

PINEBLUFF

At the M. E. Church June 22nd: Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. George S. Parker. Community Praise Service at 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30.

At the Baptist Church June 22nd: Sunday School at 9:45 a. m.

The Baptist Young Ladies Auxiliary met at the home of the leader, Mrs. William Fiddner, on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. M. S. Latschaw gave a mission talk to the girls.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Simpson on Philadelphia avenue, Tuesday evening of this week.

A union missionary entertainment will be given by the young ladies of the Baptist and Methodist Churches at the Baptist Church, June 27th, at 7:30 p. m. A silver collection will be taken. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Holbrook choir met for its last session this season at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Achorn on Sunday evening, last. After spending one hour singing hymns, Mr. Wade gave some fine selections on the piano.

Mrs. Joseph Suttentfield is spending a few days at Davidson College, having chaperoned a company of young ladies there to attend the commencement exercises. She is expected home this week.

Mrs. Leidergerber who has been spending the last month visiting her sister, Mrs. Sadie Fiddner, has returned to her home in Newark, N. J.

Miss Mary Perkins, whose home was burned in the fire of May 10th, has rented rooms in the Dearborn cottage at Silver Springs, and moved there.

Mr. Dighton McGlechin has put in the foundation of his new cottage on the site of the old house that was burned on the corner of Philadelphia avenue and Current street. It is the desire of all of our people that the beautiful corner will be redecorated with pretty cottages, and more than its former beauty restored.

Miss Emily Wallace spent a few days last week visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Reynolds, of Southern Pines. She visited her friends, Mrs. Rigely and daughter, Henrietta, at Sanford. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lampley have rented the Butler property on Philadelphia avenue and are very happy in their new home.

Mrs. A. L. Allen was very pleasantly surprised recently by a visit from her brother whom she had not seen for thirty years. Mr. F. E. Jones, of Los Angeles, Cal., appeared to her unannounced, and stopped over a few days for a good visit, and to look over the Sandhills. Mr. Jones was on a business trip through the eastern, western and southern states, and took in New Orleans and Texas on his return trip.

Mrs. M. S. Latschaw has gone north to visit her son, Rev. Blair Latschaw, of New Jersey, for a few weeks before she returns to her Missionary Alliance work in Muncie, Ind.

Miss Emily Wallace, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wallace, has returned to her hospital work in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Page have gone to Aberdeen for a few weeks while his mother, Mrs. Chris. Page, and daughter, Mrs. F. Shamburger are on their vacation at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Talmage Shaw and two children visited his sister, Mrs. Jessie Newell, over the Sabbath.

Misses Mattie and Sarah Wilson, of Raeford, are visiting the Misses Picklers at their home on the shore of Pinebluff Lake, this week.

Miss Ruth Skipper, of Pearson, Ga., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Lampley, for the summer.

Mr. E. Pickler, who has been working in Greenville, has returned to the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pickler.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Achorn leave this morning for their home in Boston, Mass. They will stop one day at Virginia Beach, Va., to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Smith. Mr. Smith has a hotel there, and ran the Pinebluff Inn here for two years, and has charge of the new hotel to be in Pinebluff.

The new hotel, "The Holbrook," is progressing nicely at last reports.

Miss Janie McMillan spent the week-end with her friend, Miss Ruth Wallace.

Rev. and Mrs. George S. Parker arrived in town via auto from Raleigh, and are safely housed in the Methodist parsonage on New England avenue. They have two grandchildren with them who will give charm and cheer to their summer sojourn here.

We see a health note in a daily paper which says: "If milk don't agree with the baby, boil it." Rather tough on the baby, isn't it.

Maybe the breakfast parties at the White House are only an excuse to get some of our congressmen up in time to attend to business.
