

CAMERON

Wedding bells are becoming quite frequent in our town. Sunday morning, 21st, at 10 o'clock, at the home of the bride, Miss Myrtle Gaddy, and Mr. C. N. Boaz, were united in marriage, Rev. J. W. Hartsell officiating. The bride was beautifully gowned in brown georgette with accessories to match. Only members of the family were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Thompson, of Vass, Messrs. Clyde Gaddy and Camp Gaddy, of Sanford, John Gaddy, Kinston, Miss Bessie Oliver, of Sanford, was maid of honor. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple left for Wilson where the groom has a position with the highway construction company. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gaddy, of Cameron. She is noted for her beauty, her goodness, her fine business and domestic qualities. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boaz, of Cameron, is a young man of good morals, good business qualities and highly respected.

School Notes

Miss Minnie Kimball, a tenth grade pupil, was married to Mr. Johnson last week. I believe the rest of the class prefers to work algebra a while longer.

Miss Ruth Matthews, a ninth grade pupil, is ill at the Central Carolina Hospital, Sanford. We hope she will soon be able to resume her school work.

Miss Ola Frye is back in school after a few days absence.

The basketball goods have come, and have been erected.

Some of the pupils have been attending the meeting at the Baptist church.

We are sorry to report Miss Kate Arnold, one of our teachers on the sick list today (Monday). We hope to see her back real soon.

The most pleasant week in the month—"Test Week."

The One Logical Place to Do the Bulk of Your Buying.

And while the

LITTLE RIVER STORE CO.

is offering incentives to everybody to make their store the commercial headquarters and trading center for the people from everywhere this is just a reminder that in Vass there are others:—

The Vass Mercantile Company, Gunter's, Miss Leslie's Millinery Store where you can get hats and flowers, Wiggins' Drug Store, the shoe repair shop, the barber, with the pressing establishment, the Ford agency and shop, with two other garages and another building, the meat market, the restaurant, and one of the best hotels in the interior of North Carolina, a bank that cares for all reasonable wants, a cotton gin of the largest size in this part of the State, the best rural cotton market, with ample storage for all cotton that wants a roof over it, the big warehouse of the co-operatives, a newspaper that ranks as one of the best local papers in the South, the Standard Oil distribution station, the cotton mill, and probably other things not just now called to mind.

But they are all here, all that the buyer from any place needs, with good roads and railroads to get here, and a lot of good people to mix with when you arrive.
