

CAMERON

Rev. W. H. H. Lawhon will preach at the Baptist church in Cameron next Sunday, 19th, at eleven a. m. Mr. John Keith spent Monday in Greensboro on business. Mr. Keith has a new Ford. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Hartsell Hendricks, route 1, Sunday morning, a daughter. Mrs. Jewell Hemphill and Mr. Jess Howard, spent Sunday at Mocksville. Miss Mildred Andrews, of Georgia, who is teaching at Raeford, will spend the week-end with Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly. Mrs. Ritchie and Miss Manda Clark, of Clarkton, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKeithen. John Martin, tenant for J. A. Phillips, brought in the finest turnips we have seen for the season on Saturday. Dr. and Mrs. A. L. O'Briant attended the "movies" in Southern Pines, Saturday night. Mr. P. G. York, of Sanford, was a caller at the Greenwood Inn, Wednesday evening. Mrs. A. W. Burt, Miss Gladys Monroe, of Biscoe, Miss Minerva Thompson, a teacher in Cameron graded school, were callers, Sunday afternoon, at the home of the correspondent. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Headen, of Siler City, were dinner guests, Monday, of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McLean. Before her marriage, Mrs. Headen was Miss Thelma Spier, of Winterville. Miss Cattie McDonald and brother, Mr. Donald McDonald, visited in Carthage last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips and children, Master Jack, Pete, and Miss Flora, and Miss Mary Ferguson spent Sunday afternoon with their aunt, Mrs. Mary McIntosh on Sanford route 3. Miss Kate Matthews spent the week-end at her home in Wagram. Mr. and Mrs. Asa Yow spent Sunday with Mr. Yow's sister, Mrs. I. D. Little, of Center church community. Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McLean and son, and daughters, of Aberdeen, were visitors, Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Petty.

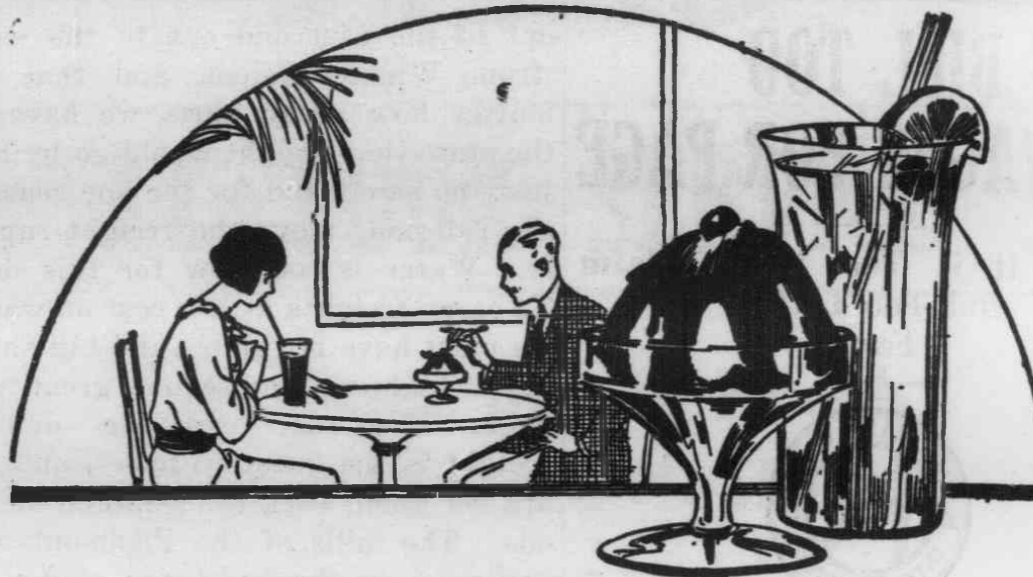

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. York and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Joyner and little son, of Vass, Mr. and Mrs. York and Mr. Clarence York, of Sanford, were visitors, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten. Prof. and Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly and children spent Sunday with Prof. Kelly's father, Mr. D. D. Kelly and his sister, Miss Kate Kelly, who is eighty years of age, and has spent fifty-five of her years in bed, a helpless invalid. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, and a bevy of beauties spent Sunday in Badin. Misses Crissie and Vera McLean spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Poindexter, of Sanford. Messrs. W. A. and John C. Muse attended the ball game at Chapel Hill, Saturday. Mrs. J. A. McPherson and little son, Hugh Pierce left last week for Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, to return with Mr. J. A. McPherson who has been a patient there for the past several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. McPherson and little son are expected home this week. Miss Lula McPherson who accompanied his brother when he entered the hospital, will remain for some time in Baltimore, where she has accepted a position. Little Mary Doris McPherson spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pierce, of Borderlee, during the absence of her mother in Baltimore. Miss Mary McNeill, of Lee-line, was a business visitor in town last week. Miss Bonnie Muse who teaches at Hamlet, spent the week-end at home. Little Miss Marian Cameron, of Vass, spent Saturday with little Margaret McLean. Mrs. Ida Buie and daughter, Miss Vara Buie, of Cypress vicinity were visitors Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cameron. The John McNeill Memorial Society enjoyed a weinie roast Friday evening at Morriss Pond. Misses Annie Hartsell, Vera McLean, and Annie Borst, Mr. L. F. Hartsell were shopping in Fayetteville, last week. Master John Matthews is still a patient at the C. C. Hospital. Being a favorite with the Cameron people, we are hoping to see him home again real soon. Mr. Mason Borst came up from Wilmington, Saturday for a visit to home folks. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McNeill, Miss Ada McNeill were over in Lee county, Sunday afternoon, calling on Miss Mary McNeill and Miss Lizzie Morrison. Mrs. Lamb, the very efficient practical nurse for Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Petty, has been quite ill for the past week with symptoms of appendicitis. Mrs. Addie Graham came over from Sanford, Saturday for a week's visit at her home. Mrs. A. A. Graham on route two, spent Saturday night with Mrs. Addie Graham. I am pleased to enroll a new subscriber to The Pilot this week. Mrs. Janie B. Fagan, of Aberdeen. Mrs. Fagan has a warm spot in her heart for Cameron and vicinity, for it was here she passed her carefree childhood days. Her father, the late Duncan Johnson, owned the plantation now owned by Mr. H. C. Boaz. Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Thompson and children, of Vass, were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gaddy and Mr. and Mrs. John Gaddy. Abraham Doyle, of Indiana, a tourist south-bound, stopped over last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McPherson at Turner Heights. Mr. Doyle is 97 years of age and looks to be about 60—doesn't wear glasses, does not use a cane, has all his teeth solid and sound, an interesting conversationist, named for Abraham Lincoln, and that's how and why. Attention! People who come to Cameron on Saturdays are respectfully invited to visit the curb market at the S. A. L. depot square. You may be interested in what you see, feel and taste. Specialty for next Saturday, 18th, delicious home-made candies and other delicacies. The pageant given by the young Ladies Auxiliary at the Presbyterian church, Monday evening, was pretty, interesting, and instructive. The radio failed to function. Now that the "Dear old Derby" hat is coming back in style for the men, introduced by the Prince of Wales, perhaps that old song will be revived and the girls of the present day will be singing the favorite ditty of the girls of the past: "Somebody's tall and handsome, Somebody's not too fat, He walks along so gracefully, And he wears a derby hat." Prof. William Crook, of the Jackson Training School at Concord, was a week-end guest of his relative, Mrs. Laura Rogers. Prof. Crook was born in this vicinity and spent the days of his boyhood near Cameron. His mother, before her marriage, was Miss Priscella Ann Rogers and followed (Continued on page 7)

A Store that plans to serve the Community

Little River Store Company Vass, North Carolina

The Little River Store is rounding out its stocks in the various departments with serviceable and seasonable goods. The ambition is to make this phase of the store so attractive that Vass will be the recognized trading center for the territory for miles around. But with the well-filled staple departments our plans will not satisfy us if we do not each week have some worth while features to offer our people.

This Week

Arrival of a stock of Wright's Health Underwear

A high Quality of a Superior Brand. The staple Brands of Underwear from the Standard Makers in stock all the time.

A Seasonable Feature

Hats for Women

An Attractive Selection, right in Style and Quality, and with Prices Marked in Reason.

A Drive in Florsheim Shoes

Few shoes have as good a reputation as the Florsheim. We have about fifty pairs of $10 grade that will go at $8.50 while they last. A good shoe is always a bargain at any price.

While we think of it, Roofing and Shingles have advanced since our last shipment came in, but our stocks are bought at the old prices. Virginia Galvanized Shingles with the Courtwright locks in this shipment. The Courtwright lock is the best made. Roofing in two and five V crimp. Car loads of fresh Cement, Lime, and other builder's supplies. As much or as little as you want. The warehouse is pretty well stocked now.

Furniture That Will Interest You

A Southern Pines woman last week remarked that our furniture and our prices looked better to her than anything she has seen in this section. You might have a look yourself.

Rockers, $4 to $6; Beds, $5 to $20; Mattresses, $8 to $15, cotton.

Separate Cots; Beds, three-piece; Springs, the common sense kind at the common sense Price.

The LITTLE RIVER STORE COMPANY, Vass, N. C.

Our lines are the Standard Goods, the kind that has a reputation built up on Quality and Satisfaction. We don't dabble much in the unknown and uncertain. We don't care to sell you any disappointments. LITTLE RIVER STORE—See the sign at the end of the bridge
