

Vass and Community

Guy Simpson, of Madison, visited his mother, Mrs. G. H. Simpson, Sunday.

W. D. Smith was a Raeford visitor, Friday.

W. A. Parker, of Charlotte, is spending a few days at the home of his brother, J. J. Parker.

N. M. Smith, teacher of Agriculture in the Warsaw City schools, spent last week-end at home, leaving Monday for Raleigh, where he will attend summer school at State College.

Mrs. Robert Taylor, of Newton, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, at Hotel Vass.

Mrs. Mamie Dixon, of Raleigh, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Tyson.

Mrs. M. D. McDonald, of Hamlet, came Tuesday, to spend some time with her sisters, Mrs. W. J. Cameron and Mrs. J. R. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cannon, of Winston-Salem, visited Miss Jewell Edwards, Tuesday. Mrs. Cannon was formerly Miss Carrie Norman, of Cameron.

Prof. W. D. Matthews, who is attending summer school at Wake Forest, spent last week-end with Mrs. Matthews and the children.

Mrs. L. L. Wooley and baby, L. L. Jr., of Southern Pines, were shopping here, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Pearsall, of Dunn, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smith and Miss Mary Davis Westcott.

Misses Eva Oldham and Bessie Gunter returned last week from Davidson College, where they attended the Presbyterian Young People's Convention, as delegates from the local Christian Endeavor Society. At the Sunday evening service they gave interesting reports of their stay in Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cameron and children, Marian and A. Mac, spent Sunday with relatives in Buie's Creek. They were accompanied home by Mrs. L. McKay, who will spend several days with them.

Mr. and Mrs. N. N. McLean and baby, Mrs. D. C. McGill, and Miss Agnes Smith, were Sanford visitors Tuesday.

D. A. Graham and little daughter, Dorothy May, of Ruffin, S. C. visited relatives in Vass and community the first of the week.

Mrs. E. M. Borst, Miss Annie Borst and Miss Helen Parker, of Cameron, E. M. Borst and Mason Borst, of Wilmington, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Borst, Saturday.

Mrs. Paul Joyner, of Fayetteville, and Mrs. Alfred Graham and children, of Cameron, were calling on friends in town, an afternoon last week.

Richard Griffin, who has been working in Andrews, S. C., for some time, is visiting his mother, Mrs. G. W. Griffin.

Miss Eula Hamilton, of Dunn, is visiting her grandfather, Duncan McRaney.

Mrs. D. B. Cameron, of Durham, is spending a few days with relatives in and near Vass.

Friends of J. R. Thomas will be glad to know that he was able to return to Raleigh the first of the week, after an illness of several weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. D. McD. Monroe and children, Mrs. N. N. McLean and little son, James Ray, and Miss Agnes Smith went to Fayetteville, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart, of Cameron route, visited Mrs. Ibbie McNeill Saturday. Mrs. McNeill has Lee Fore Qing from Chile, is spending a week with Misses Vera and Nellie Muse at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Muse.

Mrs. Leslie Hostess to Circle Two

Mrs. W. C. Leslie was hostess to Circle Two of the Methodist Auxiliary on Tuesday evening of this week, at which time a most delightful meeting was held. The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. W. J. Cameron and the business session presided over by the Circle Chairman, Mrs. Leslie. The social hour which followed was filled with stunts of various kinds and a leaf contest, and the winners, Mesdames Alex Smith, W. J. Cameron,

PAGE MEMORIAL M. E. CHURCH
ABERDEEN, N. C.

Wm. V. McRae, Pastor

Prayer services, Friday evening, 8 o'clock, June 25.

Preaching and Holy Communion Sunday, June 27, at 11:15 A. M. and at 8 p. m.

To all services, the public is cordially invited.

C. L. Tyson and C. J. Temple, were given appropriate and attractive prizes. Refreshments of punch, fruit salad and cake were served by Miss Louise and Marjorie Leslie and Katherine Graham. The Circle was delighted to have two visitors present, Mrs. D. B. Cameron, of Durham, and Mrs. M. D. McDonald, of Hamlet. The July meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. K. Thompson.

A Trip To Baden

On Thursday, June 10, class number five of the Methodist Sunday school, with several invited guests, chaperoned by their teacher, Marvin Davis, enjoyed a very interesting trip to Baden, a beautiful little town.

Upon arriving at Baden, they were joined by Mr. Davis' brother, wife and children. Mr. Davis is connected with the "Wearer" Aluminum plant, one of the largest in the United States.

After lunch, the evening was spent in visiting points of interests, among which was the big dam of the Tallahassee Power plant, which is 250 feet high. Then a trip through the Aluminum plant which was very instructive.

Those who enjoyed the trip and most bountiful dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Davis, Misses Elizabeth and Madeline Simpson, Louise Leslie and Katharine Graham, Earl Edwards, J. R. Thomas, Jr., Wesley Thompson, Warren Cox, Gerald and Albert Graham.

Circle No. 1, of the Methodist Auxiliary met on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. A. G. Edwards at her home. In the absence of the president, the devotional services were led by Mrs. G. H. Simpson. After the business of the meeting was finished, Mrs. Edwards was assisted by Miss Jewell Edwards in giving a most delightful social hour, during which a very clever, original contest was an interesting feature.

Refreshments of cherry ice cream and cake were served.

For Clerk of Superior Court

== VOTE FOR ==

John Willcox of the Horseshoe

A Capable, Dependable Man, known all his life in the county, and of a family that has been foremost in community affairs for many years.

John Willcox is a farmer, a man whose interests are those of the rank and file of the county, the people whose affairs are those of every day life, the people constitute the bulk of the county, and whose work is the work of the community.

John Willcox was born and reared in Moore county, and has always been alive to its interests. He is at present a member of the Board of County Commissioners, a board that is doing much to advance the county, for Moore was never in more excellent financial shape than now, and never was making more progress.

John Willcox is of the type of men that can be expected to handle an office like that of the Clerk of the Superior Court in a way that will take care of the important matters entrusted to its care, to the satisfaction of the people, with judgment, promptness and accuracy. He has the qualifications for such a place, and he is the type of man who is needed in that office.

HE IS OFFERING HIMSELF FOR THE JOB ON ONE BASIS—

He is Qualified

Vote for John Willcox for Clerk of Superior Court, Saturday, July 3.

Be at the polls and help to secure for this important office this capable and dependable man.