A TRIBUTE TO JOHN WILLCOX

Endorsed By Friend Who Has Known Him Since Childhood

The Vass Pilot, Vass, N. C. Dear Editor:

May I say through your columns that I have known John Willcox since he was a child. He is a son of Captain George Willcox who lived near me. John Willcox was educated at the University of North Carolina. Although he was equipped to enter any profession, he loved the farm. He is an extensive farmer, and has one of the finest farms in Moore County, located in the Horseshoe near the place of his birth. It is the old Col. Alstin place of Revolutionary fame, and the home bears the marks of that war. John and others farmers of his mould furnished the sinews (bread and meat) that won the World War. John Willcox is honest, broad-minded, just, and a gentleman of the finest type. Both by natural endowment and education he is eminently fitted for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court.

Yours very truly, A. J. JONES.

June 17, 1926.

HAVING ENGAGED in other business requiring my entire time, I will not be in position to supply Tobacco Flues this season.

W. H. KEITH.

Portrait of George Willcox with handwritten signature 'Geo. Willcox' and a detailed caption: 'Captain George Willcox, a Life-long Resident of Moore County, Father of John Willcox who led in the Democratic Primary as Candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court.
