

Vass and Community

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Burt, of Biscoe, Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Matthews and daughter, Ellen, and Miss Laura Huff, of Sanford, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cameron, Sunday.

Mrs. D. C. McGill, Mrs. S. R. Smith and W. D. Smith spent Sunday afternoon in Sanford.

Fred Taylor, of the University of North Carolina, was at home for a short visit last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomas, J. R., Jr., and Miss Mildred Thomas visited at the home of T. R. Moffitt, in Sanford, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Moffitt is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. H. S. Creech and children returned Sunday from a visit to relatives in Benson.

Miss Sallie Thompson, of Cameron route 1, is visiting relatives in Vass and Lakeview, this week.

Misses Bessie, Mary Elizabeth and Eloaner Cameron, of Pinehurst, spent the week-end with relatives and friends here. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cameron came over for a Sunday afternoon visit.

Mrs. T. C. Gaddy and Mrs. Charlie Boaz, of Cameron, spent Friday with Mrs. A. K. Thompson. Mrs. Gaddy's friends are delighted that she is able to be out again, after her recent illness.

H. L. Thompson, of Sanford, and J. W. Thompson, of Hamlet, visited relatives here Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Rosser and Master John Harrington Rosser went to Broadway Monday.

Miss Lizzie Jones spent last week-end with her father at Fuquay Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smith, Miss Mary Davis Westcott and Earl Edwards visited in Parkton Sunday.

Miss Rachel Beasley was a Sunday dinner guest of Miss Olera McCraney.

We are glad to welcome to our town, James T. Craig and family, of Pinehurst. They are at home in the Joyner house.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Perkins and baby, of Swann Station, were visitors at the home of A. Cameron Sunday.

Prof. W. D. Matthews and family went to Sanford Sunday afternoon to visit his mother, Mrs. Mildred Matthews. Mrs. Matthews has been ill with influenza, but is much better.

Miss Martha McKay spent Saturday in Sanford.

Misses Louise Black and Emma Wilson went to Southern Pines Wednesday on business.

Miss Ola Parham, trained nurse, has returned to Sanford after spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Tyson.

Mesdames C. J. Temple, G. H. Simpson, H. A. Borst, and W. C. Leslie went to Aberdeen Friday afternoon to call on Mrs. W. V. McRae.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Holt and Mrs. G. W. Griffin were Sanford visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Smith spent Saturday evening in Sanford with T. R. Moffitt and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Cox and children went to Hamlet Sunday afternoon to see Miss Beulah Cox, who is suffering with rheumatism. Miss Cox is in training in the Hamlet hospital.

G. B. Laubscher attended the program given by the music pupils of the local school, Friday night. Mr. Laubscher, who suffered a stroke of paralysis nearly three years ago, leaves home so seldom that it is quite a treat to him to get out and mingle with his friends.

The Ladies Auxiliary presents the play, "Packing the Missionary Barrel," and the other features Friday night, at the Vass-Lakeview auditorium. Admission only 25 and 15 cents. Come!

Book Shower for School Library
On Thursday afternoon of last week the Woman's Club of Vass very kindly remembered the school with a book shower. Eighteen volumes were presented. The school greatly appreciates this thoughtfulness on the part of the club.

Circle Two Meets with Mrs. Smith
Circle Two of the Methodist Auxiliary met on Tuesday evening with Mrs. S. R. Smith. The attendance was good, only two members being absent. The meeting opened with a song, followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Alex Smith. Prayer, reading by Mrs. C. L. Tyson and Mrs. C. J. Temple. Reports were made, and the business of the Circle discussed. During the social hour, several contests were enjoyed. Mrs. C. J. Temple will be hostess to the Circle in April.

Ready-To-Wear Sale
The Ladies of Circle No. 1, will have a sale of ladies' and children's ready made dresses on Friday afternoon and Saturday. The sale will be in Temple's new store. Everybody is cordially invited to look these dresses over, even if they do not wish to make a purchase.

Lancaster-Griffin Announcement
An announcement reading as follows was received last week by friends in town:

Dr. Pearce Edwin Griffin announces the marriage of his daughter, Martha to Mr. John Lancaster on Wednesday, the twenty fourth of February, one Thousand, Nine Hundred and Twenty-Six, Vass, North Carolina.

Mrs. Lancaster is the very popular teacher of English and French in the Vass-Lakeview high school. Since coming to Vass from her home in Georgia, she has won many friends. Mrs. Lancaster was educated at Wesleyan College, where she specialized in voice and in expression. Mr. Lancaster is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, of Hotel Vass.

Mrs. O. Winkleman was hostess to Circle No. 1, of the Methodist Auxiliary Tuesday afternoon.

Roll call was answered by a goodly number of the members after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The scripture lesson was read by Mrs. G. W. Griffin, followed by prayer, then, interesting readings concerning Mission Schools were given by Mrs. G. B. Laubscher and Mrs. J. S. Lancaster. Much business was attended to, after which a social hour was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments consisting of jello with whipped cream, mints and cake, doughnuts and hot coffee were served. The hostess being assisted by her sister, Mrs. Joe Weber, of New York.

Suggestions of St. Patrick's Day were carried out and altogether a most delightful as well as profitable meeting was held. The April meeting will be with Mrs. E. Dunkhurst.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT
The program given by the pupils of the Music Department of the Vass-Lakeview Public School last Friday night was the best entertainment of its kind ever given, or attempted, in these parts. From the first number, "We're Ready To Begin," to the close of the musical fairy play, "Midsummer Eve," the large audience was delighted at the manner in which students have responded to the excellent training they have received in the Music Department. Every grade in the school was represented in the program, from the little tots in the first grade on through the high school classes.

Practically every seat in the high school auditorium was filled and patrons of the school were loud in their praise of Mrs. S. R. Smith, who staged and directed the entire program. The great success of her undertaking is additional proof that we have talent right here in Moore County that is as good as can be found anywhere.

Some day, it is hoped, Community and County Fairs will be resumed in Moore county. When these are being planned, the promoters can be assured that it is no longer necessary to import high salaried pageant directors. A small portion of the amount usually expended for these features, placed in the hands of Mrs. Smith, would produce a pageant that it would not be necessary to apologize for in any community. J. T. At the Baptist church, March 28, Sabbath school 9:45 a. m. At the Ives cottage.

There was no service at the Methodist church last Sabbath, owing to the temporary illness of the pastor.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rose, a boy, last Thursday night.

Wm. Dow, who has spent the winter here with his wife in the Ivey cottage on Baltimore Avenue, passed into his rest last week, Monday evening, of heart trouble. Mr. Dow was a nephew of the noted Rev. Lorenzo and Neil Dow, of Maine.

E. G. Adams is breaking ground for his new house on Philadelphia avenue, west of his garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rose's baby died last Sunday. Funeral Monday at the home.

Miss Florence Fowl left March 12, for Minneapolis, Minn., on a business trip and returned March 19.

Mrs. Frank M. Commons, of Minneapolis, Minn., who is stopping at the Midpines club, entertained about 25 guests at the Pine Bluff Inn recently.

Mrs. J. M. Conners, and daughter, Ann, of White Plains, N. Y., arrived last week to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. James J. Foley.

Capt. T. A. White found an egg in his hen house, deposited by a white wyandotte that measured four inches long by six inches around.

Mrs. Sadie Fiddner, Mrs. John Fiddner and Mrs. R. A. Prest spent the afternoon in Pinehurst Monday.

Miss Margaret A. Kittell, who spent the winter with Mrs. Frank Page at Aberdeen is home for a season.

Mrs. Sadie Fiddner spent last week in Greensboro as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Luther McDonold.

Aubrey Privett spent last week in Greensboro on business.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Shank, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Minord, Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Whipple, spent three days last week at Chimney Rock as guests of the Graham Realty company. They report the scenery most beautiful, and the mountains just gorgeous, but as a place for the northern tourists to spend the winter, in Pinebluff and the Sandhill section beats it by far. Some building lots there sell for $3,500 and small lots at that, just large enough to build a small cottage on and some lots in Landal Park, a suburb of Hendersonville, sells for $5,000 a front foot and some other lots sell for $100, a front foot.

Rev. J. M. Shank preached in Carthage last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Miller gave a picnic dinner at Lumbee river camp last Sunday for their friends. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bush, of Buffalo, N. Y., who are stopping at the Pine Bluff Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jellison have adopted a little boy from St. Leo's hospital, Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gregory entertained last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bush. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krug, of West Long Branch, N. J., who have spent several weeks with Mrs. Zoe Howard, were very suddenly called home last week by the serious illness of their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Huel, Mrs. M. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gregory, spent Friday in Rockingham.

Mrs. J. W. Austin is caring for Mrs. Dan Rose.

Mrs. Adolph Russom, of Charlottesville, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Minehart and granddaughter, Mrs. Berg, of Silver Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Berg, of Silver Springs, entertained E. W. Hase and Mr. Locke, of Fayetteville over the Sabbath.

Mr. and Mrs. Fellows, from York Beach, Maine, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jellison, who have spent the winter in Florida, have returned to Pinebluff and are located in Mrs. M. E. Akens's cottage, corner of Jefferson Davis highway and Baltimore avenue.
