thursday and Friday, April 3 and 4, mornings and afternoons at Pinehurst. The Pinehurst Jockey Club is growing into prominence about as fast as any institution in this section. One reason is that everything is kept on a strictly clean basis and everybody realizes that every event is a purely sporting contest. At the weekly races a big string of horses is in action every time.

Mr. Pyron, secretary of the club, said to The Pilot, "Last week we started the program promptly at 2:45 and at 4:30 the races were over and the crowd leaving the grounds. Fourteen events, one right after the other without a moments delay, and all in exactly on hour and forty-five minutes. We have tried this year to give good races and to give them to you quick and we hope we are succeeding. If you have not been attending regularly it is about time to get the habit as we have only four more regular meetings on the card. Three separate tracks are in use. A standard half mile harness track, a five furlong running track and a steeplechase course all in front of the grandstand, with good stables, all accommodations of a modern racing plant, and no mud."

With the increasing number of horses and more people interested in the lively features every week, the horse show this year will be on a bigger scale than ever. Premium lists for the show may be secured by writing to R. Pyron, secretary, at Pinehurst.

"DUST OF THE EARTH"

A splendid play, "Dust of the Earth," will be given by the Woman's Auxiliary of Pinehurst, on Thursday evening, April 3rd, at 8 o'clock. As a part of the program several musical numbers will be given.

The money raised from this entertainment will be used to equip and beautify the up-stairs of the Pinehurst Community house for the benefit of the young people.

A full program of this entertainment will be given in next week's paper. The tickets will be sold by the school children, under the direction of Mrs. I. C. Sledge, at popular prices: 70c, 50c, and 35c. Mrs. R. PYRON.
