

CAMERON

...Mrs. R. C. Thomas and daughter, Misses Margaret and Mary Emma, and I. S. Thomas attended commencement exercises at Buies' Creek, Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret McLean and daughter, Misses Ella and Margaret, Dan McLean, D. J. McNeill, George Muse, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Monroe and daughters, Misses Annie Jane and Pearl and Monroe, Jr., all of Union Church community, route 2, attended Communion services at Cameron Presbyterian church Sunday.

At the Communion services, Rev. M. D. McNeill took for the subject of his discussion, "The Passover, and The Lord's Supper".

Time, paper, pen and ink were wasted last week in a letter to The Pilot, telling about one of the most beautiful pageants ever staged in Cameron. Possibly The Pilot didn't have place for all of Cameron's "big doin's."

Mrs. D. S. Ray spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ray, of Vass.

Guy Matthews came up from Hamlet Sunday for a visit to his mother, Mrs. Georgia Matthews.

Prof. Duncan Matthews and family, of Vass, were visitors Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Irvin.

Stacy Brewer, Editor of The Pilot was in town last week.

Miss Kate Arnold is spending the week in Fayetteville.

Laurence Sprunt, of Wilmington, spent an afternoon of last week with Mrs. E. M. Borst and Miss Annie Borst.

Miss Thurla Cole spent the week-end in Charlotte.

Miss Lillian Cole has returned from Culowhee Normal where she has been teaching.

Mrs. H. P. McPherson, Miss Manda McPherson and the correspondent called Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. John B. Cameron, who has been a helpless invalid for over a year. Mrs. Cameron is patient and cheerful under her affliction, and gives each caller a cordial welcome.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hartsell, Miss Annie Hartsell, Miss Vera McLean and L. F. Hartsell spent Sunday in Raleigh, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomson.

Fuller Rogers came down from Siler City, on Sunday to see his little son, Carl, who is making his home with his aunt, Mrs. Laura Rogers.

Miss Annie Hollingsworth Jones is home from Mars Hill where she has been a student.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Badgett, of Mt. Airy, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Doss.

Miss Flora Phillips returned Saturday from a visit to Miss Annie Cole, near Sanford.

Mrs. William Henry Coore announces the marriage of her daughter, Blanche Brooks to Arthur Whiteford Hays, Thursday the twenty-second of April, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty Six, Lumberton, N. C. At home, Raleigh North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rogers, Miss Anna and Charles, Jr., of Sanford, were guests Sunday of Mrs. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Graham and little son visited Mrs. Graham's parents in Raeford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat McDonald and little son, of Carthage are visiting relatives in town this week.

The scholarship medal given and presented by Prof. J. Clyde Kelly, was won by Ada Gilchrist, who made an average of 87 1-10. Honorable mention, Ila Ferguson, Maude Ferguson, Annie Lee Thomas, Elmer Lemmon.

The senior class gave the medal for declamation, won by Henry Dowell Jones and presented by Dr. Gilmore. L. B. McKeithen gave the medal for recitation, won by Ethel Boaz, presented by Prof. Kelly. The class' gift to the school was a set of maps costing $85.00. The Woman's club presented a science equipment that cost $245.00. M. McL. McKeithen, a ten volume set of books, beautifully bound. "Messages of the Presidents from Washington to McKinley." During the year the library was increased from 300 to 450 books.

Roger Matthews, of Hamlet, remembered his mother on Mother's Day with a handsome and beautifully cake. It seems to me that every mother in Cameron was remembered by their children with candy, fruits, flowers and other dainty gifts.

Miss Mamie Arnold has been appointed tax collector for Greenwood township, and will be in Cameron, each Saturday during the month of May, at Kelly's store, the 14th and 21st, and at John B. Cameron's, route 1, on the afternoon of the 18th. Farmers, please come prepared to give farm census.

Mrs. Anna Culberson, of Sanford, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Wooten. Mrs. Wooten was the recipient of many lovely remembrances on Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. York and children, of Sanford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten. Moore county is proud to claim as a native, Mrs. Martha A. Bullock, of Lumberton, who writes for The Pilot such interesting articles, and lovely poems about the scenes around her old home. Mrs. Bullock was born and reared in Cameron community and comes of literary stock. She is the daughter of Dave Arnett and Martha McLeod Arnette, and on the maternal side, she is related to Mary Ayre Miller, of literary fame. Mrs. Miller's poems and blank verse were among the choice selections in the readers that were used in the schools and colleges of the past. Mrs. Bullock is a thinker and beyond a doubt, a fundamentalist.

Mrs. D. B. Teague came over from Sanford Sunday and attended Communion services at the Presbyterian church and was dinner guest at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. M. D. McNeill.

Rev. Mr. Humble filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday night in the absence of Rev. Mr. Wright.

Miss Bonnie Muse came up from Hamlet for the week-end.

Miss Pauline Snipes spent the week-end with Lucille Way, of Carthage.

The Merry Makers met last week with Mrs. George Wooten. After holding a conversation party, the hostess served sandwiches, fruit salad and coffee.

Mrs. F. A. Snow, Mrs. James E. Snow, Mrs. Loula Muse, Mrs. Jewel Hemphill, were joint hostess to the Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. James E. Snow on the afternoon of Thursday, May 6th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. James E. Snow. The minutes were read by the secretary and treasure, Mrs. L. B. McKeithen, and club business discussed, after which there were two unique and original contests presented by Mrs. Loula Muse and Mrs. Jewel Hemphill. The first, a nature contest. The names of leaves on the trees of our own home town and cemetery. Each leaf was numbered and pasted on a sheet hung upon the wall. Each guest was given a card, and asked to write the names of leaves. There was a tie of four partners, Mrs. Spivey, Mrs. Wooten, Miss Annie Borst, Mrs. Harrington. This called for a draw! Miss Annie Borst winning, who gave the prize, a lovely potted plant to her partner, Mrs. Harrington.

The next, a club contest, in which the guests were requested to write the names of clubs by the written descriptions. As the jolliest club? Answer: Glee Club. The gamblers delight? Answer: Ace of Cards. A grunting club? Answer: The Pig club. A club for higher culture? Answer: The Book club. Most important club in the world? Answer: The Woman's club. And many others that were equally as clever. The winners were Mrs. J. E. Phillips and Mrs. J. D. McLean. The prize, a book loved by Scotchmen. Scots' Lady of the Lake. Mrs. Phillips very graciously asked Mrs. McLean to accept the prize. The prizes were presented by Mrs. Lula Muse in her most charming manner, with a speech that was characteristic of her culture and cleverness. Refreshments of cake, hot coffee and tea were served. Members of the club who were present, Mrs. Lula Muse, Mrs. H. P. McPherson, Mrs. J. Clyde Kelly, Mrs. J. D. McLean, Mrs. W. C. Spivey, Mrs. A. F. Snow, Mrs. L. B. McKeithen, Mrs. W. G. Parker, Mrs. Georgie Matthews, Mrs. A. M. Snipes, Mrs. G. M. Desmott, Mrs. W. M. Wooten, Mrs. George Wooten, Mrs. Jewel Hemphill, Mrs. Donald McDonald, Mrs. H. D. Talley, Miss Mary Emma Thomas, Miss Manda McPherson, Miss Lola Thomasson, Miss Minnie Muse, Miss Elizabeth Ray, Mrs. J. E. Snow, Evelyn Ann Snow, Margaret McDonald. Visitors, Mrs. M. McL. McKeithen, Mrs. J. E. Phillips, Misses Annie Borst, Vera McLean, Annie Hartsell, Mrs. J. McK. Harrington. Next meeting first Thursday in June, with Mrs. L. B. McKeithen.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Snow are an ideal couple in an ideal home, on a high ridge with a magnificent view for miles and miles. They own 65 acres and have started a farm. They have a cow, chickens, pigs, bees, garden truck patches, fruit and flowers. Both are highly educated and cultured. They have a splendid library and take the best magazines and daily papers. They have as sweet and well trained baby girl, Evelyn Ann. "Love rules the court, the camp, the grove." Mrs. Snow told me she had given her home a Dutch name, "Boven Vlei." And I admitted it was dutch to me—until she gave the English meaning which is "Above the Valley."
