

CAMERON

The long drought has been broken by a steady and continued rain, and to the Giver of all good gifts we give thanks. If one is correspondent for a weekly paper and reports the weather conditions, by the time the paper is out, the weather is likely to be the reverse. We are having peculiar weather. Back of it all are the forces of nature, and back of the forces is the Creator.

I am pleased to send in this week, a year's renewal to The Pilot, from Miss Ruth Wooten, who gives the paper to her father, W. M. Wooten—as a present for "Fathers' Day."

Carey Phillips arrived Saturday evening from State College, where he has been a student the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. June Tally, and little daughter, Betsy Jean, of Providence, R. I. are guests of Mr. Tally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally.

Miss Callie Battley, of Pinehurst, and Mrs. Dan Ray, of Vass, were in town Monday, keeping house for Mrs. D. S. Ray and family, who attended the funeral of Mrs. Ray's daughter, Mrs. H. P. Bilyeu at Greensboro.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hartsell, L. F.

Hartsell and Mrs. T. A. Henricks, attended the funeral of Mrs. John Thomas at Morven, Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Rogers, a recent graduate of North Carolina Baptist hospital, at Winston-Salem, who came home for a visit, returned last week, and will remain at the hospital until she passes the state board.

Mrs. Paul Joyner and little son, Paul Wooten, who have been visiting Mrs. Joyner's parents, have returned to Fayetteville, accompanied by little Miss Janette Wooten, who will visit a few weeks in Fayetteville.

Miss Lula Rogers, who has a position with the Lee Furniture company of Sanford; Carl Holt, of Sanford, and baby Laura Grace Rogers, spent Sunday with the family of Mrs. Laura Rogers. Glad to report James Rogers on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and little son, Frank, Jr., of Manchester, came up Sunday for the day with Mr. and Mrs. N. C. McFayden. Returning, they were accompanied home by Mrs. N. C. McFayden, who will make a visit to Manchester and Fayetteville.

Mrs. J. H. Stone and children, Pauline, Virginia and Ozelle, of High Uint, are visiting, Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Doss.

Mrs. J. C. Doss and brother, Howard Griffin, of Winston-Salem are visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Doss.

E. M. and M. C. Borst, of Wilmington, spend each week-end with home-folks in Cameron.

Everybody is "smiling through" on the streets of Cameron since the refreshing downpour of rain.

Bill Smith, one of the influential citizens of Vass, was a caller in town Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Doss and children of Mt. Airy, are here for the berry season.

Mrs. Neill C. McFayden and little son, Franklin are visiting relatives in Manchester and Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Davie and children, Ina and George, of Fayetteville, were here last week, looking over the dew-berry farms.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Tally, Mrs. W. G. Parker, spent Sunday in Hamlet, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDugald.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Yow, spent Sunday with relatives in Southern Pines.

The Cameron news is mailed at the Cameron post office every Tuesday afternoon. Twelve car loads of dew-berries were shipped from here Monday and Monday evening, there were loads and loads waiting to be shipped and no cars were available.

June McIver Hemphill celebrated her ninth birthday on June 15. Among her many remembrances, her uncle, Prof. B. C. McIver, presented her with the following ode:

"Nine times you've been around old sol,
Nine times you've seen old Santa Claus,
Nine birthdays had in berry time,
Do let me take you to the ball.

Mrs. D. S. Ray received a message Sunday conveying the sad message of the death of her beloved daughter, Margaret, wife of H. P. Bilyeu, of Greensboro. Mrs. Bilyeu died in St. Leo's hospital, following an operation. Mrs. Ray and her family have the sympathy of the entire town, for they have made many friends since making their home in Cameron. A more extended account will be given next week.

W. M. Blue and daughter, Miss Kathleen, Miss Ima Nesbit and little sister, of Raeford, called Saturday at the home of the correspondent en route to Sanford.

A quart cup of the finest dewberries ever grown in Cameron was presented to the correspondent last week, by Mrs. Lula McPherson Guthrie, and accompanied by the following card:

"Altho the rain came not,
And the sun shown hot,
And daily a dry wind would blow,
The dear Lord God
Did bless the sod,
And make the dewberries grow."
I am please to say I number Mrs. Guthrie among my best friends of the younger married set.

JULY SHIPMENT OF CHICKENS

It is growing time to figure on the shipment of chickens that should be going out within the next two or three weeks. The Little River Stores are carrying on a campaign among the farmers and the prospects are that a big bunch of frying size will be ready to go out during July and that they will bring a good price. Mr. McCrimmon asks that all who have chickens, young or old, that they care to sell with this shipment let him know so that the arrangement will cover the offering and be ready to care for whatever is brought in. Chickens are bringing right good prices now, and a good shipment will mean a lot of money at a time when money is good to have in the house.

Cowpeas, soybeans and sudan grass may be planted to furnish late hay and forage for livestock, say extension workers at State College.

HAVING ENGAGED in other business requiring my entire time, I will not be in position to supply Tobacco Flues this season.

W. H. KEITH.
