

CAMERON

'Tis April starts, and calls around, The sleeping fragrance from the ground."

Yes, we have water aplenty in our wells, thanks to Him, who sends the snow and rain upon the just and unjust.

Mi-Lady's spring hats on a Sunday morning at church, reminds one of the "Gardens where the pretties grow."

Edd Smith made a delightful call at the home of Miss Hyatt, and accompanied her to church on the evening of April 6th.

J. R. Jones, of Sanford, was in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hendricks' parents, Rev. and Mrs. O. A. Keller, of Jonesboro.

Rev. M. D. McNeill filled his regular appointment of the second Sunday at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, preaching from the subject: "Christ's Kingdom, a spiritual King-

Miss Miss Elizabeth Ledbetter, Will Ledbetter and T. J. Jones, of Fayetteville, were guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally.

Mrs. N. A. Pleasants, of Aberdeen is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. S. Ray.

Miss Beulah Thomas, of Broadway, spent the week-end with homefolks.

Misses Margaret McQueen, of Pinehurst, Pearl McNeill, of Lakeview, spent an afternoon of last week with Miss Vera McLean.

Misses Margaret and Elia McLean, Don McLean, on route 2, were callers in town Saturday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Royster, of Virginia, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Burnfas.

Quite a number from Cameron attended the B. Y. P. U convention at Sanford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaddy, and John, Jr., of Vass; Mr. and Mrs. Glyde Gaddy and daughter, Hattie Belle, of Sanford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gaddy and Miss Lula Gaddy.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McNeill, of Vass, were visitors Sunday afternoon, of Mrs. H. D. Tally and her mother, Mrs. Julia McDugald.

Master Carl Rogers, seven-year-old, has come to Cameron to make his home with his aunt, Mrs. Laura Rogers—since the passing of his mother, Mrs. Fuller Rogers, of Siler City, who left twelve motherless children. Carl is a little homesick at present, but we hope that will soon pass, for he has a good home, with good and kind-hearted people.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers, of Sanford, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Laura Rogers and family.

The Merry Makers enjoyed a pleasant evening last week, with Miss Elizabeth Ray. Guests of honor: Mrs. H. P. Bilyeu, of Greensboro, Mrs. Dan Ray, of Vass. Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The John McNeill society met last week, with Mrs. Jewel Hemphill. Subject: Obedience. Leader Kathleen Cameron.

Little Miss Lois E. Cameron on route 1, spent Saturday with Misses Virginia and Johnnie Cameron.

Mrs. Reggie Allred and little daughter, returned last week from a visit to Mrs. Allred's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Teague, of Jonesboro.

Rev. Mr. Wright preached an excellent sermon Sunday night at the Methodist church, taking his subject from the twenty verse of the 5th chapter of Mark.

The Cameron ministrals are booked for Olivia, Friday night. Nuff sed. They are a scream.

Miss Minnie Muse spent Saturday night with Misses Sallie and Bess Cameron on route 1.

Mrs. Lula Muse and Miss Annie Borst returned Saturday from Raeford, where they were delegates to the Presbyterial, and are loud in their praises of the reception tendered, of the delightful, splendid, and edifying talks, made by the intellectual, culturer and extensively traveled, who were present; of the inspiring music so well rendered, of the many courtesies extended; of the generous hospitality displayed. Mrs. Muse and Miss Borst were guests of Mrs. Annie Cameron, and her charming daughter Mrs. Alec. Blue.

Rev. J. W. Hartsell accompanied Rev. M. D. McNeill to Manly Sunday afternoon, where Rev. McNeill filled his regular appointment.

If Mussolini ever had aspare moment on his hands he might step over to Pisa and straighten up that leaning tower.—Arkansas Gazette.

LAKEVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Allen, from Wisconsin, who are now stopping over in Pinehurst, also Mr. Meggs, of the Chicago Herald, were caller on Mr and Mrs. W. H. Coffey.

Mesdames W. H. McNeil, J. R. McQueen, M. P. Causey and J. B. Eastwood were auxiliary delegates that attended the Ladies Presbyterial at Raeford last Thursday. They report a very interestnig meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Poole, of Jackson Springs, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Poole Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpkins, from Garner, were the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gardner.

Henry Eastwood and Badger Eastwood, from Virginia, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eastwood, Sunday.

P. L. Gardner, and Melvin Gardner left Thursday for Fortlauderdale, Fa.

Mrs. Leroy Harrington and Mrs. H. G. Poole, spent, Saturday evening in Carthage.

O. H. Stutts, of Pinehurst, was a business visitor in town Friday night.

Mrs. Home, and three children, and Miss Williams, from Utica, N. Y. arrived here Thursday to spend several weeks. They are occupying one of the Lakeview cottages.

Miss Kate Catlin, after visiting Mrs. N. L. Gibbon, left Sunday for the home in Washington.

Mrs. J. R. McQueen, and Miss Pearl McNeill called on Mrs. I. C. Sledge in Pinehurst Saturday.

Mrs. J. B. Eastwood, and daughter, John, were callers of near Carthage, Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Holland and Mrs. P. L. Gardner, spent Friday in Sanford.

Mrs. W. E. Youland, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bryant, of Henderson, spent Sunday here. Mr. Joulard is now staying at the Gardner house for a few days.

Alex Frye spent Monday night with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Richardson, spent Wednesday in Raeford.

Miss Edna Cheatham, from Manly, was the delightful guest of Mrs. L. L. Wooley, Wednesday.

Raymond Johnson called on Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Coffey Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. B. Eastwood and Mrs. M. P. Causey, spent Tuesday evening in Carthage.

Mrs. W. E. Youland was supper guest of Mrs. J. R. McQueen Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gardner and Mrs. P. L. Gardner were dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Holland Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stutts and son, James, moved to Blowing Rock the former part of the week. The Stutts family will be greatly missed.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spears and children, Eugenia and Carelyn, Misses Hellen Daugherty and Nora Burch, Messrs. F. M. Dwight and O. H. Carpenter, went down to Pee Dee river and there had a most enjoyable shad fish fry.

NORTH CAROLINA, MOORE COUNTY.

IN SUPERIOR COURT C. G. Hatch and others, such other creditors of Chas. Cole & Co., as may come in and make themselves parties to this action and contribute to the costs thereof,

vs. Chas. Cole & Co., et al. NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court made in the above entitled action on March 31, 1926, by the Judge holding the Courts of the Thirteenth Judicial District, the undersigned S. R. Hoyle, Receiver appointed by the Court in said action, will sell to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the drug store of the defendant, Chas. Cole & Co., in the Page Building, in Carthage, N. C., on the 24th day of April 1926, at 12 o'clock, noon, the following property, to-wit:

The entire stock of drugs, drug sundaries, goods, jewelry, wares and merchandise, store fixtures and furniture and effects of every nature and kind (not including accounts) now in the drug store of the defendant, Chas. Cole & Co., in the said Page Building and in said defendant's warehouse on lot adjoining said Page Building, in the Town of Carthage, N. C., and also all the interest of the said Chas. Cole & Co. in and to a lease of said drug store rooms and buildings in said Page Building under a written contract of lease entered into by said Chas. Cole & Co., with the Page Trust Company, together with the business and good-will of said defendant corporation company, and the right to adopt and use the name of said Chas. Cole & Co., in the conduct of any future business to the extent the title to such right can be ordered and conveyed by the Court. Said property and rights will be sold as a whole and as a going concern.

This 1st day of April, 1926. S. R. HOYLE, Receiver. R. L. Burns, Attorney. 2-19-16-23A

F. G. Gibbs and J. R. McNeill, of Elon College were callers in town Monday.

J. B. Eastwood was in Aberdeen Monday.

Some of these small cars are getting so very small that the only way they can deal with a refractory pedestrain is to sting him.—Punch.

There is some talk of calling a mass meeting of ex-premiers of France to consider the case of the falling franc.—Punch.

Americans are hard to drive. There's too much talk about enforcing the laws and not enough about obeying the law.—Wooster Daily Record.

NOTICE OF SALE

Undre and by virtue of the powers of sale contained in a certain deed of frusts executed and delivered by Henry G. Fry, and Eulala Fry, his wife, to G. H. Humber, Trustee, recorded in Book 31, page 380, and to B. C. Wallace, Trustee, recorded in Book 42, page 364, Office of Register Of Deeds Of Moore County, the undersigned Trustees, will on the 26th day of April 1926, at 12 O'clock, Noon, at the Court House Door Of Moore County, expose to sale to the highest bidder for cash, all those three (3) certain lots or parcels of land lying and being in the County of Moore, State of North Carolina, and in Carthage Township, bounded as follows, to-wit:

First Tract; In Carthage Township, Moore County, N. C., adjoining the lands of W. C. Hough and others, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake formerly Neill McCrummens' but now W. C. Houghs' corner running thence N. 4 E. 210 ft. to a stake in the center of the road; thence N. 70 W. 105 ft. to a stake; thence S. 4 W. 210 ft. to a stake in the edge of the road; thence S. 70 E. 105 ft. to the first station, containing, one-half (1-2) acre, more or less.

Second Tract; Adjoining above tract; Beginning at South West corner with a pine knot for the corner; thence running 140 ft. with Florence Boyds' line cornering South-West side of Vass clayed road; thence running back with the Vass clayed road 234 ft. cornering at W. H. Frys' line South-West side of the Vass clayed road; thence running back the said Fry line 180 ft. cornering at commencing corner on Florence Boyds' line, containing, an half (1-2) acre, more or less.

Third Tract; Adjoining above tract. Beginning at Frys' corner in the Sand-clay road leading to Vass, and runs thence as said road South 33 E.

chains to a stake and black jack pointers; thence N. 89 W. 9 chains to a stake in the Pinehurst Sand Clay road and black jack pointers; thence with said Pinehurst Sand Clay road N. 23 E. 5.25 chains to his home lot corner; thence as the line of said home lot to the beginning, containing, three (3) acres, more or less. The above described tract of land being a part of Lot No. 105 of the Tyson Lands, conveyed by W. G. Jennings, and wife, Annie H. Jennings, to Sam Brame, April 24th, 1920. This March 26th, 1926.

B. C. WALLACE, Trustee. G. H. HUMBER, Trustee. HOYLE & HOYLE, Attorneys. 26-2-9-16A

MONEY TO LEND

TO FARMERS ONLY

Atlantic Joint Stock Land Bank of Raleigh

Has Unlimited Capital for this Purpose

33 years to repay, but may be repaid at any time after 5 years.

6 Per Cent Interest

Any farmer with 30 acres of land or more, with at least 20 acres in cultivation and house and barn may apply.

Money may be used for purchase of additional land, purchase of live-stock, fertilizer, for new buildings and the payment of debts.

Send for application blank and further particulars, or call upon our representative.

T. J. McPherson Masonic Temple

Sanford, N. C.

Shield Brand Clothes

For Young Men

With Spring opening up there comes the call for New Spring Clothes. Light shades are in greatest demand and we have a nice assortment to offer you. In Shield Brand Clothes you will find a garment of quality, neatly made up and snappy in appearance. Give ours a look before buying.

Along With Clothing

Comes the demand for hats, shoes, shirts and hosiery. Our stock in these different things is complete and we offer you the latest styles and best of quality. Join Our Host of Satisfied Customers and Buy at Home!

Vass Mercantile Company

A City Store Located in a Small Town

Vass, North Carolina

Vertical text on the far right edge of the page, partially cut off.