

CAMERON

What has become of the Merry Makers Club?
Present writing: abnormal weather the other way.
Mr. W. K. Gardner, of Charlotte, spent over Sunday with Miss Thurla Cole.
Misses Crissie and Vera McLean were afternoon callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Shaw, route 2.
Mrs. J. C. Bruton, of Columbia, S. C., is visiting her sisters, Misses Mayme and Kate Arnold.
Miss Margaret Gilchrist on route 2, spent Monday with her aunt, Miss Ada McNeill. Miss Gilchrist will begin teaching at Springfield, Monday.
Mrs. Dugald Stuart, of Laurinburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen.
Pleased to report Mr. E. M. Borst improving.
Cameron graded school has an enrollment of 260 pupils; 73 of these are in the high school.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. York and children, C. E., Jr., and Harold Culbertson, of Vass, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten.
Mr. J. A. McPherson expects to leave this week for Baltimore, Md., for medical treatment.
Miss Florence Pierce and nieces, Misses Effie and Myrtle Newel on Jonesboro, route, spent Thursday of last week with Mrs. J. A. McPherson, and called in the afternoon to see the correspondent.
Messrs. H. P. McPherson, C. A. Hunter, Cone McPherson, I. S. Thomas, attended the Brown Buick barbecue at Lemon Springs, Friday, and report a wonderful time. The company sent out 700 invitations, and they do say that all were present.
Mrs. Scott, of Greensboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Coy Maples, on route 2.
At the Presbyterian church services Sunday morning Rev. M. D. McNeill baptized his little grandson, John McNeill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Holmes, of Goldsboro. Rev. McNeill preached an excellent sermon on religious experience, and the triumphant death of the believer.
Miss Lady Loving left Monday for Pinehurst where she will teach.
Miss Margaret McQueen who is back again on the job as County Nurse, spent Wednesday with Miss Vera McLean.
C. N. Boaz, of Durham, whose favorite flower seems to be the Myrtle, paid his usual visit Sunday.
Mrs. D. D. Tally and Mr. John Keith spent a day in Fayetteville recently.
Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Norman spent Thursday in Fayetteville.
Dr. and Mrs. A. L. O'Briant have returned from a visit to Mrs. O'Briant's people in Philadelphia.

Misses Margaret and Mary Emma Thomas, Mrs. M. D. McNeill, Mrs. Gabe Holmes and children, of Goldsboro, spent an afternoon of last week with Mrs. C. C. Yates of Carthage.
Mr. Green, mechanic for J. A. McPherson, with his wife and little son, have moved on Carthage street near Turner Heights.
Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hendricks returned last week from a visit to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach.
Mrs. R. C. Thomas and son and daughter, J. S. Thomas and Mary Emma, spent an afternoon last week at Bules Creek.
Mrs. Underwood, of Sanford, was the guest of Miss Lucile Loving for the week-end.
Quite true it is that those who have "borne the heat and burdens of the day," are the first to be forgotten in the round-up.
Mr. and Mrs. Will White on route two are spending some time with Mrs. White's father, Mr. T. G. Swett.
Judge Emmet Tally and family, of Florida, were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally. Both families spent Sunday at the old home of the Tally's at Mt. Vernon Springs.
Miss Mary Emma Thomas returned Tuesday to Meredith College. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Hollingsworth Jones, of Edgewood, route two, who will enter as a student.
Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill were afternoon callers last week at the new home of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Snow on the Fayetteville road in the vicinity of the historical huckleberry swamp and Indian graveyard.
Rev. M. J. McLean preached Sunday afternoon at Springfield.
Miss Jacksie Muse and J. F. Saunders spent Friday afternoon at Overhills, playing golf.
Miss Callie Hunter came over from Charlotte for over Sunday with home folks at Huntersville.
Miss Mary Lee Gullledge, of Anson county is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gullledge on route 2.
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thomas and daughter, Miss Mary Emma attended the funeral Friday of Mr. W. H. Thomas at Chatham church. Deceased was a brother of R. C. Thomas.
John, the clever little son of Mrs. Georgie Matthews, is at the C. C. Hospital for treatment.
Mr. J. A. Phillips and son, Pete, spent Saturday in Greensboro.
Mr. O. A. Speight, of Kinston, superintendent of construction for the State Highway Commission, with his wife and little son are boarding, this week, at the McPherson home on Turner Heights.
Little Miss Anne Muse, of Carthage, visited little Miss June McIver Hemphill, this week.
Dr. Archie McKeithen who has been on an extended visit to his home folks in Cameron, left Wednesday by way of Louisville, Ky., where he was a surgeon in the City Hospital. From there he will go to Rochester, Minn., where he has accepted a fellowship with the Mayo Brothers.

The correspondent was a dinner guest Sunday, September 7th, of little Murdock Ritchie McKeithen, who celebrated his birthday of six months. He was the guest of honor at the lovely dinner, and sat in his carriage at the table, looked on with wise, admiring eyes, smiled beautifully when addressed by those who were enjoying the dinner given in his honor. Those present: Daddy and mother, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKeithen, little sister; Isabel McKeithen; Grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen; uncle, Dr. Archie McKeithen; cousin, Janie McKeithen Harrington. Clan McKeithen forever! War cry, "Loch Arve, Argle!" Motto: "I hope in God."
Mr. H. A. Wade, the hustling agent for the Volume Library, was in town Monday looking well and prosperous.
Mr. J. A. McPherson is on the sick list, I regret to state. Drs. Monroe of Sanford, Dr. Archie McKeithen and Dr. O'Briant were called in consultation Monday.
Mrs. Robert Cameron on route one, passed away last Tuesday at the C. C. Hospital, leaving a husband and two little girls aged five, and two months to mourn her death. An unusually sad death, she having been ill only two days. A lovely character, faithful and devoted to her husband, her children and her home. Only twenty-four years of age, and the future looked bright. The interment took place at Cypress church. Funeral services conducted by Rev. M. D. McNeill. Of her family surviving are her mother, Mrs. W. H. Coore on route one; four sisters, Mrs. J. W. Cameron of Cameron, Mrs. C. A. Culbertson of Siler City, Miss Blanche Coore of Raleigh, Miss Sallie Coore on route one; four brothers, J. E. Coore of Raleigh, T. J. Coore of Lakeview, Frank L. and W. A. Coore on route one.
Wednesday, September the 3rd at 8 p. m., at the Methodist parsonage, the home of J. W. Norman, Miss Bertie Graham, of Cameron, and Mr. Clyde Brown, of Sanford, were united in marriage, Rev. M. D. McNeill officiating. The reception room was artistically decorated with Japanese lanterns and potted flowers. Miss Annie Pierce, of Borderlee, gowned in changeable taffeta, presided at the piano, playing Lohengrin wedding march as a processional, and during the ceremony the flower song was softly played. Mendelssohn wedding march was played as a recessional. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue beaded canton crepe with accessories to match, and carried an arm bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley. The happy couple left immediately for the home of the groom, and will reside in Garesburg. Those present: Mrs. Addie Graham, mother of the bride; Mr. J. W. Norman and daughters, Carrie, Lora and Nonnie; Mrs. Jewel Hemphill; Miss Mabel Muse; Mrs. Loula Muse; Miss Annie Pierce; Miss Annie Brown, sister of the groom, of Lillington; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Graham; Mrs. Cora Graham; Misses Mina and Lila Bowden, route two; Mrs. Daisy Loving, Rural Hall; Messrs. Raymond Thomas, route one; James Rogers, Cameron.

Thursday morning, bright and early, Mr. James Rogers and Miss Nonnie Norman, accompanied by Misses Annie Pierce, Lora Norman and Raymond Thomas, motored to Carthage where Mr. James Rogers and Nonnie Norman were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Ayscue at the parsonium. We wish for these popular and estimable young couples long life, happiness, peace and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have returned from a bridal trip to the mountains.

NOTE OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and death of my wife.
ROBERT B. CAMERON, Cameron, N. C.
