In Memoian, July 28, 1926, "Snooks," the faithful, industrious and affectionate house cat of J. W. Cameron, passed away at the ripe cat age of sixteen years. He was tenderly cared for in his last illness and given a decent burial. Virginia, Johnsie and Opal Thagard, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron, were chief mourners and bedecked the grave with lovely flowers, from their flower garden. Snooks is dead! Long live Snooks, the second!

A few more years of this fast riding and flying, the few people that are left, will produce a progeny that will be legess and perhaps sprouting wings.
