

CAMERON

The correspondent is in receipt of the following announcement:

The Reverend and Mrs. Lemon Harvey Joyner announce the marriage of their daughter, Burdette Carlton, to Mr. Parrot Beauford Hardee on Friday, the eighteenth of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, Stem, North Carolina. At home after the first of May, Vero, Florida.

Mrs. Hardee lived in Cameron for four years, and her beauty, sweetness and graciousness of manner won many friends here, who wish for her a life of happiness, peace and prosperity.

From Miss Elizabeth Mabel Smith, of Niagara, of the graduating class of the Sandhill Farm Life School, comes an announcement of the commencement exercises Friday morning; April 25, auditorium, 11 o'clock. Class Motto: "We build the ladder by which we rise." Class Colors, green and white. Eighteen are in the class roll.

Miss Bonnie Muse came up from Hamlet, where she teaches, to spend Easter at home.

Mrs. J. D. McLean was the charming hostess Friday evening of the Merry Makers Club. The invited guests were Mr. I. S. Thomas, Miss Elizabeth Bunn, Miss Kate Harrington. Refreshments of delicious banana salad, cheese straws, pimento sandwiches, and olives were served. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. H. D. Tally.

Mrs. D. W. McNeill, Miss Ada McNeill and the correspondent spent an afternoon of last week in Union Church cemetery. Sacred ground! When our ancestors dating back to the sixth generation are buried.

The correspondent was a dinner guest on Easter Sunday of Miss Myrtle Gaddy, who, without assistance from any one, served an elegantly prepared and delicious cooked dinner.

Mr. Clyde Gaddy came over from Sanford to partake of the Easter dinner prepared by his sister, Miss Myrtle.

Mrs. T. C. Gaddy is away on an extended visit to relatives at McFarland.

Mrs. Cora Graham, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Graham and little Nellie were Easter visitors of Mr. J. W. Norman, and Miss Nonnie Norman.

The nineteen-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Martin has been very ill during the past week with pneumonia. Pleased to report the little one improving.

Mrs. D. J. Pierce, of Borderlee, who was recovering from a serious illness, suffered a relapse Monday. Miss Lula McPherson is in attendance as nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. Rassic Wicker came over from Pinehurst to spend Easter with relatives.

Miss Beulah Thomas, who is teaching near Wilmington, spent Easter at home.

Miss Callie Hunter came over from Charlotte for the Easter holidays.

Drs. Olive and Olive, of Ellerbe, were visitors Sunday at the Greenwood Inn.

Mrs. Addie Graham and daughter, Miss Bertie, of Sanford, spent Easter at their home in town.

Misses Mary McLean, of Raleigh, Alma McLean, of Greensboro, spent the week-end with home folks on route two.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Kelly, on route two, were shopping in town Saturday.

Mr. Cameron McLean came up from Wilmington to spend Easter with his little daughter, Margaret, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean.

Bill Latta and Frank Craven, students at Trinity, stopped over Friday and Saturday with George Wooten, a former Trinity student, on their way to Hamlet to spend Easter.

Misses Mamie Arnold and Winnie Muse gave their pupils an egg hunt on Easter Monday.

Miss Crissie McLean received through the mail on Easter Sunday a box of lovely white carnations. Now we are wondering.

Mr. Herring, a young ministerial student at Wake Forest, preached Sunday morning at the Baptist church. Rev. Frank Hare, the regular pastor, has resigned all his churches on account of ill health, and has moved to Colorado Springs.

Mr. W. K. Gardner, of Charlotte, was a guest Easter Sunday of Miss Thurla Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thomas and children spent Easter in Carabonton with Mrs. Thomas' mother, Mrs. Mamie McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cameron and little daughter, Marion, of Vass, were visitors Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean.

Mrs. Margaret McLean, on route two, left Monday for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Joe Ayers, of Oak City, and to her son, Dr. John W. McLean, of Godwin.

Mr. E. Kennedy and nephew, Lynn Kennedy, of Asheboro, were visitors in town for Easter, stopping at the Doss House.

Dr. and Mrs. Dodge and trained nurse, Miss Jake, who have spent the winter in Southern Pines, stopped over a few hours Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas, on their return to their home in Massachusetts.

Miss Elizabeth Bunn, of Bailey, left Tuesday after spending Easter with Miss Margaret Thomas, and Mrs. Jewel Hemphill.

Mr. and Mrs. Parrott Beauford Hardee, bride and groom from Stem, stopped over Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean.

Miss Margaret Thomas gave an Easter egg hunt to her Sunday School class on the Baptist church lawn Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mr. I. S. Thomas, and Miss Margaret went to Jonesboro Monday night to bid Rev. and Mrs. Hare good-bye, who are leaving for Colorado.

Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill received a message Monday from Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Holmes, of Goldsboro, announcing the birth of their son, John McNeill.

Mr. John Keith spent Easter Sunday with relatives in Fayetteville.

Mr. Laurence Weatherspoon, of Pinehurst, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Kenneth Bailey, on route two, was in town Saturday.

Mr. Charles Loving, Miss Daniels, of Lillington, Miss Kate Matthews, Miss Dee Alridge, Miss Annie Hartsell were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Loving.

Miss Blanche Coore, of Raleigh, spent Easter with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Cameron.

There was a special song service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, and a sermon, glorious and sublime, by Rev. M. D. McNeill, on the resurrection.

Mr. N. A. McNeill, who is in his ninety-fourth year, enjoyed a pleasant motor trip with his nephew, D. W. McNeill over in Cameron and immediate vicinity.

Miss Mabel Muse, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of Troy, came home for over Sunday.

From Master Hugh McPherson and little Miss Jean Forbes Kelly, the following dainty invitations were sent out last week to their little friends:

Jean and I are going to have a little party at my house on Monday, April 21st from four to five o'clock. From Hugh McPherson and Jean Forbes Kelly.

Easter morning at the Presbyterian Sunday School, Mrs. Lula Muse presented to each one in her Bible class a beautiful picture of a hand painted Easter lily, and a card with the following beautiful verses:

"Tender lily, growing green,
Calyxes so crisp and clean;
Graceful lily, bursting white
Into petals of delight!
Lord of Life, supremely fair,
Brighter than the lillies are,
Spring up in my heart and glow
Like the lillies when they blow."

The class were very appreciative of such a beautiful and appropriate Easter gift. Mrs. Muse is a wonderful teacher of the Bible, a teacher interesting and instructive.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. O'Briant spent Monday in Durham.

The Easter party given by little Miss Jean Kelly and Master Hugh McPherson at the home of the latter was a rare occasion for the little tots. Games were played with a big rubber "Joy Ball." The children saw real bunnies in Hugh's rabbit pen. The Easter rabbit left eggs on the lawn and the chickens found them. Little Jean's mama, Mrs. J. C. Kelly, told an Easter story, "Why the rabbits bring eggs on Easter." Ice cream cones and pink and white rabbit cookies were served; and, um-um, what a good time! The invited guests were Marie Parker, Margaret McDougald, Ruby Wooten, George Thomas, Margaret McDonald, Elizabeth Thomas, George McDermott, Virginia Pierce, Hattie Bell Gaddy, Victoria Pierce, Margaret McLean, Isabel McKeithen, Frank McFadyen, Margaret McDonald, James Clyde Kelly, Jr., Mary Doris McPherson.

Miss Rebecca Ray, the beautiful daughter of Mrs. D. S. Ray, of Cam-
