will show their appreciation in a manner that will encourage them to carry their plans to a successful conclusion. The great number of people who attended the meeting at Pinehurst Tuesday night, the brand of enthusiasm exhibited, and the practically unanimous pledge of support expressed by the audience would seem to indicate that this community can be counted upon for the maximum amount of support.

Mr. Barber Buys Lawrence Tract

The real estate department of the Mason & Gardner Co. has just closed a deal with Mr. James Barber, whereby he becomes the owner of the D. E. Lawrence tract, of two hundred and twenty-two acres, located about four miles from Pinehurst along the old West End road.

The Hemmers

Mr. John G. Hemmer returned to Pinehurst from New York recently, accompanied by Mrs. Hemmer and their young son, who will spend the remainder of the season here. They are very comfortably situated in the Laurel Cottage.

Mr. Hemmer, who is the news photographer at Pinehurst this year, has broken all previous records for the number of Pinehurst pictures published during a season. He is telling, in pictures, the story of Pinehurst and the Sandhills from coast to coast. Every real news stand in America puts out some paper every day exhibiting specimens of Mr. Hemmer's art and genius. He is giving this section the highest type of publicity it has ever enjoyed.

Butler Estate Changes Hand

This week, Mr. Irving E. Raymond, of New York, purchased the B. F. Butler estate near Eagle Springs. Mr. Raymond, who has been a Pinehurst guest for a number of years, will continue the farming operations instituted by Mr. Butler, retaining the superintendent who has been in charge of the work, and plans to make further development of the property from time to time.

The Butler estate, known as "Uplands," consists of 380 acres of land situated along route 70, 12 miles from Pinehurst, having a bearing orchard of 5,000 peach trees.

Moore County Represented at National Educators' Meeting

Prof. W. P. Morton, superintendent of schools at Pinehurst, left Sunday night for Washington, D. C., to represent Moore County at a meeting of the National Educational Association to be held the first three days of this week. Over seventeen thousand educators were assembled to discuss problems of vital interest to school work in America.

On the night of Washington's birthday, President Coolidge addressed the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association, giving them some facts which brought to light a side of Washington to which too little attention has been given.

The last paragraph of the President's address will stand reproduction here: "Our Country has prospered, our Government is secure. But that prosperity and that security flow from the school and the church. They are the product of the American people. Through and through, Washington is the great example of character. He sought to bestow that heritage upon his country. We shall fail in our estimation and understanding of him unless we remember that during his lifetime he helped to build a place of religious worship; in his will he provided for institutions of learning, and in his farewell address he emphasized the spiritual values of life. But what he did was even more eloquent than what he said. He was a soldier, a patriot, a statesman; but in addition to all these he was a great teacher."

Princeton Orchestra Coming April 5.

The Princeton Orchestra, accompanied by several able soloists, will be at the Carolina Theatre Easter Monday, April 5. This is one of the best musical organizations that has ever represented Princeton University. In his eagerness to book them for a night in Pinehurst, the manager of the Carolina Theatre gave over one of his regular show nights. An orchestra must be right to get into that theatre any time; the fact that the Princeton boys were allowed to break in on one of the show night indicates that they must have something to offer that is out of the ordinary.

A Great Success

The bazaar and social given by the ladies of the Pinehurst Catholic Church on Tuesday evening of last week, at the Pinehurst Country club, was very successful. The hall was beautifully decorated and the tables groaned under the weight of the good things offered for sale. The ladies realized approximately one thousand dollars, net, from the entertainment.

Attendance Records Broken

The largest crowd that ever attended a winter race meet in Pinehurst was on hand to witness the Seventh Annual Swigert Cup Race, Washington's birthday. It was one of those perfect days, so frequent in the Pinehurst section at this season of the year, and devotees of the sport of kings turned out en masse to witness a program of racing that befitted the occasion. Beginning March 3, there will be races every Wednesday throughout the season.

Another Win For Mr. Blue

Halbert J. Blue, of Aberdeen, won the Annual Flag Tournament played by the tin whistles over No. 2 course on Washington's birthday. After sinking his ball on the 18th, Mr. Blue had two strokes to use on the 19th; the first resulted in a beautiful drive straight down the middle and his iron shot rested in the trap by the side of the 19th green.

Elk's Minstrel

The minstrel given by the Greensboro Elks at the Carolina Theatre last Saturday night netted a sum beyond the expectations of the Brotherhood, who sponsored the entertainment. They were able to turn over an appreciable sum to the Community House Association as a result of their efforts.

Basket Ball

The two Pinehurst teams journeyed to Lumber Bridge Tuesday, returning with two more victories to their credit, boys 32-16; girls 34-17. The superintendent at Lumber Bridge, Mr. Fogleman, formerly coached the Pinehurst teams.

ANOTHER GREAT RACE CARD OFFERED AT THE PINEHURST RACE TRACK

A record breaking crowd cheered the winners at the Washington's Birthday Races at Pinehurst and everybody was so thoroughly delighted with the splendid program offered that another big crowd is sure to attend the next race meeting on Wednesday, March 3rd, when a full program of races and other entertainment features will be offered.

The steeple chase scheduled for this meet, which will consist of hunters only, with gentlemen riders, is an event which is sure to attract all lovers of good sport.

Tom Tarheel says it always pays him to keep a few hogs and last year, they made him a little extra money.
